way of future prestige not to be sneezed at.

So there's one battle for your whiskers to head the card.

Of the rest of the boxers booked for the evening, the fans know all there is to know of them, so there's little need to say much here, except perhaps that Wilbur Harrington and Jack Crim, semi-windup eventers, are storing up a lot of dynamite which they intend letting loose in even hotter style than they did in their last mix. The rivalry for supremacy between these two led to a regular thriller on Nov.
3. This one will be even more so, or else one of them will let down, and it doesn't appear either of them will do that.

So that's another one for your chin alfalfa.

Allen and Murphy and Burke and Fleming in the four round prelims, are working away over in the Scandia hall, ready to do their best each in their own particular style of fighting.

Reports from the Mecca, The Smoke, Waldorf and the Rex Billiard hall, where tickets are on sale, indicate a record crowd for the night. The last appearance here of Starkey and a natural desire to see a decision, believed to be forthcoming, are held responsible for this.

Anyway, it looks like a great old night.

Stork Again Pays
Visit to Altamont

For the second time, Altamont camp has been visited by that strange old wing-flapper bird of good omen, the stork.

The first occasion was that of early October and yesterday that of 9:30 a. m. Stork dropped a baby girl for Mr. and Mrs. E. H.
Johnson of the Altamont camp.
Mrs. Johnson and her baby girl are at the Klamath Valley hospital doing exceedingly well. The Johnson family are former Medford residents and have made Klamath Falls their home for the past six weeks.

PIGGLY WIGGLY
Saves Housekeepers Many Dollars!

Changes In Retailing

Many changes have materialized in grocery retailing. The day of the open cracker barrel is gone as well as the necessity for waiting your turn to be waited upon, of paying top prices, of taking what is offered, of substitution, etc.

The new idea of standardized self service high grade grocery stores system has changed all that. You will find in any Piggly Wiggly store only the highest grade, nationally known merchandise, the brands you know represent quality, for there are no salesmen in these stores. The goods themselves are the only salesmen.
You pick out the exact article you desire—just the size you wish—as many as you wish.
