

LOCALS

Miss Clift Leaving—Miss Pauline Clift will leave this morning for San Francisco, where she will enjoy a fortnight's visit away from her duties in the Wilson Abstract company offices. Miss Clift will visit with Mrs. Marjorie Sisemore and other friends and relatives while in the south.

Spink Buys Land—R. C. Spink, justice of the peace of Wood River, has purchased Lot 6, block 2, in Chiloquin, according to a deed filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday. Spink purchased the land from William Brennan for the sum of $500.

From Merrill Route—Harry L. Booth, resident of the Merrill route, spent yesterday in the city transacting business affairs.

Hawkins Sells Land—Burt E. Hawkins has sold lot 495 in block 109, Mills addition, for a consideration of $500, according to a deed filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday.

Friday, the Thirteenth—Despite the fact that yesterday was the ill-boding Friday, the Thirteenth, the clerks in the office of the county clerk were kept on their toes every moment in an effort to keep the deeds, instruments and filings up to date, due to the heavy work coming in. According to C. R. DeLap, the father of the clerk's office, the thirteenth didn't bother the real estate men yesterday.

Klamath Visitor—Leri Barney of the Klamath Agency, is included in the many visitors in the city this week to transact business affairs in the city.

Leave for Game—Miss Jean Perry, Miss Marie Ridings, Bob Riggs and Ray Harlan left yesterday morning for Eugene, where they will spend Home-Coming week-end and attend the big game between Oregon and the Aggies. They made the trip by motor.

From Rocky Point—S. R. Saunders and E. Lassen are among the business visitors in Klamath Falls this week from their home in Rocky Point district. They are guests in the Arcade hotel.

Here from Tennant—J. E. Brockman is a business visitor in the city this week from his home in Tennant.

Here from Dorris—Mr. and Mrs. Irving Kesterson and family of Dorris are spending the week-end in Klamath Falls. Kesterson is with the Topsy Lumber company, and with his family recently moved from Topsy to Dorris.

To Hunt Ducks—J. Albert Matson, prominent insurance man of Marshfield on Coos bay, and William Stout of the Stout Lumber company of Coos bay, who makes his home in Marshfield, are two of the prominent visitors in the city this week from the coast. Stout and Matson arrived last night armed with their best duck and geese guns, and are planning to leave early this morning for the Tale lake country, for an all-day duck hunt. They will remain in Klamath until Sunday. According to Stout the lumber outlook on the bay is good, and things are picking up as winter advances around the Coos country. They made the trip in a little over eight hours from Marshfield, which is considered good time from the Camas mountain road over the Green Springs. Mrs. Stout accompanied her husband and Matson as far as Ashland, taking the south bound train to San Francisco for a few days' visit.

Fighter and Trainer Here—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Trambitas of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ackles, also of Portland, arrived in Klamath Falls last night. Mr. Trambitas will be featured on Wednesday night in the Scandinavian hall in a boxing match, where he will meet Kid Starkey. Ackles is Trambitas' trainer.

At the White Pelican—H. W. Meek, with the Southern Pacific company, is included in the business visitors stopping at the White Pelican hotel.

Court to Convene—Announcement has been made of a Kangaroo court to be conducted in the Superior Court of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church in Klamath Falls on Sunday night at six thirty. The affair will be held in the basement of the church. Deputy Sheriff Dehila Hawkins, Judge Vera Houston and Bailiff Frank Moser will try the Spirit of Lawlessness before a select jury. All who are interested in law enforcement are cordially invited to attend the affair.

Windows Attractive—The show windows of the Golden Rule store and those of Moe's store are both splendid examples of the spirit of Red Cross, in which both stores are actively interested. A background of white with the red cross is the motif of both windows with flags and the "doughboy" holding a prominent place.

Leave for the South—Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Ryan, prominent residents of the Fort Klamath country, where the Ryan ranch is located, are among the Klamath residents to leave this week for the south to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan will visit until late spring in Los Angeles and other southern California towns.

Returns from Trip—M. R. Scott has returned to Klamath Falls following a week's business trip in the north.

Beach on Business—Vernal D. C. Beach, former manager of Modoc Lumber company, spent several hours in the city Friday from his home in Portland. Beach has been ill during the entire summer and has recently taken a trip including Banff and Lake Louise, Silver Lake and Lakeview and southern Oregon points. He came to Klamath Falls by way of Alturas.

Timberland Sold—Robert Metcalf has sold to Ralph E. Gilchrist of Lakeview, 158.07 acres of splendid timberland in the Crescent country for a consideration of $6500, the largest deed filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday. Gilchrist is buying up large sections of timberland in the northern Klamath country as recorded in deeds in the office of the clerk.

Adams Improving—Word was received in Klamath Falls yesterday from J. Frank Adams reporting that he is rapidly improving in health in a Yreka hospital. Adams suffered a badly fractured leg in the Yreka rodeo while judging a bucking contest. According to Adams the physicians of the hospital hold a bright outlook for his recovery and declare that the injured limb will not be stiff when cured.

Wilson At Home—Arthur Wilson was confined to his home yesterday, suffering from an attack of grippe. The Wilson family recently returned from Medford, where they spent Armistice day visiting with friends in the valley city.

Here from Portland—Among the business visitors in the city this week is Ben Schumacher of Portland, who spent yesterday in Klamath Falls. While here Schumacher spent some time visiting with former O. A. C. students from where he was recently graduated. Schumacher is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Visiting With Son—Mrs. Fred Stukel is spending some time visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stukel of East Main street.

In from Dairy—Mrs. Johnny Jones spent yesterday in the city from their ranch in Dairy. Mrs. Jones recently returned from Portland, where she has spent several weeks with her daughter, Miss Lucille Jones, who has been suffering from a badly burnt hand since early summer.

Here from Medford—Ed Moore is included in the many business visitors in the city this week from his home in Medford to transact affairs and looking into interests here.

Visiting in Klamath—Bob Coffman, who five years ago made his home in Klamath Falls affiliated with the Klamath State bank, has returned to the city for several days to resume old friendships and visit with his many acquaintances. During the five years in which he has been absent from the city Coffman has spent some time in the east, including Chicago and New York. His home is in Red Bluff, California, where he plans to leave this morning.

Here on Business—Business visitors in the city this week include W. C. Mattson, manager of the Campbell-Towle Lumber company, located on Sprague river. Mattson spent yesterday in Klamath Falls looking into affairs. He reports the woods in good condition and winter work well under way.
