ITALY PAYS UP 1 YEAR AHEAD

Check for $5,000,000 Given Treasury on Debt Not Due Till 1926

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—A check for $5,000,000 was presented to the treasury department by the Italian commission as Italy's first payment on her war obligation to the United States.

Under the agreement for settling the Italian debt the payment was not due until June 30, 1926, but Count Volpi, head of the Italian delegation said he desired to present the check at once to show Italy's good faith in carrying out the agreement.

The debt pact was formally signed by Volpi and Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, at the treasury this morning and by President Coolidge later in the day. The ceremony of paying over the check took place in the afternoon as the Italians prepared to say goodbye to Washington.

A cablegram from Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy to the Italian delegation was read to the American commissioners, expressing "full appreciation of the settlement reached" as one of justice and conformity to Italy's capacity to pay.

SWIMMER WIFE IS SEEKING DIVORCE

Cooks Dinner for Husband Even As Papers in Case Are Filed in Court

OAKLAND, Nov. 14.—(United Press)—Although her divorce papers were filed here today against George E. Schroth, Mrs. Frances Cowell Schroth, former women's national champion swimmer, cooked dinner in her Piedmont home for her husband, herself and their four-year-old son.

Not only that, but Mrs. Schroth will continue occupancy of a part of the home until the day that a decree is signed, awarding her the divorce.

"I lost my swimming title and that lost me my husband," said Mrs. Schroth. Now I am not going to lose this divorce. If I left the house I might be sued on grounds of desertion. I'd rather be the plaintiff."

Mrs. Schroth blames her father-in-law, George Schroth, Sr., Sacramento, for her matrimonial troubles. She charged in her complaint that Schroth, Sr., turned from her when she lost her title, and that George, Jr., follows suit, to say nothing of treating her in a niggardly manner, and making her wear his sister's cast-off clothing.

Suit against the father-in-law, for $100,000 damages for alienation of affections, is threatened by the former star swimmer, who married the Olympic club swimmer, when he was her coach.

Declaring her husband is worth $50,000, and has a monthly income of $375, Mrs. Schroth asks $250 monthly for support of her son.

PRESIDENT FIXED ON POLICIES FOR CONGRESS BRIEF

Document Is Being Whipped in Shape

ECONOMY MAINTAINED

Farm Relief Heads List of Important Recommendations To Be Suggested

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Coolidge has determined the general lines of his message to congress next month. Tonight he began preparation of the document.

Convinced that the policies which contributed to his overwhelming election last November are not only sound by popular, Coolidge will emphasize again the importance of economy and tax reduction at home and arms limitations and the world court in foreign policy.

Among the president's recommendations for domestic legislation will be:

Farm relief through establishment of a bureau in the agriculture department to further co-operative marketing and minor legislation facilitating farm credits, but opposition to the government price fixing through a federal export corporation as proposed by the McNary-Haugen bill.

Legislation facilitating voluntary consolidation of railroads for a fixed period after which the government can force consolidation.

Presidential authority in a fuel emergency to appoint a commission empowered to facilitate voluntary arbitration between strikers and employers and to prevent profiteering through control of distribution.

The president also will recommend that the government get out of the shipping business as rapidly as possible, that the government agencies and departments be organized more efficiently by congress or the president and that Muscle Shoals be sold or leased to private interests under guarantee of producing nitrates for fertilizers, at reasonable prices.

In the field of national defense and foreign affairs Coolidge will ask congress to hold down military and naval expenditures, provide for aircraft development and ratify the foreign debt settlements and pending Lausanne treaty with Turkey.

Adherence of the United States to the international court under the Harding-Coolidge reservations will be urged by the president as a step to international peace pledged by the republican party.

In his message, the president also expects to renew his hope that world conditions will soon permit the calling of another arms conference by this government to limit cruisers and auxiliary naval craft as the first Washington conference limited capital ships.

PA AND MA SHEEHAN STALLED ON ONE SIDE OF MOUNTAINS, DAUGHTER GOING TO RECUE STALLED ON OTHER IS ALASKANS EXPERIENCE

T. M. Sheehan, a resident of Alaska since 1894, together with Mrs. Sheehan, recently arrived at Seattle.

At Klamath Falls they have a daughter, Mrs. Tootsie White, manager of the White Pelican hotel dining room.

Not having seen daughter for seven years, it was natural that they should come to Klamath Falls, or try to come.

They got as far as the foot of the Ashland grade when their machine broke down. They telephoned to Mrs. White, saying that they would be delayed. She volunteered to come after them.

"All right, but hurry up, it's cold out here," said father.

Mrs. White started to the rescue. On a curve the other side of Keno, another car forced her off the road. That left Pa and Ma Sheehan on one side of the mountains, and daughter on the other.

Daughter was still on her side about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, her rescuers blocking traffic, when along came papa and mama.

Sheehan, an official of the government railroad in Alaska, where plenty of cars go off the track, helped get his daughter's car back on the road.

At last reports all had ended well.

RADIO CARNIVAL SCORES SUCCESS

Business and Professional Women Fete Is Brilliant Social Event

Approximately $125 was taken in yesterday afternoon and last night during the Radio Carnival and Fete when members of the Business and Professional Women's club held their annual holiday bazaar.

Proceeds for the affair went into a fund for that part which the club has pledged toward furnishing the rest room in the library.

With less than half of their gifts and materials left on hand another bazaar in the near future or shortly before Christmas should replace the needed sum toward the furnishing near the goal.

An interesting musical program including a girls' trio from the high school, accompanied by Miss Eloise McPherson; violin solos, Mike Casper and R. E. Patterson; vocal numbers by Mrs. A. J. Voye, accompanied by Mrs. E. S. Veitch, added much to the evening's pleasure.

The Business Women's organization wishes to take this opportunity in thanking the following merchants and business houses for their assistance to make the fete a success: Houston & Jester, Whitman Drug company, Club Cafe, Moe's store, Hale's News Agency, Golden Rule, Klamath Clothing Company, Underwood's Pharmacy, Pilcher's, Davis Furniture, Klamath Flower Shop, Baldwin Hardware, Shepherd's, The Peasleys and The Bluebird.
