"NOVEMBER WIND"
Chill winds that blow
And warm my cheek
To ruddy glow.
November crystal snows
That send through life
A glimmer.
Leaves scurry into obscure
Spaces leaving bare
The earth.
November winds that
Chill and thrill
To life's response.
Did you ever walk
Before a wind
That thrilled you so?
ANON.

MILLS P. T. A. ENJOYS REPORTS
Reports from the two delegates who were sent to the state convention of Parent Teachers association of Oregon, were heard during the meeting of Tuesday afternoon in the Mills school of the Mills parent teachers group. Mrs. Hammell and Mrs. Thomas gave the reports in a most interesting manner.

Plans were made for a cooked food sale which was held Thursday night when the food was auctioned to the highest bidder. The food sale was followed by an interesting musical program.

MISS DAWSON NOVEMBER BRIDE
A marriage of interest to their many friends in Klamath Falls is that of Miss Minnie Dawson to Ernest Cartwright, which was an event of Saturday, November the seventh at high noon. The wedding occurred at the home of Rev. A. L. Rice of the First Presbyterian church who read the beautiful ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright both own a host of friends in the city among the younger set where they have been very active.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Dawson, Mr. Cartwright the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Cartwright, all of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Cartwright was attended by Miss Faye Dawson and Billie Hall served as best man.

OPERETTA TO BE GIVEN IN MIDLAND
Of interest to the residents of the Midland district is the operetta to be given on Saturday evening, November the twenty-first, in the Midland school. The entire public is cordially invited to attend the affair. Following the operetta dancing will be enjoyed in the Midland hotel. Proceeds for the affair will go into a fund for the students' orchestra which is being organized in the school.

ATTEND HOME-COMING AT UNIVERSITY
Among those to attend the Home-Coming week-end which has drawn scores of visitors to Eugene to re-live their school days were Miss Marie Ridings, Miss Jean Perry, Ray Harlan and Bob Riggs.

Miss Ridings will visit with her parents in Eugene, where she is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Miss Perry, a member of Delta Zeta, will be a guest at the house over the week-end.

"CULINARY DAY" IN LIBRARY ROOMS
Of interest to members of the Library club of Klamath Falls is the meeting on Friday afternoon when Culinary Day was observed. Mrs. Twyla Ferguson was chairman of the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. D. V. Kaykendall.

Miss Esther Martinson, teacher of domestic science of the Klamath county high school added materially to the interest of the afternoon when she gave a well informed discussion of "Vitamines." She was assisted by several high school girls who demonstrated the process of decorating and garnishing pastry.

Mrs. A. L. Leavitt, Mrs. George Ulrich and Mrs. Thomas Hampton poured during the tea hours.

HAYES SURPRISED AT HOME FRIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes were pleasantly surprised on Friday night, November 13, when the neighbors of Lookout street honored them with a farewell party. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and family are leaving shortly for Grants Pass to make their home.

Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and children, Ethel, Marjorie and Gladys; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boldischar, Vera Boldischar, Robert Boldischar, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hansen, Norman Hansen, Marguerite Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Lundgren, Mrs. E. Jones, Miss Jeanette Jones, Mrs. Mack Glenn and Robert Glenn of Merrill.

"POT-LUCK DINNER" FOR BISHOP REMINGTON

On Thursday evening in the chamber of commerce rooms at seven o'clock the members of St. Paul's Episcopal church and their friends enjoyed a "pot-luck" dinner, the occasion honoring Bishop William P. Remington, bishop of the diocese of eastern Oregon, and to meet Rev. J. Henry Thomas, rector of St. Paul's parish.

The dinner was prepared by the guests, who brought covered dishes. This is the first of a series of gatherings scheduled during the winter by the members of the parish.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN ENTERTAINED

Mrs. G. A. Krause and Mrs. R. E. Gerry entertained at the home of the latter on Saturday afternoon for members of the literary department of the American Association of University Women. The main subject of the afternoon was Henry L. Mencken, foremost literary critic in America.

A paper, stressing the characteristics of Mencken was read by Miss Maybelle Leavitt. Those present during the afternoon contributed with a short sketch of Mencken's life or their personal impressions of his work.

SHRINERS TO ENJOY DANCE

Prominent on the social calendar later in November is the Shriner's dance to be given on the 27th in the White Pelican hotel dining room, Friday evening.

Those in charge of arrangements will include A. E. Peasley and R. E. Crego, entertainment; W. H. Grubbs, publicity; W. C. Van Emon and Marion Hanks, finance; F. Ray Dunn, Harry Prather, Thomas W. Dezell and A. L. Leavitt, tickets; N. G. Wheeler, H. W. Bathiany, E. L. Cramblitt and F. Ray Dunn.

MRS. STEINMETZ HOSTESS AT BRIDGE

The third of a series of delightfully appointed bridge parties was given on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. William J. Steinmetz at her home on Klamath avenue. Guests to make up three tables were bidden for the afternoon's pleasure.

High scores were given to Mrs. H. W. Bathiany following the afternoon at bridge, with Mrs. Louis Bradford receiving consolation.

The fourth of a series will be given by Mrs. Steinmetz on Monday afternoon.

RADIO CARNIVAL EVENT OF SATURDAY

First on the social calendar of the week's interest was the radio carnival and fete, held yesterday in the chamber of commerce rooms, under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's club, when matrons of the Klamath Falls society served as hosts to the many guests of the afternoon.

Booths which held holiday gifts and trinkets, as well as useful household articles, were presided over by members of the organization. An especially large return from the booths was enjoyed by those in charge. All proceeds will go into a fund for the part pledged by the Business Women's club in furnishing the rest room of the new city library, which will be completed next year.

WHY DADDY GOES A-HUNTING

JACK—My dear, are those partridge feathers on your new coat from the fowl I brought home from my hunting trip?

ELSA—No, darling, I bought this coat for a huge price. But please do try and get me a golden pheasant. I want to have its color copied in a gown. It's one of the smartest fall shades.

From every booth a horn projected, announcing the station and to fit the station letters, fitting slogans were attached.

Dancing in the evening for the patrons and patronesses and guests topped off an evening's pleasure and success, which crowned the unifying efforts of the club members.

son, rendered several interesting selections.

They were followed by the girls' trio, composed of Esther Yeatch, LaVerne Thomas and Jennie Grover.

PRESBYTERIAN CIRCLES MEET

Plans for the holiday bazaar, which will be an event of December 12, formed the motif for the meetings of the three circles of the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon, when the members met at various homes to sew for the bazaar booths, and to complete the final plans for the affair.

Miriam Circle met with Mrs. A. M. Worden, 404 Washington street, with fifteen guests present. An additional bit of interest was created when the birthday of Mrs. A. B. Lund was observed with a birthday cake and candles.

Borcas Circle met with Mrs. Roy Call, 1019 Jefferson street, spending the afternoon in dressing dolls for the December bazaar. Mrs. Call was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Knapper in serving tea.

Mrs. Ella McMillan at her home on Pine street entertained for members of the Gleaners' Circle with ten guests present during the afternoon. This group also completed articles for the bazaar.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Barnstable on Tuesday evening, of last week, members of the Sunday school board of the Methodist Episcopal church met for several hours to discuss the program of the Sunday school for the winter, and to outline as far as possible the Christmas work. Another phase of church work to be discussed was the coming of Dr. L. J. Miller of Nashville, Tenn., who will conduct revival meetings in the church.

PROGRAM GIVEN SATURDAY NIGHT

Saturday evening at eight o'clock the two communities in Swan valley co-operated in a program and box social, given in the upper Swan valley school. Those who have attended these affairs in the past are familiar with the pleasure of the evenings. Proceeds from the sale of the boxes went into a fund for the purchase of a phonograph.

COOK BOOKS ON SALE THIS WEEK

Among the items of interest, which have come up during the past week is the announcement of the second edition of cook books, issued by members of the Methodist Ladies' aid.

The books contain tried and tested recipes from the kitchens of prominent women in the city. They may be obtained at Lucas furniture store, Stinson studio, or by calling Mrs. Chris Barnstable, 867.

Wrecked Nerves

The high pressure, mile-a-minute life of today, with its strain, worry, anxiety, grief and trouble is wrecking the nerves of mankind.

Nerve exhaustion is today the most common of all human ailments and the cause of nearly all physical and mental miseries.

SYMPTOMS

First Stage—Lack of energy and endurance—that tired feeling.
Second Stage—Nervousness, sleeplessness, irritability, sour stomach, gas in bowels, constipation, irregular heart, poor memory, dizzy, headache, backache, rheumatic and other pains.
Third Stage—Fear, undue worry, melancholia, dangerous organic disturbances, which may lead to insanity.

If only a few of the symptoms mentioned apply to you, you may be sure that you have exhausted your nerve force.

Chiropractic will relieve these symptoms, in most cases almost immediately and place you on the road to health.

Avail yourself of a free consultation, it may mean everything to you.
