PRES. COOLIDGE SEES AUTO CRASH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Coolidge was a close witness of an automobile accident here tonight. Two cars collided in a traffic jam and came to a stop within 20 feet of the president.

Coolidge was returning to the White House from his customary late afternoon walk, accompanied by three secret service guards. As he was about to cross the street at a heavy traffic corner, he was startled by the noise of the collision and jumped back to the sidewalk.

After watching the cars disentangled and observing that no one was injured, the president passed his handkerchief over his brow and proceeded to the White House.

REPUBLICANS PROTEST EDITOR'S APPOINTMENT

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 14.—(United Press)—Coolidge republicans of North Dakota threatened tonight to carry to the senate their opposition to the appointment of Gerald P. Nye, youthful Coopersville, N. D., editor, as successor to the late United States Senator Edward F. Ladd.

Nye's identification with the non-partisan league since its organization, and his known radical tendencies were the reasons for the protest against his appointment. Conservative republicans insist

U and State Grids Fight to No Score

SEATTLE, Nov. 14.—Batting fiercely back and forth, the University of Washington and W. S. C. freshman teams fought to a no score tie this afternoon, leaving the babe in the air. Both were in position to score at various times, but lost their opportunities by fumbling.

Gunplay Thrills In Hi-Jacker Raid

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 14.—A thrilling few minutes followed an attempt of two hijackers to raid a dice game this evening in the Savoy hotel. F. E. Pate, one of the dice players, was shot and seriously wounded and E. E. Mayers, one of the raiders, was captured.

The other hijacker escaped with $1500 in cash. After one of the robbers had shot Pate the pair continued to gather up money, but as they left John W. Ray, hurled a chair, knocking one down. Ray then fired three rounds without effect but caught the bandit, nevertheless, after a three blocks chase.
