

LOCALS

Mills Food Sale—More than $40 was cleared on Friday night of last week when members of the Mills Parent Teachers association enjoyed a cooked food sale at the schoolhouse. J. W. Finnell served proficiently as auctioneer on the evening and the evening's pleasure was heightened by the addition of several numbers by the girls' quartette from the high school with Miss Eloise McPherson directing them. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stewart also entertained during the evening with several violin and piano numbers.

Mrs. Newcomb Leaves—Thalia B. Newcomb, for some time secretary in the office of the county agent, left yesterday afternoon by motor for California, where she plans to remain permanently. Mrs. Newcomb has plans for the building of an inn on the Redwood highway, one of the most beautiful scenic spots along the Pacific coast. Her many friends will regret her absence from the city.

Leave for South—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton, accompanied by Miss Elna Jensen, left early yesterday morning for San Francisco, where they will make their home. Miss Jensen will visit with friends and relatives in the south for a fortnight, returning to Klamath Falls the latter part of the month. While in the south the three plan to attend the Berkeley-Stanford game at Stanford.

Returns to Home—Ray Harlan of Bray spent yesterday morning in the city preparatory to leaving for his home in northern California. Harlan stopped off enroute to his home from the Oregon-O.A. C. game in Eugene, to visit with his many friends and fraternity brothers.

Return from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith and son Thornton returned to Klamath Falls Sunday night, after an enjoyable visit in Portland and Eugene over the past week-end. While in Portland Mrs. Smith visited with his mother.

Tourists in Klamath—Among the tourists in Klamath Falls this week are a number to register at the tourist bureau in the chamber of commerce. Those to register their cars are G. H. Barnes of New Pine Creek, Calif.; Bert Shaler of Rock Springs, Wyoming; W. B. Ousley of Highland, Calif.; Robert R. Muth, Santa Rosa; J. C. Fawcett, Visalia, Calif.; C. R. Barr, Calpine, California.

Encampment to Meet—Ewauna Encampment, No. 46 will confer a royal purple degree on five candidates tonight in the Odd Fellows hall, with refreshments to be served later. All patriachs are invited to attend the affair.

In from Merrill—Out of town visitors in the city this week include Alton Short of the Merrill route, who spent yesterday in the city.

Transacting Business—H. D. Miller of Canyonville, is a visitor in Klamath Falls and was transacting business yesterday in the county court.

Returns from East—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dewesse have returned to their home in Klamath Falls, arriving Sunday night, after having been absent for two weeks from the city on two very sad missions. Dewesse accompanied the body of his father, Samuel Dewesse, who died in Klamath some time ago while visiting his son. Mrs. Dewesse was called later to Wamego, Kansas, by the illness and death of her brother, H. E. Leonard.

Attend Theatre—Mrs. Fred Houston, Mrs. Will Houston and Mrs. Perry O. DeLap spent Monday in the valley, where they enjoyed the theatre at the Craterlan in Medford. They are expected home this morning.

Miss Houston Is Hostess—Miss Eida Houston entertained on Monday evening for a large number of the younger set with an interesting party at the home of her parents.

Lee Back from Trip—Bill Lee, county assessor, returned yesterday from Portland and Salem, where he has spent some time on business.

Mrs. Griffith Returns—Mrs. Carroll Griffith, nee Hilda Hamaker, returned over the past week-end from Portland, where she enjoyed a fortnight's vacation.

Visiting in Klamath—Mrs. Bertha Bell of Bly, and Mrs. J. A. Parker, also of Bly, are in the city visiting with Mrs. Parker's daughter and Mrs. Bell's sister, Mrs. James Driscoll.

Mrs. Miller Ill—Mrs. Irene Miller was taken to the Klamath General hospital yesterday, suffering severely from typhoid fever which she has been suffering for the past week. Her condition of last night considered serious.

Attractive Window—One of the prettiest windows of the week is that of the Pilcher company. The front window of which was arranged tastefully in the new shades of brilliant lip stick reds, silver fox and other furs. A background of black added to the attractive showing of one of the newest colors this fall.

In from Fort Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Linsey Sisemore of Fort Klamath spent yesterday in the city. Sisemore to attend the meeting in the chamber of commerce of the California Cattle Growers' association and Mrs. Sisemore to shop and visit with friends.

Chiloquin Visitor—Mrs. Chester Balfour of Chiloquin, owner of the Balfour hotel, spent yesterday in the city transacting business and visiting with her many acquaintances in Klamath Falls.

Return from Wedding Trip—Of interest to their many friends is the return of Mr. and Mrs. Ferral Hilyard of the Pine Grove district who arrived in Klamath Falls Sunday after a fortnight spent in the south where they enjoyed a wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Hilyard spent some time in San Francisco and other bay cities as well as Los Angeles, where they visited several days. Mrs. Hilyard will be remembered as Frances Short.

Bell Ringers Thursday—Thursday evening in the Elks' temple the Normandy Bell Ringers will be presented in an interesting vaudeville and musical numbers. The four men are especially featured in a quartette. Following the vaudeville a "jitney" dance will be enjoyed by the public as well as those who enjoyed the show.

Return from North—Mr. and Mrs. Fen Waite and young son have returned from Portland, where they were called by the illness and death of Waite's sister, Mrs. Marie McCollum. Waite arrived in Portland in time to be at the bedside of his sister before she passed away.

Mr. Dana Returns—After spending the week-end at Eugene, where he attended the football game between the University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural college, F. Ray Dana, manager of the local office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, returned to Klamath Falls by automobile yesterday.

The largest stock of Christmas Cards now on display at Southwell's. N15-15

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES PURE DRUGS

Vision is a priceless sense—it gives you a sense of power that means more to your comfort in life than anything else. Consult with us. Invest in perfect vision.

"The subject of eye examination should be taken up in your family circle, and discussed with candor."

DR. H. J. WINTERS
Eye Sight Specialist.
We Grind Our Own Glasses.
Klamath Falls, Ore.

Druggist Returns Here—Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dewesse, of Klamath Falls, have returned from a trip to Kansas City, Kansas. Mr. Dewesse is proprietor of the Star drug store here.

Mr. Peterson Visits Schools—Fred Peterson, Klamath county superintendent of schools, yesterday visited at Malin and Libby. He will be in his office for a short time this morning.

Barrister Back in City—Robert B. Kuykendall, member of the prominent local law firm of Kuykendall & Kuykendall, returned here yesterday from Eugene. He attended homecoming at the University of Oregon, of which he is a graduate.

Cooked Food Sale—Members of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Central school will conduct a cooked food sale on Saturday morning. The sale will be held in the Central school.

Return from Eugene—Mrs. Wayne Akers and son Richard Wayne, and her mother, Mrs. Titus, of Eugene, returned to Klamath Falls Sunday, having been met in Ashland by Mr. Akers. Mrs. Titus plans to visit for several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Akers.

Farm Land Sold—C. A. Rambo has sold to Frank D. Miles 91 acres of farm land in the Dairy country, according to deed filed yesterday in the county clerk's office.

Parents Visiting—Ross Price has returned to Klamath Falls over the past week-end after a visit spent in Portland. He was accompanied to Klamath Falls by his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Price, who will spend some time with them in the city. Rev. Price is pastor of one of the larger Congregational churches in Portland.

Morten Visiting—Frank Morten of North Bend, on Coos bay, is visiting for several weeks with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lennan. Morten drove over the mountains, and reports very little snow between Klamath and the Coos country.

Buy your Christmas cards at Southwell's. N15-15

Buys Land—Monroe Martin has sold to A. L. Wishard, lot 769, block 117, in Mills addition, for a consideration of $1500. The deed was filed yesterday afternoon in the office of the county clerk.

Mrs. Stoopes Improves—Mrs. T. J. Stoopes, mother of Mrs. Homer Garlich, is slightly improved, according to Mrs. Garlich yesterday, who spent the day with her, from her home in Altamont. Mrs. Stoopes was able to be out Sunday for the first time in seven weeks.

KLAMATH VALLEY HOSPITAL.
The cost of reliable hospital care in maternity will be from $50. to $80. —adv. 24

Wishard sells land... $1500. The deed was filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk.

Christmas Cards printed with your well's. Order...

Select your Christmas cards at Southwell's.

Have Your Xographs Taken at STINSON'S

Kuppenheimer Overcoats with a Double Purpose To Look Stylish and Be Warm

It takes Kuppenheimer Tailoring and beautiful fabrics to make coats that carry an air of vast distinction.

Get into one and you will see what we mean

Good Coats as low as $15 and $18

Other Grades from $25 to $60

Kuppenheimer Coats—Patrick Coats
Curlee Coats

