OFFICERS ARREST ALLEGED FORGER

Walter Jacobson, indicted by Grand Jury, is Taken At Daley Ranch

In hiding in a garret on the old Mike Daley place, located about four miles southeast of Klamath Falls, Walter Jacobson, for about one month sought by local officers, yesterday was taken into custody by operatives of the sheriff's office. Jacobson had been secretly indicted on two counts: he was charged with issuing a check without sufficient funds to cover it, and with larceny in a dwelling. Arraigned yesterday before Circuit Judge A. L. Leavitt, he entered a plea of not guilty. His trial will be held later.

Officers said Jacobson put up no fight when they took him into custody.

DEPUTY SHERIFF HOME AFTER PLEASANT TRIP

Having spent 15 days visiting other cities in Oregon and Washington, "Jim" Hilton, Klamath county deputy sheriff, has returned here.

"Fine time," Hilton said, "though there was nothing exciting." Hilton originally went to Salem with a prisoner, T. M. Owens, who had been convicted of a statutory offense. Owens received a sentence of 3 months in the state penitentiary. Besides Salem, Hilton visited Portland, Longview, and Vancouver, Wash.

"Glad to get back, at that," Hilton declared yesterday.

Sports Done Brown

A series of matches to decide the women's professional swimming championship of the world may be staged at Tampa, Fla., this winter, according to word from that city. The challenge of Miss Helen Wainwright, American mermaid, has been answered by Miss Hilda James of England, recently turned professional.

Miss James is considered Great Britain's greatest all-around girl star. She has appeared in his country and has demonstrated her ability by setting a score of new records in meets abroad.

Miss Wainwright is now instructor of swimming for women at Tampa. She is without a doubt the queen of American mermaids if not the greatest woman swimmer in the world. Many of her marks have approached those of the men stars.

Floyd Johnson is none as a fighter. He knows it, and he knows also that he was pushed into the ring with Harry Wilson, a great and a means to win.

So Floyd with a grin to gab by his remarks, and says and says frankly:

"Will: as it is, wasn't any defense as is easy a hit. Dempsey will a hit."

When he says that Willis is easy to be means that that though he "fords" are too slow and lumbering (and cared, perhaps) to sock Mr. Willis when the opportunity presented itself, he saw the real spot in Willis' armor.

Granted that Johnson is uncertimating Willis' ability a bit. Willis is still a warrior in Floyd's views. And his opinion adds to the evidence which can be submitted in rebuttal of Willis' rash ideas concerning his ability to manhandle Jack Dempsey. My opinion of Harry Willis has been dropping rapidly, of late, in view of his failure to fight any worth-while opponents and the ill advised policy of his friends in bringing up the cry of prejudice against the black man as reasons for Dempsey's failure to meet him.
