

LOCALS

From Medoc Point—Mrs. W. E. Lamm of Medoc Point, was a visitor in the city yesterday to shop and visit with friends.

Mrs. Kazee Improving—Friends of Mrs. Clyde Kazee will be glad to learn that she is improving gradually from a recent illness and may be able to resume her position in Moe's store Saturday.

On Business to Lakeview—Leland Willits of the Shell Oil company, made a brief business trip to Lakeview the middle of the week.

Return from Valley—Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Whitlock who made a brief over-night visit in Ashland to attend the Rotarian banquet on Thursday in the Lithia hotel, returned to Klamath Falls yesterday shortly before noon.

Enroute to Lakeview—Oliver Wilson, who is building a sawmill in Lakeview and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longfellow, well known residents of the neighboring city were visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday enroute to their home. They spent the past week in Portland, where Longfellow and Wilson were interested in business affairs.

In from Merrill—Out of town visitors in the city yesterday included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kidwell, prominent residents of the Merrill district.

Returns from the South—Miss Clara Calkins has returned to Klamath Falls after a fortnight spent in old Mexico, Arizona and other southern points of interest. Miss Margaret Worden has also returned from the north and both are now in the Peggy-Claire Hat shop.

Malin Visitor—W. E. Dalton, a frequent visitor in the city from his ranch in the Malin country, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls on business.

West Ill—Merle S. West, former city councilman, is confined to his home, 429 Third street, suffering severely from an attack of grippe. West has been ill for some time and his condition is but slightly improved.

Leaving for the South—William Martin, affiliated with the Pelican Bay Lumber company during the summer months, is planning to leave this week-end for San Francisco, where he will spend the winter.

Merrill Visitor—Scott McKendree, prominent sheepman of the Merrill country, is included in the numerous out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday from his ranch.

Few Traveling South—According to those at the bank who have been issuing traveler's checks to the loggers and mill men who generally spend their winters in southern California, there is less traveling than in the past years due to the need of workmen in Klamath Falls with the rapid growth of the city.

Banker in Yesterday—A. Kallma, banker and merchant of Malin spent yesterday in the city from his home in the neighboring district. Kallma wore a Red Cross button showing that as head of the Red Cross drive in the Malin section he has done his personal bit.

Medford Visitor—John S. Orth, cashier of the Medford National bank of Medford with Dr. L. Bundy, a prominent Medford physician, is in the city for several days to hunt in the Tule lake country. Orth and Dr. Bundy arrived yesterday shortly after noon.

Cougar on Display—A large cougar, beautifully spotted, has been placed on display in the show windows of the Klamath Hardware company, brought into Klamath Falls by Dr. Roseman and party of Corvallis who killed the cougar near Grants Pass while enroute to Klamath for a short hunting trip. According to Dr. Roseman the cougar crossed the highway in front of the car, the lights blinding him. The front wheels hit his head and when the car backed up, they found the animal dead.

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. A. C. Bunnell of Merrill is included in the many visitors in the city this week to visit and shop.

For Medical Attention—Mrs. Charles Sevis, well known resident of Pine Ridge is among the visitors in the city this week from her home in the neighboring district. While in Klamath Falls Mrs. Sevis received medical attention.

In from the Fort—Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Loosley are among the recent visitors in the city to transact business and shop. Loosley, representative of Fort Klamath on the county school board attended the meeting of that body.

Not to go South—Due to the presentation of unexpected business matters Jack Knowles and Jack Slater will not be able to attend the California-Stanford game as previously planned. Mrs. Slater and Mrs. Knowles and their families will return by train, according to the men yesterday.

Dance is Success—The first dance of the season to be held in the Pelican Bay club house Friday night, was a splendid success from both financial and social standpoints. It is the plan of the committee in charge of these affairs to give a number of holiday dances as well.

Dunsmuir Visitor—N. Ashbaugh is a frequent visitor in the city from his home in Dunsmuir, visiting in Klamath Falls for several days.

Buy your dress or coat at Bee Begin's Dress Shop and save. N20-25

Have Your Xmas Photographs Taken Early. STINSON'S STUDIO

Executive Committee Meets—Members of the executive committee of the Business and Professional Women's club met last night at the home of Miss Frances Beatty to discuss business affairs and to lay plans for further activities.

Visiting at Matt Home—C. A. Matt, resident of Portland is visiting at the home of his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Matt of Klamath Falls.

Returns to Oriental Shop—Gail Webb has returned to the Oriental Beauty shop after having been absent for two weeks due to the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. Della Shadinger.

Down From The Fort—Robert R. Gordon, well known rancher of the Fort Klamath country is in the city for the week-end to look into business affairs and visit with his many friends.

Return From the South—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Merrill of Merrill, who have recently returned from a trip to San Francisco spent the past night in the city before leaving for their home in the valley.

Shopping From Kirk—Mrs. H. J. O'Brien of Kirk, is in the city for several days to look into business and shop in the city's shops.

At the Hall Hotel—Among the many visitors to stop in the Hall hotel while in Klamath Falls on business is R. C. Spink, justice of the peace of Wood River and a heavy property owner in Chiloquin where he makes his home. According to Spink matters are running smoothly in his section of the reservation.

From Ranch Here—D. E. Alexander of the Rock Creek ranch with Roy Barnes made a brief business trip to Klamath Falls today.

Former Resident Here—Ken Hodgman, former Klamath Falls resident returned to the city from his home in Oakland for a brief visit with his many old friends. Hodgman was affiliated with the highway department as contractor during his residence here.

Sheepman From the South—John Magner, sheep and cattle buyer of San Francisco for Allen and Pyle company, meat packing house, is in the city on business.

Prominent Visitors—W. P. Reed, founder of the coast city of Reedsport with P. W. Varrelman, Frank C. Taylor, L. Kropp, W. Buck and Paul Burnhardt all of Reedsport and Norman G. Morris of Mapleton a neighboring lumber center near Reedsport arrived in Klamath Falls last night preparing to leave early this morning for the Tule Lake country for the week-end to hunt geese. They were being shown the country yesterday by C. A. Henderson, county agent.

Hanson in Klamath—T. H. Hanson of San Francisco with the Knox Hat company left this morning for the south after a brief visit in Klamath Falls.

Visiting in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, former residents of Klamath Falls and now of Grants Pass are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Blair of the Empire hotel.

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES
PURE DRUGS

Bonanza Visitor—Milton Keller of Bonanza, well known resident of the neighboring city is included in the many visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday to shop and transact affairs.

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES
PURE DRUGS

White Pelican Hotel
Thanksgiving Dinner

MENU

Olympia Oyster Cocktail
Consomme ala Cressie or Chicken D'Orge
Celery Salted Nuts Green Olives

Choice of—
Oregon Roast Turkey, Walnut Dressing
Fried Spring Chicken ala Maryland
Roast Young Pig—Candied Apples
Broiled Squab on Toast—Rasher Bacon

Cranberry Ice

Mashed Potatoes Candied Sweet Potatoes Sugar Peas
Persimmon Cream Dressing

Choice of—
Hot Mince Pie Apple Pie ala Mode
English Plum Pudding with Hard Sauce
Neapolitan Ice Cream Oregon Cream Cheese
Toasted Crackers Demitasse

Six to Eight o'clock. One Dollar and Fifty Cents

Harry Borel and His Orchestra

BARGAIN
TODAY'S SPECIALS AT
KLAMATH KLOTHING COMPANY

20% off

on all
Overcoats
TODAY

Kuppenheimer's
FINE COATS
KINCAID COATS
CURLEE COATS
Patrick Coats not included in this sale.

KLAMATH KLOTHING COMPANY
LEADING CLOTHIERS SINCE 1901

Center of Shopping District

THE Public Market
Will Have For Your
Thanksgiving Dinner

Fresh Vegetables and Fruits for your Salads.
Clams and Oysters for Your Soups.
Fancy Large Tender Celery.
TURKEYS and CHICKENS Dressed.
Cranberries, Sweet Potatoes and Tuberose Corn.
Cauliflower, Green Peppers and Cheese.
English Plum Pudding, Pumpkin and Home Made MINCE MEAT.
Sweet Cider Coffee Tea

Please Order Your Turkey Early
We Have Dressed Hens Today.

ANNOUNCEMENT

There is but one
Market known as
THE Sanitary Market

Seventh and Main Klamath Falls

"Imitation is the Sincerest Flattery"

ANNOUNCEMENT

Gail Webb

of the
Oriental Beauty Shop

Has returned to work after an enforced absence.