OIL COMPANY NOT
BEHIND LOREMAN

Neither the Standard Oil, E. L. Doheny, Harry Sinclair or any other oil interest is directly interested in any of the present oil prospecting ventures in Klamath county, according to E. J. Loreman, geologist. Rumor has been to the effect that Loreman represented the Doheny interests. He has been working in the vicinity of Klamath Falls for several weeks.

Fraud Attempt Is
Nipped By Company

Charged with using the mails to defraud, M. J. Schmidt, alias Oscar MacKenzie, was yesterday morning arrested in the Klamath Falls post-office and held for the United States marshal of Portland. Schmidt ordered a watch and a diamond ring from Montgomery Ward & company, tendering a fraudulent check in payment. Learning the check was worthless, the company sent a dummy package, wired the postal authorities, with the result that as soon as Schmidt called for the package yesterday morning, he was arrested. Schmidt is alleged to have signed a confession before Postmaster McCall, Assistant Postmaster Griffith, and two law officers.

A warrant was sworn out for Schmidt's arrest before United States commissioner Bert C. Thomas. The prisoner was held in lieu of $1,000 bail, waiting action of the U. S. marshal's office at Portland.

TRAFFIC VIOLATORS
KEEP OFFICERS BUSY

Harry Ragan is among six violators of the traffic law to appear today before Judge Ed X. Kendall on charges of speeding or otherwise overstepping highway rights. Ragan is charged by State Traffic Officer Foster of stepping too hard on the gas feed of his new Chevrolet on the highway and passing another car on a sharp curve. Ragan is employed with the Chevrolet garage. Others to appear today are E. O. Lord, charged with using a void foreign license which expired some time ago; Howard Graham, with inadequate brakes and failure to give right-of-way; G. W. Evans, speeding with a truck on the Keno highway; W. N. Mayfield, Chilquin, speeding on the Keno highway and operating without a driver's license. The latter arrests were made by Traffic Officer Knowles.
