

Meet the Hard Fist of Fate With Your Open Hand!

—Help to fill the Community Chest! You people who are prosperous; whom adversity has edged away from, only to jostle rudely your less fortunate brothers.

—Even though the cries and moans of cold and hungry children may never reach your sheltered ears; even though the wails of penniless and pain-stricken old women and old men may never disturb your comfort and complaisance, still they are among us and this winter will add more and more to our community's roster of dependents, impoverished, afflicted, unemployed and incompetent charges.

—Help to organize the municipal charities with a common fund that can be intelligently distributed and justly apportioned. It's a duty you owe to your community. A responsibility the community owes to its unfortunates.

—Make checks payable to Klamath Community Chest, and send to Klamath News, Klamath Falls, Oregon.
