New C. of C. Members—Mrs. Hazel Blakemore of the City Creamery and Floyd Henriot of the Willard Battery Station, are the new members of the Klamath county chamber of commerce. Their names appeared on the membership bulletin board yesterday.

In from Ranch—Bill Berkin, foreman of D. E. Alexander's Rock Creek ranch, is among the out of town visitors in the city yesterday from his home.

Malin Visitor—Dave Lisky of Malin, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday from the Lisky ranch.

Money Received—Payment in the person of $211 was received yesterday in the office of the county clerk, when the recording fees for the patents of the Gilchrist Lumber company were received. The payment makes one of the heaviest days in the history of the clerk's office.

Land Is Sold—Mrs. Nellie Van Riper has sold her home on Canby street in the city to H. S. Mathews for a consideration of $4,500. The deed was filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk.

Returns from the South—B. S. Grigsby has returned from southern California, where he has been for some time visiting with friends and relatives. While in the south he visited with Justice of the Peace Bob Hunsaker, who is confined in a San Francisco hospital. He reports Hunsaker in much the same condition as last month when he was reported as slowly improving.

Return from Warren—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shirk have returned from spending the week-end and Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. Shirk's sister in Warren, Oregon.

Mrs. Grimes Entertains—For the pleasure of a number of friends Mrs. Henry Grimes entertained last night with a prettily appointed dinner party. Winter decorations were used throughout the rooms and lent a charm to the centerpiece and table favors.

Lodge to Visit Ashland—Members of the Prosperity Rebekah lodge will visit the Ashland lodge Hope, in a body on December the eighth, according to present plans. While in the valley city the local lodge will put on the degree work in much the same manner as the Ashland group did last month during their visit in Klamath Falls.

Spring Lake Visitor—A. E. Schreiner with Mrs. Schreiner spent yesterday in Klamath Falls looking into business affairs from their home in the Spring Lake district.

Miss James Expected—Miss Myrtle James, state president of the Oregon Rebekah lodge, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls Saturday morning on her annual official visit. She will visit the Klamath lodge on Saturday evening and a joint meeting of the various lodges throughout the county will convene on Saturday afternoon to honor Miss James. Miss James makes her home in Newport on the coast.

Bonanza—Mrs. W. H. Kitts spent yesterday in the city from her home in Bonanza, receiving medical attention.
