CLOUDS OF WAR THREATEN SYRIA

(Copyright, 1925, by United News)

JERUSALEM, Dec. 4.—Syria will meet France's army on the field of battle to determine the destiny of the country by sheer force, according to Emir Edil Arslan, a prince of the rebellious tribe of Druse, and former Druse parliamentary representative to Constantinople.

In an exclusive interview with the United News Arslan charged the new French high commissioner, Senator de Kouvenel, with clinging to the policies of his predecessor, Gen. Serrail. This, Arslan said, amounts to a decision to fight it out. He condemned de Jouvenel's declaration in Cairo that France would not relinquish her mandate to govern Syria.

"We Syrians thought the recent calamaties in our country had taught the French a lesson regarding the mandate," he said, "but Senator de Jouvenel's declaration showed the French policy cannot be changed except by sheer force on the battlefield."

INDIAN COMMITTED TO INSANE HOSPITAL

Today Perry John, an Indian, will leave for Salem.

There he will be committed to the state hospital for the insane. A jury yesterday held that he was mentally unbalanced when he committed the grave statutory offense, with which he was charged.

John was arrested some time ago and, subsequently, was indicted by the Klamath county grand jury.

MARY GIVES HER AGE

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 3.—United News—It is mean to broadcast a womans age—but it is news in this case.

Mary Pickford of the golden curls is 31 years old.

Douglas Fairbanks, her husband, is 42 years old.

Both reluctantly made the sad admission when they secured passports here Wednesday for their tour of the world next January.

STONE'S Meats Are Not Second-Hand

Some stores selling meat allow customers to bring it back if they are not satisfied with it when they get it home. STONE'S do not allow this. While there would seldom be occasion for this at one of our markets, still we could not allow fresh meat to be returned after it was taken out.

Besides getting intelligent advice on meats from a meat man at STONE'S, you don't get any second-hand meat. Our meats are handled and sold clean.
