ALABAMA TEAM PLAYS U. OF W.

Star Southern Aggregation Believed Certain to Play New Years

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 5.— Alabama, twice champions of the southern conference, probably will accept the invitation to participate in a football game at the tournament of roses on New Year's day, in Pasadena, Calif. It was learned today.

Coch Wallace Wade left Athens, Ga., late this afternoon for Tuscaloosa for a final conference with athletic officials of the university, and the outcome will probably be made known Sunday or Monday.

Wade was attending the annual meeting of athletic coaches of the southern conference in Athens when word reached him that Jack Benedict, Pacific coast representative, was enroute here for a conference with Alabama officials. He at once took the next train for Tuscaloosa.
Benedict was reported to have said before he left Chicago, that Alabama had accepted the invitation, but afterwards declared he knew nothing about this.

GRANGE THRILLS BIG FOOTBALL TURNOUT

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 5.—"Red" Grange played a heroic football role again this afternoon.

By virtue of his two touchdowns the Chicago Bears were enabled to defeat the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14 to 7, in a professional game. Thirty-five thousand fans watched the former Illinois star in action.

"Red" did not play the entire game, but was in the fray long enough to score from the one yard line in the second period and from the same stripe in the fourth period after a long pass had tied the score for the locals in the third quarter.

EUGENE TO OPEN COACHING SCHOOL

Famous Basket Ball Coach To Open Summer Course
For Coaches

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, Dec. 5.—Marking a distinct advance in the athletic progress of the west Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, head basketball coach at the University of Wisconsin and called the "miracle man of basketball," will conduct a coaching school at the University next summer, according to announcement by Fred L. Steg-son, director of the summer session.

Meanwell is regarded as the outstanding basketball coach in America, his record at Wisconsin is considered one of the marvels of modern athletics. His teams have won 165 games and lost only 23; placed first eight times and were never below third in their conferences in eleven seasons. Thirty-one members of the all-star team out of a total of 65 in 13 seasons have been from Meanwell's teams.

A two weeks' school, consisting of intensive courses for high school and college basketball coaches will be conducted by Meanwell. The basketball wizard has been given coaching courses with Knute Rockne at Notre Dame and Wisconsin in which more than 850 coaches have attended.

Meanwell is head and shoulders above every other coach, according to William J. Reinhart, Ore-gon's basketball mentor, who declared the coming of the Wisconsin man to the University of Oregon next summer will mean as much to Pacific coast basketball as Knute Rockne's coming meant to football.

U. OF W. PLAYERS DECIDE ON GAME

Members of Eleven Appear Delighted Over Chance
With Alabama

SEATTLE, Dec. 5.—(United Press)—Players of the University of Washington championship football squad, in whose hands the fate of Washington's possible acceptance of an invitation to play at Pasadena on New Year's day lies, are to meet Sunday morning in the office of Dr.
Henry Suzzallo, president of the university, to discuss the matter and vote.

Unofficial statements credited to leading members of the team today were that the Huskies "were delighted with the opportunity to play Alabama and would resume practice Monday with a vim."

Officials of the university are non-committal, stating that "no one but the players will have a thing to say on the game, it is up to them alone."

Next Fight Card Will Be Dec. 15

Fight fans of Klamath will be clamoring for ringside seats for the fight card coming up December 15, when Nig Yeager of Portland, well known Pacific coast heavyweight, meets Earl Richie of Klamath Falls.

As a special number on the card, Jack Crim, Modoc battler of Chiloquin, will swap passes with Sid Herbert of Klamath Falls.

Another number is the bout between One-Round Hogan of Malin, who knocked out Jim Fleming in the first three minutes in the card last week. Fleming has asked for a comeback at Hogan, and threatens to turn the tables on the Malin white hope.

An attempt is being made by Johnnie Sylvester, fight manager, to sign up Harrington and Heine Myers, old favorite of Klamath fans who has a great record here.

TEAMS TO PLAY DOUBLE GAMES

New Ruling in Big 10 Will Force Elevens Into Double Clash

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—(United Press)—The most revolutionary change in the recent history of big ten football occurred here tonight when coaches, after a day of bitter conference and debate, announced the new policy of having teams play each other twice in the same season.

Minnesota and Michigan will fight two battles in 1926, and Northwestern and Indiana will do likewise.
This was caused by the inability of the four coaches involved to arrange acceptable schedules under the new rules, which demand that each big ten team play at least four conference games per season.

Coach C. W. Spears of Minnesota was the first to initiate the idea, when after failing to secure four acceptable conference games, from as many teams, approached Fielding H.
Yost, Michigan coach, with an offer of two games.

Yost, who had tentatively accepted Northwestern for a game, acquiesced, and Northwestern was dropped. Then Coach Thistlethwait, not to be outdone, made the same proposition to Hillingram, coach of Indiana. They had already agreed to one game, but Hillingram readily accepted the proposition for a second game.

FORT SHERIDAN WINS

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Another army football team was victorious here today, when Fort Sheridan defeated Great Lakes naval training station by a score of 17 to 6. Snow and cold weather held the crowd down to 3,000.

MYTHICAL TEAM ACTUALLY MEETS

Players Chosen By N. Y.
Sun Sport Writers Are Really Assembled

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—An "all-American" football team, the guests of the New York Sun, whose sport writers chose the mythical eleven, assembled at a dinner tonight in the Vandervilt hotel.

The "championship" players were as follows:

Nebraska, left tackle; Diehl, Dartmouth, left guard; McMillan, Princeton, center; Sturhahn, Yale, right guard; Joss, Yale, right tackle, Oosterbaan, Michigan, right end; Friedman, Michigan, quarterback; Oberlander, Dartmouth, halfback; Tryon, Colgate, halfback; and Grange, Illinois, fullback.

"Big Bill" Edwards, Princeton, acted as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Edward K. Hall, chairman of the inter-collegiate football rules committee.

A. A. U. BOXING IN APRIL

BOSTON, Dec. 5.—The national amateur boxing championships will be held on April 5 and 6. William H. Cuddy, chairman of the A. A. U. boxing committee announced Friday night.

The winners in the tournament, Cuddy said, will sail for South America April 19 to represent the United States in the Pan-American championships to be held in Buenos Aires.

STORK THREATENS CHAPLIN

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Dec. 4.— When questioned concerning widely circulated reports that the stork was contemplating a second visit to his home, Charles Chaplin smiled, shook his head and said:

"We live in hopes; I would be happy if it were true. I suggest you see my wife."
Mrs. Chaplin could not be found.

MEDFORD WINNER IN TITLE GAME

Salem High School Is Outplayed and Beaten
16 to 13

MEDFORD, Dec. 5.—(United Press)—Outweighed 15 pounds to the man, but displaying keen head-work, Medford high school, champions of southern Oregon, defeated the Salem high school football team here today, 16 to 13.

The first score in the game came when Salem blocked a Medford punt on Medford's ten-yard line, and made a touchdown. In the second quarter Medford, by smashing football, advanced the pigskin 70 yards for a touchdown.

Early in the third quarter Conrad, Medford's halfback, place kicked. Salem advanced the ball on the next kick-off sixty yards, and scored in two plays. In the last five minutes of the game Salem fumbled, and Medford made a sixty-yard advance, which gave them a touchdown and victory.

SHIPPING BOARD GRILLED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Policies of the United States shipping board were criticized by Dr. Stuart Daggett, dean of commerce at the University of California, in an address here.

Dr. Daggett maintained that reluctance of private owners to purchase shipping board vessels, feeling against ship subsidies and differences between President Coolidge and the board had combined to retard the country's maritime program. He said that it would be many years before America will "take its proper place upon the high seas."
