

LOCALS

Merrill Visitor—J. L. Hawkins is a recent visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in Merrill.

Miss McDonald Honored—Friends of Miss Joan McDonald honored her with a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Nate Otterbein. Miss McDonald's marriage to Leland Willets will be an event of the near future.

Mrs. Lamm In—Mrs. W. E. Lamm spent Wednesday in the city visiting and shopping among the stores.

Guild Bazaar Today—Beginning sharply at ten o'clock this morning, members of St. Paul's Episcopal church guild will open their annual holiday bazaar which will be conducted on Friday and Saturday. The Guild members have been working steadily on gifts and useful articles which will make their appearance on the tables in the building on the corner of Seventh and Main, the office rooms recently vacated by the Bellman Realty company. A lovely assortment of gifts and household articles have been arranged on display.

Miss Walton Leaving—Miss Katherine Walton is leaving this morning for Stockton, California, where she will visit for a week prior to the holiday season with her sister, Miss Beatrice Walton, who is a student in the College of the Pacific. Both the Misses Walton will spend the holidays in Klamath Falls with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Walton. Miss Katherine Walton may return for the spring term to enter the college.

Leaving for the North—John Ridd is leaving the latter part of the week for Portland, where he will make his home after spending some time in Klamath Falls.

In from Merrill—G. H. Carleton of Merrill, prominent valley rancher, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls looking into business interests in the city. Carleton is a brother of Miss Maude Carleton, librarian of the Klamath county high school.

In from Merrill—Mrs. George Rudolph is included in the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Hildebrand Visitor—Jack Horton is among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week from his home in the Hildebrand district.

Vannice Ill—Friends of E. W. Vannice of the Golden Rule store will be sorry to learn that he is confined to his home with a severe attack of cold on his lungs. He has been unable to be in the store the past two days.

Sprague River Visitor—Mrs. W. C. Callison is spending several days shopping in Klamath Falls from her home in the Sprague River district. Callison is well known in Sprague River, where he is employed as saw filer with the Campbell-Towle Lumber company.

At the Empire Hotel—F. G. Chard, with the Dalton Adding Machine company, left yesterday for the valley, where business in Medford called him. While in Medford Chard was a guest in the Empire hotel.

In from Chiloquin—A recent business visitor in Klamath Falls is Lyle D. Magness, logging contractor of Chiloquin, who spent several days of this week in the city.

In from Sprague River—W. C. Mattson, manager of Campbell-Towle Lumber company and a former resident of Klamath Falls is in the city to shop and visit with friends for several days. Mattson will leave tonight for his home in the Sprague River country.

Merrill Visitor—N. E. Woodhouse of Merrill is included in the scores of out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. McElwin In—Mrs. McElwin of Modoc Point is included in the visitors in Klamath Falls this week. She spent Thursday in the city from her home to receive medical attention.

Langell's Valley Visitor—John Turner of Langell's Valley is a business visitor in Klamath Falls. Turner is a well known valley rancher.

Officers on Business—State Traffic officers Jon McMahon and Charles Talent are in Klamath Falls on business. McMahon is sergeant of the southern Oregon district, with offices in Medford. Officer Talent is assigned to Jackson county for regular duty.

Mrs. Dobbins Visits—Mrs. Harry Dobbins of Klamath Agency is included in the scores of out of town visitors in the city recently to enjoy Christmas shopping.

Accepts Position—Bob Simmons has accepted a position with Stone's grocery. Simmons is a resident of North Bend on Coos Bay and until recently has been employed with the Stone stores in the bay city.

Miss Upp Hostess—Miss Jo Upp entertained informally for a few friends on Wednesday night with cards. Following several hours of playing the girls enjoyed the remainder of the evening at the dance.

In from Bly—Frank Obenchain, prominent cattleman of the Bly country, was in the city yesterday enjoying a brief shopping tour.

Returns from Portland—A. J. "Doc" Lyle of the Klamath General hospital has returned from a brief business trip which took him to Portland and other valley cities. According to Lyle he met a number of Klamath Falls residents in Portland who were making similar short trips.

In from the Fort—Bob Gordon is enjoying a brief visit in the city from his father's ranch in the Fort Klamath country.

Sprague River Visitor—C. A. Seonchin, prominent reservation resident, is in the city from his home in the Sprague River country.

Leaving for the South—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ryan, prominent residents of the Fort Klamath country where the Ryan ranch is located, are leaving this week for Vancouver, British Columbia, where they will spend the holidays with Ryan's sister. From Vancouver they plan to leave immediately for the south where the remainder of the winter will be spent in San Diego.

In from Keno—Roy Nelson is a Keno visitor in Klamath Falls for a brief business trip.

To Hunt Sunday—Among the enthusiastic hunters to plan Sunday for a hunting trip in the Tule Lake country are "Bud" J. D. Conway and Lloyd Porter, both of the First National bank.

Kedron Club—Members of the Kedron club enjoyed an enthusiastic meeting last night with a splendid turnout. Following the brief business the girls enjoyed a social hour.

Foreign Cars—A. Waive, Salida, Colorado resident, with J. T. Parmelee of Reno, Nevada, R. E. Van Horn of Sacramento and W. M. Webber of Oakland, are among the foreign residents in Klamath Falls this week. The four registered their cars in the chamber of commerce tourist bureau Wednesday.

Kirk Visitor—Among the recent visitors in Klamath Falls is W. R. Dyce of Kirk.

To Visit During Holidays—Word has been received by Mrs. J. C. Johnston from her son Charles, who is a student in the Pasadena Military academy, that he will arrive in Klamath Falls in the near future to spend Christmas holidays with members of his family. Charles was recently injured in a football game in which he participated, playing for the academy.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

B.P. Lewis Grocery
"The Coffee House."
223 So. Sixth St. Phone 355

We carry a complete line of Quality Groceries.

Try a pound of Lewis Special Coffee.

Pay us a visit—or phone your order in.

We have our own delivery.

Meat Market operated in co-operation with Grocery.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Visiting in Klamath—W. R. DeLay of Portland, is visiting for a short time with Mrs. DeLay and their daughter Lois. Mrs. DeLay is the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Porter of Klamath Falls.

Barclay Springs—Miss Gertrude Cox of Barclay Springs was among the business and pleasure visitors recently in Klamath Falls to enjoy holiday shopping.

General Motors' Man Leaves—E. H. Pixley, representative of the General Motors Acceptance corporation, of New York city, left yesterday for Medford, after spending a day in Klamath Falls. Mr. Pixley's headquarters are in Portland.

Baby's Condition Unchanged—No improvement yesterday was shown in the case of "Bobby" DeLap, year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DeLap, of south Riverside. The baby is the victim of pneumonia.

Mr. Miller Leaves—Eugene Miller, of the Standard Oil company, at Medford, returned to his home city by automobile yesterday, after spending a day in Klamath Falls visiting friends. Until recently he was employed in Portland.

Miss Hansen Returns—Miss Alice Hansen returned to Klamath Falls this week from Oakland, Calif., where she has spent the winter. Miss Hansen will visit with her family for a short time, planning to return to the south within a week. She attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Lulu Hansen, which was an event of last evening.

Here from Dunsmuir—Among the guests at the Hall hotel this week is W. J. McEnerney of Dunsmuir, Southern Pacific man. Another Dunsmuir resident at the Hall also connected with the Southern Pacific is H. W. Meek.

Musicians from the Valley—Dan Willoughby, Malcolm McDonald, Ted O'Hara and Bennie Johnson arrived in the city last night from their homes in Grants Pass to spend some time here. They are musicians.

Santry Here from Crescent—Eddie Santry, well known Crescent resident is a Klamath Falls visitor in the city for the remainder of the week on a business trip.

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. John Taylor of Merrill is among the business visitors in the city yesterday.

Something New
Empire Orchestra
Violin Lead

Time
Saturday Night

Place
Altamont
Auditorium

—Real Floor
—Real Music
—Real Dancing

Moe's Annual Disposal of Coats and Dresses

Lasts Through Friday and Saturday Only

You are interested in buying a quality Coat or Dress at the lowest possible price: that brings you to Moe's.

Our New York and Chicago buying offices have secured for us the most remarkable value shown in feminine attire in Klamath Falls.

Comparative prices mean nothing—the Coats and Dresses have received a real genuine mark-down. Come and see for yourself.

THE NEWEST and BEST COATS

Our Styles Are High and Our Prices Low

Select your Winter Coat with care! Buy one which is attractive, well made of fine material, trimmed smartly with the advantage of a very low price. In other words shop at this store. You'll always find just what you want here. In Bolivias and smooth finished fabrics with just the correct amount of adornments.

$19.50 — $29.50 — $49.50

WINTER'S BIGGEST DRESS EVENT

Of these superior groups of Dresses we have this to say: That if you fail to recognize them as extraordinary you will be about the first to do so.

Black, green, tan, mist, pencil blue, and many other colors which are up to the moment. Straight line models and flaring effects are equally assorted, with a variation of trims that is certain to have something you will admire and no doubt purchase.

$16.75 — $24.50 and $37.50

Gift Hints From All Over the Store

New Collar and Cuff Sets

Beautiful new collars in the most gorgeous shades of effects, stenciled with Windsor tie in gold designs. Brown and gold, red and gold, turquoise and gold, blue and gold, orange and gold, orchid and gold, purple and gold etc. Set complete $1.50.

Men's Neckties

New and nifty ties for men in a very wide assortment of shades. Full length four in hands, that any man would admire. The gift of a necktie never grows old and its exactly what every man wants, $1.00.

Handkerchiefs Are Happy Gifts

Happy, because they are always happily received. Tissue squares and petal-edged circles of the daintiest tinted voile, silk and linen, and they solve many of your gift problems too. Prices start at 25c.

Gloves Are Always a Xmas Favorite

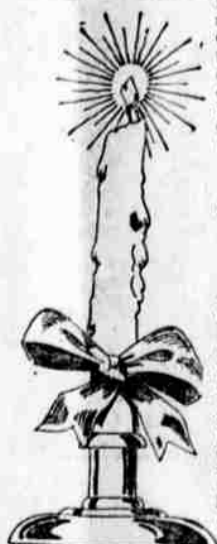

If you make your Christmas Glove selections at Moe's you may be assured that your gift carries with it style, correctness and dependable quality. The turn-back and ruffled cuff gloves in kid, suede, silk and chamoulette are here for your choosing, $1.75 to $5.00.

Fleecy Beacon Blankets Solve Many Gift Problems

Dainty of color, light and soft, but as warm as they can be, are these lovely blankets as many Christmas shoppers have triumphantly discovered. Sizes 66x88 and 72x84, $6.00 and $10.00.

Beautiful Bed Spreads In Lovely Colors

Scranton lustre and crinkle spreads in colors to match the bedroom. In soft tones of orchid, rose, maize, blue, etc. If you are at a loss of what to give these bed spreads will solve your problem. $6.50 to $16.50.

Christmas Boxes
In Holly and Pointa Designs
15c, 25c, 35c and 50c

Ring Moe's Beauty Shoppe
For an Appointment