have gone to Medford to visit Mr.
Obenchain's mother who has been sick.

Everyone will be glad to hear that Jack Watts is improving and hopes to be about before long.

FIFTEEN ARE FINED FOR DEFECTIVE LIGHTS

Fifteen times did Acting Justice of the Peace Knmitt yesterday say "Five dollars."

Fifteen times motorists set their mouths and delved into their respective pockets for the necessary fee.

The fifteen were arrested because state officers charged, their lights were not properly focused. Ninety-one drivers had been stopped.

The arresting officers were State Officers Foster, McMahon and Talent, working out of the office of State Traffic Chief T. A. Rafferty at Salem.

HUNGER STRIKE

HAVANA, Dec. 11.—Julio A.
Mella, University of Havana student, has gone without food for 120 hours in the hunger strike he is observing as a protest in the conflict between students and professors. His condition is unchanged, but is so critical that his physician has forbidden him to receive any visitors.

WEAR HIGH HATS

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 11.—Pasadenans want the whole countryside to send its municipal officers to its big Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's day—but there is a hitch to their invitation. The officers must wear high hats.

BRITISH WIN OIL LANDS FROM TURK

Turkey Decides to Abandon Belligerent Attitude Shown Earlier

GENEVA, Dec. 11.—Great Britain's battle for Mosul and the oil contained therein is virtually won.
The final decision between peace and war in the near east lies with the Turks, and the indications are that they will choose peace.

The league of nations council is ready to determine the Mosul dispute in favor of Great Britain, but is deferring the decision in order to permit the Turks to reach a direct and amicable settlement with Britain if this is possible.
Direct negotiations between the two delegations have begun, indicating that there is a chance of settlement without recourse to the council, whose decision the Turks have announced they would repudiate unless they gain Mosul.

If Turkey forces war on England, England would maintain her rights. L. M. S. Amery, British foreign secretary stated in an interview Friday.

The position of the opponents is just the reverse of their positions of a week ago. At that time, Turkey talked war. Last Tuesday the Turkish delegation defied the council and the Hague court of international justice by announcing that it would withdraw from Geneva if the league proceeded with its intention to make an arbitrary and binding decision.

Turkish hauteur and smashing diplomatic blows combined to weaken the Turkish case.

Washington Will Meet Alabama At Rose Tournament

SEATTLE, Dec. 11.—(United News)—The University of Washington will represent the west in the annual tournament of roses game at Pasadena.

This decision was handed to the Pacific coast conference representatives at their annual meeting here in the Olympic club late Friday.
Alabama has already accepted an invitation play in the game New Years day thus assuring participation of two of the outstanding football teams of the country in the great inter-sectional classic.

NOTED LECTURER

A former Klamath county resident, Rev. C. C. Hulet, formerly of Merrill, but now of Myrtle Point, has written of the oration which was given Dr. L. E. Smith, of Benito, West Africa, when he visited Myrtle Point last week. After appearing in the public schools Dr.
Smith was scheduled to address an evening audience, but had three crowds instead of one. The church, which seats only 200, was used for three successive audiences, eager to hear Dr. Smith. Klamath people will have the opportunity to hear this lecturer on next Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock. No charge will be made, and all are welcome.

SUFFERER DIES

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 11.—Suffering from an aggravated case of tonsillitis, George Bergquist, 21, walked to a doctor's office here to be treated.
He strangled to death a few moments later after taking a dose of medicine, according to the doctor's report to police.
