SOCIETY

...Indeed are the ...which Christmas brings a ...of happiness and en... ...For many families whose ...have been dispersed and ...far and wide, in the rest... ...of life, are then re... ...to meet once again in that ...of companionship and ...good-will, which is a source ...pure and unalloyed delight, ...incompatible with the ...sorrows of the world, that ...true belief of the most civ... ...and the rude tra... ...the roughest savages, alike ...among the first days of ...man of existence, provided ...safe and happy! How many ...letters and how many dor... ...Christmas-time ...

...these words now, many ...from the spot at which, ...year, we met on that day, ...and joyous circle. Many ...hearts that throbbed so gaily ...seemed to beat; many of ...eyes that shone so brightly ...seemed to glow; the hands ...that have grown cold; the ...feet that have hid their... ...years, and yet the old ...faces, the merry voices ...the jest, the ...the minute and trivial ...associated with those ...places, crowd upon our ...memory. Each recurrence of the sea... ...the last assemblage had ...yesterday. Happy, happy ...days that can win us back to ...some of our childish days, ...the old man the pleasures ...and transport the traveler ...to his own fireside and quiet ...Charles Dickens.

* * *

...W. Delzell gave a ...interesting review of G. B. ...Shaw's book, "The Matriarch" ...meeting of the study de... ...of the Women's Library ...Saturday afternoon in the li... ...rooms. ...review of the book, which ...is a most splendid man... ...and the interesting fall ...programs which have been given during the past three months.

Mrs. Lavant Pease will open the winter season on Monday afternoon, January the eleventh, with a review of "Mark Twain's Letters."

* * *

SEWING PARTY AT SMITH HOME

Miss Margaret Hargus and Miss Aileen Mordoff are entertaining informally for a group of younger girls at the W. O. Smith home on Conger avenue, Tuesday evening.

* * *

D. A. R. WITH MRS JONES

On Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Jones, members of the Daughters of the American Revolution met to enjoy a program under the direction of Mrs. Harry Ackley.

The theme of the afternoon's program was based on the Mayflower pact, which has held a brilliant spot in the highlight of American history.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Sarah Harshberger, past state regent of California chapters; Mrs. Lois Ambler, vice president of Willamette chapter, Portland; Mrs. Edith Morrison and Miss E. McKenzie, both members of the Olympia chapter of Olympia, Washington.

* * *

PRESBYTERIAN BAZAAR EVENT OF SATURDAY

Yesterday from ten o'clock until six in the evening, the auxiliary of the Presbyterian church were arranging booths, greeting visitors and transacting the sale of their gifts of their annual holiday bazaar.

Fully $200 was taken in during the day. Mrs. Charles Landis, president of the auxiliary, was in charge of the affair, which proved a successful holiday sale.

Mrs. Landis was assisted materially by those who took charge of the various booths including apron, fancy work, miscellaneous, handkerchief, candy, and cooked food sale.

The Camptire Girls also enjoyed a booth, where they sold articles made by the various groups.

Mrs. Fred Fleet and Mrs. Warren Hunt were in charge of the tea rooms, which proved one of the most popular sections of the bazaar. A sparkling fire threw a hospitable glow about the tea room, which was festively decorated with cords of red and green, in holiday attire.

According to Mrs. Landis, the money obtained from the bazaar will go into the funds to assist in the payment of the pipe organ.

* * *

DRAMA CLASS TO MEET THURSDAY

Miss Jean Perry will entertain on Thursday evening at her home on Ninth street for members of the drama section of the American Association of University Women. Miss Aileen Mordoff will read a paper on the late Greek drama and Latin drama. The paper will deal with the affect of Greek drama on the civilization of that period.

The group will complete the reading of the drama "Electra" written by Euripides.

* * *

ST. PAUL'S GUILD BAZAAR LOVELY AFFAIR

One of the most successful of the holiday bazaars was that conducted under the auspices of St. Paul's guild on Friday and Saturday afternoons in the Bellman offices on the corner of Seventh and Main streets.

The tea booth was an especially attractive section of the room, with Mrs. E. D. Lamb in charge of the serving. She was assisted during the afternoon by several of the guild.

Mrs. A. R. Morrison was in charge of the cooked food booth, which proved a mecca to busy holiday shoppers who were tempted by the array of inviting dishes.

Another popular section of the bazaar was the candy booth, presided over by Mrs. V. E. Parker.

Mrs. C. C. Seeley and Mrs. Thomas Hampton were in charge of the table, where household articles, attractive linens and charming gifts were sold. Their table brought in one of the heaviest returns of the sale.

To Mrs. Charles Martin goes a goodly share of credit for the success, as it was she who worked diligently as chairman of the affair.

* * *

ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Levi McDonald announce the engagement of their daughter Joan to Leland Willits. The marriage of Miss McDonald to Mr. Willits will be an event of Sunday, December the twentieth. The wedding ceremony will be read at high noon.

(Continued on Page Five)

Gray Squirrel Coat's Collared In Silver Fox

A luxurious gray squirrel coat (above) uses shaped sleeves and collar of fluffy silver fox.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE

to have

The Gift Supreme

Your Portrait

For Christmas

The Reasley's Photographic Art

GIFT Suggestions

that are sure to please a man—at the Men's Xmas Store—the Klamath Klothing Kompany.

Shirts

In Silks and Broadcloths—with and without collars, some with collars to match.

Neckwear

Cheney Silks and other good makes—in patterns that men like.

Gloves

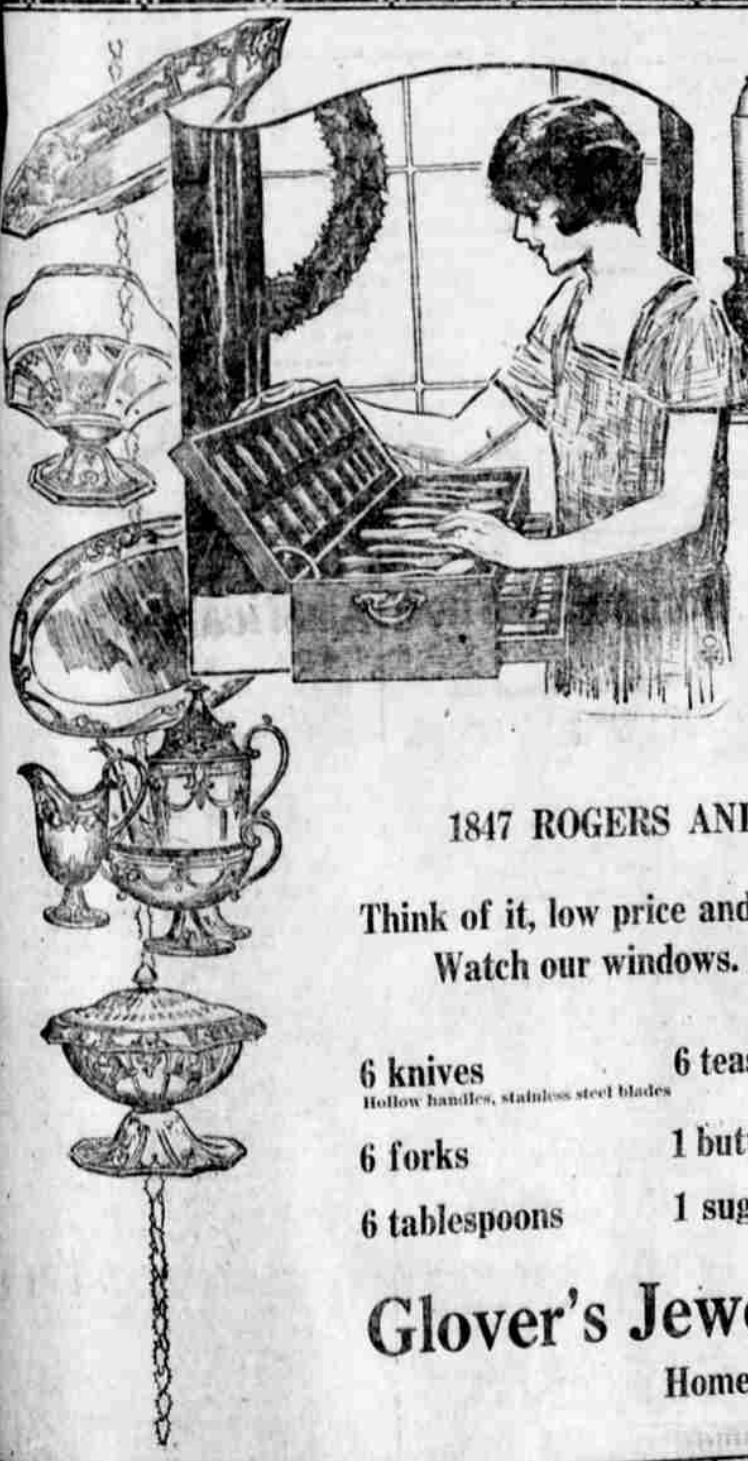
Fownes and Gates—in every desirable style and color—lined and unlined.

Interwoven Sox

The best wearing sox made—in Silks, Wool, Silk and Wool, fancy and plain colors. Give him a box of Interwovens and settle the gift question.

KLAMATH KLOTHING KOMPANY
LEADING CLOTHIERS SINCE 1901

The Men's Xmas Store



$23.00

For a Complete Set of Silver

1847 ROGERS AND 50-YEAR COMMUNITY, THE BEST

Think of it, low price and high quality. We want every piece to go. Watch our windows. All the popular patterns. 26-piece sets.

6 knives (Hollow handles, stainless steel blades)
6 forks
6 tablespoons
6 teaspoons
1 butter knife
1 sugar shell

One Dollar Articles

Pickle Fork
Jelly Spoon
Sugar Tongs
Jam Spoon
Cheese Knife
Lemon Fork

Glover's Jewelry Store and Gift Shop

Home of the Big Street Clock

Your Christmas PORTRAIT

There is still time for a sitting for that best of all Christmas presents—your own photograph.

Stinson's Studio

Phone 252-W