

LOCALS

Mrs. Noel Ill—Friends of Mrs. Paul Noel will be sorry to learn that she is confined to her home on Jefferson street, suffering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Loveland In Yesterday—S. H. Loveland of Bray mill on Sprague River is among the out of town visitors to spend yesterday in Klamath Falls on business.

Expected Home for the Holidays—Baford Hargus, son of Mrs. W. O. Smith is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls over the week-end to spend the Christmas holidays with his family. Hargus is a student of the University of Oregon.

Miss Newton Returns—Miss Ruth Newton of Merrill, a student in the University of Oregon, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls Saturday or Sunday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents in the valley. Miss Newton will make the trip to Klamath Falls with a number of other Klamath students who are expected home.

Leave for Home—Miss Helen Jones, and Miss Sarah Folsom, teachers of the Central school, left yesterday on the morning stage for their homes in the northern section of the state to spend the Christmas holidays with members of their families. Miss Jones resides in Independence, Miss Folsom in Mosier, Oregon.

Merrill Road Visitor—Included in the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was L. B. Dawson, well known resident of the Merrill valley, where he owns and conducts a ranch.

Teachers Leaving—Yesterday saw a number of the teachers of Klamath Falls schools leaving by stage or train for their homes in the north. Some left for the valley to visit with friends and others are planning to leave for the south for the holidays.

Lumberman from Lakeview—M. Peterson of Lakeview, well known lumberman of the neighboring city, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls on business.

Miss Jensen Ill—Miss Elna Jensen has been confined to the F. C. Bamber home on Washington street suffering from an attack of boils. She has been absent from her position in the county surveyor's office for the past two days.

In from Bonanza—Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Bowen of Bonanza, are included in the scores of out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday for a short time.

Algoma Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cox of Algoma, were among the scores of out of town visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday. Cox is yard foreman of the Algoma Lumber company.

From Fish Hatchery—Percy Southwick who resides at Crooked Creek hatchery near the Fort Klamath country, with George Knox, also of the hatchery, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls transacting business affairs and visiting with friends.

Hildebrand Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horton spent yesterday in Klamath Falls visiting with friends and looking into affairs of business. They are residents of Hildebrand.

Cattle Buyer Here—Charley Horton, one of the most prominent cattle buyers of the Pacific coast, who makes Klamath Falls territory often during the fall and winter months, is in the city this week from his home in Dorris.

In from Bly—Mrs. Bertha Parker, well known resident of the Bly country, accompanied by her son Everett, spent Tuesday in Klamath Falls visiting with Mrs. Parker's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Driscoll. The visitors returned to their homes yesterday.

Modoc Point Visitor—Mrs. Dan Crump, wife of the manager of Lamm's mill at Modoc Point, is included in the shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Pretty kimono and robes for her, a Christmas gift. At Bee Benin's Dress Shop. D14-19

No More Campfire Meetings—According to guardians of the four campfire groups in Klamath Falls, all meetings of the organizations have been cancelled until after the first of the year to assist as much as possible in the preventing of the spread of spinal meningitis. Mrs. A. L. Rice's two groups, Mrs. Paul Jackson's group and the group of campfire girls under the supervision of Mrs. V. E. Parker will not meet until early in January, when they will resume their work where it has been interrupted this month.

Cancel Meetings—According to an announcement made last night members of the Job's Daughters organization will not meet on Thursday evening as previously announced. The meetings are cancelled until after the first of the year.

Leaving for Canada—Edith Hood, 303 Pine street, is planning to leave this week for the north to spend the holidays. She will visit in northern Washington and perhaps make a brief visit into Canada before returning to Klamath Falls.

Leaves for the South—Marion Nine, president of the Nine Brothers Lumber company and also of the Shasta View Lumber company, left yesterday for the south, where he was called to San Francisco in the interests of business.

Porter to Go South—Louis Porter will leave this week for California to join Mrs. Porter and their children who have been in San Francisco and bay cities for some time. They will return to Klamath Falls in time for the Christmas holidays.

Leaving for the North—George McIntyre of the First National bank is leaving this morning for the north to spend a fortnight visiting with friends and relatives. McIntyre will spend some time in Portland as well as southern Washington cities. He will return the first of the year.

Bray Mill Visitor—A. D. Carstens of Bray mill on Sprague River is included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday. Carstens was among those to enjoy a brief Christmas shopping tour while in the city.

No Christmas Services—According to announcements from the various ministers in the city, there will be no Christmas programs, trees or children's gatherings, due to the fear of spreading the present epidemic of meningitis.

Cancel Meetings in Church—According to an announcement made by Rev. T. D. Yarnes of the First Methodist church, meetings in the churches for the coming Sunday have been cancelled. The Christmas program has also been cancelled for the coming week.

Egan Buys Property—Matt Egan, manager of the Algoma Lumber company has purchased from D. O. Williams and W. M. Bray, Lots 21 and 22 in block 7 of Hot Springs addition according to a deed filed in the county clerk's office yesterday. Both lots brought $6000.

Dixon Injures Hand—Gordon Dixon is nursing a badly injured left hand which he cut in an electrical saw yesterday morning. The hand is in no danger of being mutilated according to Dixon.

No Missionary Meeting—There will be no missionary meetings held in the Presbyterian church this week according to Mrs. A. M. Worden yesterday. The meeting was scheduled for this afternoon.

In From Algoma—Among those out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday were Mrs. Matt Egan of Algoma and Mrs. Kimball, also a resident of Algoma. The two women spent the day shopping and visiting with their friends.

Leaves for the North—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kidder have left for Eugene and neighboring points where they will spend the Christmas holidays.

Miss Wilson Leaves—Miss Olive Wilson left yesterday morning for Yoncalla to spend Christmas holidays with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Wilson.

Leaves for the South—Miss Maybelle Leavitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Leavitt, left yesterday for Los Angeles, San Francisco and other southern cities. Miss Leavitt will spend Christmas holidays with her sister, Mrs. Frank V. Robinson of Los Angeles.

Waters on Business Here—E. G. Waters of Medford is included in the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls this week.

At the White Pelican—Among the guests at the White Pelican hotel this week is W. H. Pippy of Medford, who makes frequent visits to Klamath Falls.

Algoma Visitor—H. R. Foreman is a business visitor in Klamath Falls this week from his home in Algoma.

Here From Grants Pass—Harry Edgerton, prominent lumberman of Grants Pass is in Klamath Falls making a brief business visit.

Chilcote Sells Land—E. M. Chilcote has sold to L. W. Hardin of Klamath Falls, lots 1 and 2 in block 1 of First Addition according to a deed filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday. The consideration named was $500.

Bobbitt Improving—According to W. A. Brown of Lodi, California, Rev. W. E. Bobbitt of the First Christian church of Klamath Falls, is rapidly recovering from the effects of his operation. He is still confined in a hospital in Woodland, California but hopes to be removed soon, said Brown who also declared Rev. Bobbitt to be rapidly gaining strength.

Mr. Shasta Visitor—Jack Kenealy of Mt. Shasta, who makes frequent business visits to Klamath Falls is in the city this week for several days to look into business affairs.

Leave for Portland—Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb and small son left yesterday afternoon for Portland where they will remain for some time. Dr. Lamb is scheduled to return Saturday and again leave for Portland in time to spend Christmas with Mrs. Lamb and their son who will remain until after the first of the year.

Delphian Meeting Postponed—According to an announcement made by Mrs. Don Zumwalt, director of the Delphian club the general chapter of Delta Gamma, Klamath Falls group will not be held on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 22, as previously announced. The next meeting of the club will be held on Tuesday afternoon, January the fifth in the sun parlor of the White Pelican hotel. Mrs. Rachael Solomon's class will not meet this week, the next meeting is scheduled for January the sixth.

Miss Pearson Leaves—Miss Ethel Pearson has resigned her position in the Blue Bird and left the early part of the week for Medford where she will visit with her sister, Miss Vera Pearson.

Mrs. Stewart Sells Land—Mrs. Wilella Stewart of Hollywood has sold Lot 9 of Block 18 in Fairview addition for a consideration of $500 according to a deed filed yesterday in the county clerk's office. The land was purchased from Mrs. Stewart by Della Loughhead.

Here from Ashland—Chi Heer of Ashland, connected with the Southern Pacific, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls for several days.

Visit at the Hall—Mr. and Mrs. Gus Page, nee Opal Smythe, are registered at the Hall hotel. Page is a prominent garageman of the Fort. The marriage of Page and Miss Smythe was an event of yesterday.

Here on Business—Thomas H. Conover, service man for the Standard Oil company, is a business visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in Sacramento.

KAPSO FOR FORE PURE D

ELK Christmas Christmas The biggest the ye Invitatio Clu

Christian Ladies BAZAAR
Cooked Food—Rummage Sale
Home Made Mince Meat
Saturday, December 19
Hart Building
7th and Main Sts.

A Box of Candy—FREE

A purchase of 50c or more today at Underwood's Pharmacy will entitle the buyer to a box of Miss Saylor's Unusual Chocolates. These are the most delicious candies on the market today. Only three hundred boxes go under this offer, so come in early. Only one box to a customer.

GIFT Suggestions

As a mere suggestion of the variety of articles suitable for gifts we list several dozen that we have in stock.

Here you will find things suitable for all ages. Nearly everything listed is carried in several styles so that a selection may be had from a few cents to several dollars.

Take your list of names, check off something on the list for each one and then come in and look them over. We will solve the gift question for you.

- | | | |
|------------------------|--------------------|----------------------|
| Kodaks | Christmas Cards | Manicure Sets |
| Kodak Albums | Perfumes | Toilet Waters |
| Ash Trays | Book Ends | Cigarette Cases |
| Smoking Stands | Military Brushes | Playing Cards |
| Perfume Atomizers | Shaving Stands | Key Cases |
| Checker Boards | Vacuum Bottles | Hair Brushes |
| Bibles | Nut Bowls | Shaving Mugs |
| Bill Folds | Bud Vases | Face Powders |
| Books | Hair Brushes | Perfume Bottles |
| Fancy Candles | Candle Sticks | Console Sets |
| Card Cases | Brief Cases | Harmonicas |
| Cribbage Boards | Paper Cutters | Photo Frames |
| Hand Bags | Alarm Clocks | Mah Jongg Sets |
| Dominoes | Vanity Boxes | Framed Mottoes |
| Toilet Sets | Compacts | Cigar Humidors |
| Saylor's Chocolates | Fountain Pens | Poker Chips |
| Electric Curling Irons | Drawing Outfits | Safety Razors |
| Ivory Toilet Articles | Ever Sharp Pencils | Shaving Brushes |
| Incense Burners | Nail Files | Crater Lake Pictures |
| Fine Stationery | Buffers | Powder Puffs |
| Infant Sets | Children's Books | Fine Candles |
| Jewel Boxes | Lunch Kits | Desk Clocks |
| Rubber Aprons | Tourist Cases | Collar Boxes |
| Mirrors | Writing Cases | Gift Books |
| Desk Sets | Ingersoll Watches | Letter Seals |

Yes, Girls, They Are Here

Special new Holiday Pumps in Satins and Patent Leathers; they have gold underlay trimming and buckles and bows, and—well, we can't tell you all about them here—hurry in and see them. A lot of the girls have them already.

Have You a Dandy Da

We suggest Daniel Green slippers in different colors. They wear better, and say, look at dad's dress shoes, see if the heels are worn down, see if the soles are thin. He maybe is trying to make his purse go too far this Christmas to his own neglect, but he likes dressy shoes, and we have just what he likes.

Hi Shoes, Dress Shoes, Play Shoes, Rubber Boots, House Slippers for the children.

Underwood's Pharmacy
KLAMATH FALLS OREGON
WHERE PARTICULAR PEOPLE BUY THEIR DRUGS

PURITY ACCURACY

Houston & Jester
"Quality Shoes"
515 Main.

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES
PURE DRUGS