

LOCALS

Tule Lake Farmer—Clark Wilson, Tule lake farmer, is among the out of town visitors in the city this week.

Here to Settle Estate—Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Guver of Palsade, Neb., are spending the remainder of the week in Klamath Falls looking into business matters which have called Guver west. Guver, who is a banker of the Nebraska city, is settling matters of an estate in Klamath Falls.

Trip to Chiloquin—E. W. Vannice spent yesterday in Chiloquin, where he transacted business in connection with the Golden Rule store of the reservation city.

Foreign Cars Register—Among the out of the state residents to register foreign cars in the chamber of commerce registration bureau yesterday were Guy Herd of Colusa, California; Adolph H. Hubbard of Courtland, California; Lawrence Morgan of Burley, Idaho; Frank Bechell of Belber, California, and Samuel R. Wilcock of Alturas.

Simpson Ill—Friends of Jack Simpson, who is employed in the Hurry Cash grocery store will be sorry to learn that he is confined to his home with a severe attack of grippe. Simpson resides at 216 Pine street.

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. F. N. Moyer of Merrill is included in the out of town visitors in the city this week.

Merrill Visitor—Silas Obenchain, well known rancher of the Merrill road district, was a business visitor and shopper in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Here from Algona—Matt Egan, Algona resident, connected with the Algona Lumber company, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

On Business in Klamath—H. E. Ward of Merrill route is included in the many out of town visitors in the city yesterday for a short business trip.

Fort Klamath Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor, who own and conduct the Fort Klamath hotel, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls enjoying a shopping tour and visit with friends.

Roy Call to San Francisco—Roy Call, with Mrs. Call and their family, will leave this morning for San Francisco, Los Angeles, Long Beach and other California cities for a three weeks' visit over the holidays. The family will make the trip by motor, returning shortly after the first of the year. Call is owner of the Klamath Falls garage.

Leave for the South—W. C. Dalton and Dr. L. L. Trux left the early part of the week for San Francisco, where they will spend a week or ten days looking into business matters. They made the trip by motor.

In from Merrill—Included in the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Mrs. E. L. Padlock of Merrill.

Shopping in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bunnell and family spent Tuesday afternoon in Klamath Falls shopping and transacting business affairs. Bunnell is a Merrill rancher.

Green Visits on Business—Martin Green, rancher of the Merrill valley district, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls on business.

Accepts Position—A. R. Plumble of Aberdeen, Wash., has accepted a position in the dry goods department of the Golden Rule store. Plumble arrived yesterday from the north.

Gift suggestions from our Kodak counter

EASTMAN ALBUMS—always acceptable. The Library Album (illustrated) slips on the shelf with other books. Price $3.25. Other styles in a wide price range.

KODAK SELF TIMER—clips to the cable release and "clicks" the shutter so the photographer can be in the picture. $1.25.

KODAK PORTRAIT ATTACHMENT—for arm's length "close-ups" in sharp focus. 50c and 75c.

Underwood's Pharmacy

"The House of a Thousand Gifts"

Visit in the City—William Tingley, well known Miller hill rancher, made one of his frequent business trips to Klamath Falls yesterday for a short time. Tingley was accompanied by his son.

Mallin Visitor—Dick Stevenson of Mallin was a business visitor in Klamath Falls yesterday, looking into affairs.

Visiting With Bee Begin—Miss Elsie Monson of New York is the guest of Bee Begin for a week.

Miss Scofield Ill—Friends of Miss Lillian Scofield of Moe's store, will be sorry to learn that her condition of yesterday is but slightly improved. Miss Scofield, who makes her home with Mrs. Ella McMillan, has been confined to her room for several days suffering from a severe cold.

In from Merrill—Mrs. R. L. Dalton and Mrs. L. S. Burris of Merrill, both prominent residents of the valley city, are included in the scores of out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Back from Chiloquin—Miss Elba Arant returned home today after visiting friends at Chiloquin.

Unable to Attend Funeral—Fred Peterson, county school superintendent, will be unable to attend the funeral of his aged father, Olaf Peterson, 71 years old, who died Monday afternoon at one o'clock in Galesburg, Illinois. Peterson stated yesterday that he had not received word as to the cause of his father's death. The aged man leaves five children in the east and Peterson of Klamath Falls.

Miss Ridings to Eugene—Miss Marie Ridings, teacher of mathematics of the Klamath county high school, left yesterday for her home in Eugene, where she will spend the Christmas holidays with her parents.

Miss McPherson to Leave—Miss Elvise McPherson, instructor of music of the high school is among the teachers to leave this week for her home in Portland.

Miss Elliott Expected Home—Miss Nell Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Elliott, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls over the week-end to spend Christmas holidays with her parents. Miss Elliott is attending the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Mallin Visitor—Evan Maupin of Mallin is included in the scores of out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls recently.

Here from Chiloquin—A. L. Trask of Chiloquin spent yesterday in the city on business and looking into other interests.

Merrill Visitor—Alonzo Storey, Merrill rancher, was included in the many out of town business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday. Storey made a trip to the county courthouse to pay his taxes.

Postpone Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Barnes were forced to postpone their trip which they had planned to make in the south for the Christmas holidays. According to Mrs. Barnes yesterday, the fear of leaving their children with the present spread of meningitis prompted them to cancel their trip. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook and Zed Barnes left yesterday morning to spend two weeks in the south.

Mrs. Gammon to Leave—Mrs. Del Gammon and daughter Miss Nancy Gammon are leaving today for the south to spend the holidays in San Francisco with Mrs. Gammon's parents. Mr. and Mrs. George Russell Reed, Gammon plans to leave later in the week to also spend Christmas in the south.

Goes South—Mrs. C. V. Fisher left early yesterday morning for San Diego, where she will remain for the holidays. She will be accompanied back to Klamath Falls by her husband and daughter Constance. The Fisher family plan to make Klamath Falls their permanent home.

Entertain Last Night—Miss Margaret Hargus and Miss Aleen Mordhoff entertained last night at the W. O. Smith home on Conger avenue for a number of girls of the younger set. Holiday decorations were an interesting feature of the evening.

Bonanza Visitor—Mr. and Mrs. William Bechtold were among the business visitors and shoppers in Klamath Falls yesterday. The Bechtolds are well known ranchers of the Bonanza district.

Here from Reno—F. J. O'Flaherty, resident of Reno, Nevada, has arrived in Klamath Falls to make his permanent home. O'Flaherty is looking for a business location. He is a machinist and mechanic.

Mrs. Curria to Entertain—Mrs. C. E. Curria is entertaining for a group of the younger girls on Friday evening at her home on Pacific Terrace.

Drama Section to Meet—Members of the drama section of the American Association of University Women will meet at the home of Miss Jean Perry, 237 North Ninth street, on Thursday evening. Miss Aleen Mordhoff has prepared an interesting paper on Greek and Latin drama.

Miss Wilson Leaving—Miss Olive Wilson, teacher of domestic arts in the city schools, will leave the middle of the week for her home in Yencalla, Oregon, to spend the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Wilson. Miss Wilson had not planned to leave until next week, however, the close of schools made it possible for her to leave this week.

Merrill Rancher In—C. Bowman of Merrill was among the out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

At the Empire—W. H. Turner of the Willamette valley, connected with the highway engineer's office, is in the city for a short time to look into highway affairs. Turner is a guest in the Empire hotel.

Lumberman from Bend—H. M. Swigert, lumberman from Bend, is spending a short time in Klamath Falls.

Yeoman Lodge Growing—Approximately 40 members are now included in the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, Klamath Falls lodge, which was organized in September by L. V. Stockner. The groups are meeting every second and fourth Saturday evenings in I. O. O. F. hall. On Saturday evening of the past week, the group enjoyed an oyster supper served by bachelors of the organization. The dinner was followed by dancing. There have been five meetings since the initial gathering and each meeting has seen a class initiation, according to Stockner last night.

Richmond Woman Visitor—Mrs. J. H. Smith, of Richmond, Calif., is in Klamath Falls visiting her daughter, Mrs. Milton Borland, and her sister, Mrs. C. R. Delap. Mrs. Smith formerly was a resident of this city.

Bobby DeLap Much Better—"Boboby" DeLap, year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DeLap, of south Riverside, was reported much improved yesterday. He is a pneumonia sufferer.

Forbes Pure Drugs
Eighth at Main
Good Service—Good Drugs

Mr. Waite Ill—Fen Waite, city editor of The Klamath News, yesterday was confined to his bed with an illness. The malady is not considered serious.

Couple Is Married Here—James Lewis Pinon and Miss Bessie Anna Sberick, both of Klamath county, were married yesterday by Justice of the Peace Emmitt in the local justice court.

Bainbridge Colby and Wife Separate

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(United News)—Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state during part of the Wilson administration, and Mrs. Colby have separated.

This was learned Tuesday night, when Mrs. Colby sailed for Europe aboard the Mauretania. Both she and Mr. Colby, however, denied she was going to Paris for a divorce.

It was admitted by a member of the family, however, that the couple had agreed to an amicable separation several months ago. Mrs. Colby has been living in their apartment and Mr. Colby has been stopping at a hotel.

World Court Plan Held Impractical

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(United News)—Senator Borah's world court reservations have been branded as highly impractical by Dr. John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton university.

Replying to a letter from the chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, in which Grier explained that he aimed to "divorce the world court from the league of nations," Dr. Hibben said that "another international court divorced from the court as at present organized would in all probability result in our nation finding itself the sole member of such an institution."

Pretty kimono and robes for her, a Christmas gift. At Bee Begin's Dress Shop. D16-19

Diogenes Never Met This "Honest" Man

OAKLAND, Calif., Dec. 15.—Delice de Palma never had heard of Diogenes, and this lack of information regarding the Greek philosopher cost him $900.

De Palma told Oakland police that a month or so ago he met Luigi Calentro, who informed him that Diogenes was a millionaire who had grown three feet for an honest man. He was ready to help him, this new Delice immediately forward as the most mortals and consented to back up his claim de Palma continued, departed.

Forbes Pure
Eighth at Good Service—G

Christian Ladies' BAZAAR
Cooked Food—Rummage Sale
Home Made Mince Meat
Saturday, December 19
Hart Building
7th and Main Sts.

The Women's Store is Logical Place to Buy Gifts for Women.

Naturally women like to buy things at "The Women's" because it is exclusively a store for women. We keep of every new innovation, and our stocks reflect this idea of our buyers. We make a constant study of the needs of our buyers and we know that our patrons are fine judges of and of service giving merits. Therefore we encourage well as women to shop at this store, for here they can find anything they desire for feminine needs. So we suggest you bring your list to our store at your earliest convenience and you will be surprised to see how quickly and readily you can check off each name.

BEAUTIFUL SILKEN LINGERIE A Most Practical Gift

Beautiful Lingerie is most fascinating to the feminine eye. There are an endless number of dainty filmy underthings. It certainly will not be hard to choose from among them, especially when you see them in their lovely lace and ribbon trimmings. As a gift they will not only show the taste of the giver but be a most pleasant surprise to the recipient.

A LACY NEGLIGEE WILL DELIGHT HER

Just imagine her delight at finding a wondrously lovely negligee draped in clouds of cobwebby lace. They are fairly tantalizing, they are so beautiful. Exquisite French flowers add to the beauty of the negligees and sheer georgette sleeves are draped so gracefully. The prices are not as high as one would naturally think.

Hints for Useful Gifts

Gordon Silk Hosiery Always receives a Christmas welcome. There are sheer chifbons or heavier weaves in all of the new shades. $2.00 the pair, by the box $5.50.

New Handbags Offer fascinating new styles to gift seekers. Underarm bags, or others, in a lovely variety of tones to match your costume. $1.50 to $10.50.

Gloves With Turnback Cuffs With tricky flaring turn-back cuffs in perforated or embroidered designs. They are very attractive indeed and are priced from $1.00 to $5.00.

Stunning Luncheon Sets That will win the approval of the fastidious women. They will show the fineness of the linen and the beauty of the design.

Christmas Boxes In clever holiday designs. They come in several different sizes. It adds to the value of a gift to have it packed in a becoming box. Priced at 10c, 15c, 25c.

A Dainty Guest Is just the thing to add to your linen treasury. We have a display of beautiful brodered ones, as well as ones all ready to embroider. Priced low.

Moe's THE WOMAN'S STORE

Truth in Advertising

The Sensible Gift

Interwoven Socks for Christmas

For a sensible, serviceable Xmas Gift for men you can't beat those famous

Interwoven SOCKS

Lises at 35c—3 pairs for $1.00. Silk and Lisle mixed, 50c. Cashmeres in fancy patterns, 75c. Silk and Wool mixed, in fancy patterns, $1.00 to $1.50.

The best wearing sox made, every pair guaranteed to give perfect wear.

KLAMATH KLOTHING KOMPANY
LEADING CLOTHIERS SINCE 1901

Exclusive Agents