BILL AIMED AT U. S.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 24.—The drastic bill regulating foreign property in Mexico, in some cases amounting to prohibition of ownership was passed and sent to President Calles for promulgation.

In eleven articles the bill puts such difficult conditions upon ownership of property that the repercussions of the bill are likely to be large.

Foreign ownership of land within ten kilometers of the frontiers or 50 kilometers of the seaboard is forbidden, as is foreign participation in Mexican companies, owning such land.

ROADS LEAD TO MERRILL

One of the most popular places in Klamath county this Christmas night will be the Merrill community hall when the annual Christmas carnival ball will be enjoyed by the residents of the Merrill country and the many guests who have been bidden from Klamath Falls and other county cities.

Those in charge of the dance promise novelties and among other things "lots of fun."

Les Saling's orchestra will provide the music for the evening's entertainment.

KLAMATH POOR PROVIDED FOR

This morning found no family in Klamath Falls without provisions; no child without a toy. As near as could be learned last night, Community Chest workers, Christmas chest workers and local newspapers co-operating with the American Legion and the Boy Scouts had managed to locate and provide for all of the needy in the city.

Early yesterday morning the work of distributing re-commenced and, by last evening, persons who had been active in the Christmas campaign expressed themselves as satisfied that none of the deserving had been overlooked.

The task of delivering presents did not prove simple in all cases, as, frequently families were located in sections over which trucks found it impossible to go. In such instances the bundles were carried through the mud and water to the homes where, if all Klamath Falls had not co-operated, Christmas would not have been Christmas.

It was estimated that nearly 200 children in the city were supplied by toys.

COMMUNISM LOSING IN FIGHT AGAINST SANTA

MOSCOW, Dec. 24.—Communism is losing its battle to abolish Christmas in soviet Russia. Christmas was not selected as an especial object of communistic propaganda, but merely as one of the religious festivals which communism has sought to root out of the consciousness of the people along with religion itself.
