

LOCALS

Miss Jennings Returns.—Miss Loretta Jennings returned Sunday evening from Portland, where she spent the Christmas vacation with her mother in the north. Miss Jennings is a member of the River-side school faculty.

Here Hunting.—Edson Faulks Jr. of Yreka spent the past few days enjoying a hunting trip in the Tule Lake country. He was accompanied on the hunt by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hale and son of San Francisco, who have been visiting for the past few days in Klamath Falls.

Visits With Family.—Miss Inez Thackara of the White Pelican hotel spent an interesting Christmas and weekend vacation visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Thackara, ranchers of Dorris, and with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Short of Madocel.

Visits in Dorris.—Mrs. E. Virgil spent the holiday season visiting with her son, Mr. Loosley of Dorris. Loosley is a well known merchant of the northern California city.

Mother Visiting Here.—Miss Anita Shaffer is enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Oliver Shaffer, a resident of Dorris. Miss Shaffer spent the Christmas holidays visiting with her parents in the south.

At the White Pelican Hotel.—Among the guests in the White Pelican hotel this week is W. H. Poppy of Medford, who makes frequent business visits from his home in the valley to the city.

Visiting Here.—J. A. McAlpine of Odell Lake is visiting in Klamath Falls for a short time, combining business and pleasure in his three-day stay in the city.

Copco Visitor.—Among those out-of-town business visitors in Klamath Falls this week is W. M. Shepard of Medford, well known resident of the valley city. Shepard is affiliated with the California-Oregon Power company, and is making a visit to Klamath Falls in connection with the business of the company.

From Portland.—G. B. Richmond and Charles E. Hart arrived in Klamath Falls last night for a brief business visit. Richmond is land agent for the northern lines, for which Hart is the attorney.

Miss Snyder Improving.—Friends of Miss Josephine Snyder will be happy to learn that she is improving after suffering from a serious illness which has confined her to her home in the Hamel apartments. Miss Snyder is the daughter of Mrs. F. W. Snyder and one of the popular members of the high school younger set.

Return to Lakeview.—James Campbell of Grants Pass, who spent the Christmas holidays visiting in the valley, returned yesterday to Lakeview, where he has business interests. Roland Post also returned to Lakeview yesterday, after visiting in this city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Post. He attended the wedding of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Post to Virzell Veltch, which was an event of Sunday morning.

Return From Dunsmuir.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Dodson have returned from Dunsmuir, where they spent the Christmas vacation with Dodson's parents. Miss Elva Arant, their daughter, will be remembered as a member of the River-side school faculty.

To Attend Show.—Among the Klamath Falls residents who are planning to attend the Kolb and Dill show which is now showing at the Craterian theatre in Medford, are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Offield and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Garcelon and daughter Jane. The five will leave this afternoon to attend the affair.

Old Klamath Resident Here.—Charles Graves, one of the old prominent residents of Klamath county and Klamath Falls, is visiting for several days in Klamath Falls. Mr. Graves is now making his home in Bend, where he is interested in the building of a new home. While in southern Oregon Graves was identified prominently with the lumber industry, as well as ranching, which he followed for a number of years.

Officers Installed.—Installation of officers of the Business and Professional Women's club, of which Mrs. Gordon Dixon is now president, was made last night in the library club rooms, with an especially large turnout. A musical program followed by refreshments made the evening one of the most enjoyable held by the club.

Visiting in Santa Barbara.—Ed Espinosa, linotype operator of The Klamath News, left Sunday for Santa Barbara, where he will spend ten days visiting with members of his family. Espinosa received word that his mother was seriously ill shortly before his departure.

Here From Chiloquin.—John Stevens, lumberman of Chiloquin, is spending a short time in Klamath Falls on business.

At the Hall Hotel.—H. Thomas, service man for the Best Tractor company is among the out of town guests in the Hall Hotel. Thomas is visiting for several days from his home in Medford.

Lakeview Visitor.—John L. Clark of Lakeview is included in the scores of out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Here On Business.—Included in the many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls is T. L. Dunsmore of McMinnville who is transacting business in the interests of the insurance game in Klamath Falls this week.

Medford Visitors.—Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Cook are spending a short time in Klamath Falls from their home in Medford.

Coos County Visitor.—George J. Bohrer, resident of Coquille county seat of Coos, is a recent arrival in Klamath Falls from his home on the coast. He is stopping in the city for a short time to transact business affairs.

Big shipment of new Spring dresses to sell at $18.75 and $16.75 just received at Bee Begin's Dress Shop. D29-J3

Here On Visit.—Mrs. C. E. Bold and her daughter Miss Gloria May Bold are visiting in Klamath Falls for a short time from their home in Medford.

Hunting From Talent.—D. Bowman and Max Little who make frequent visits to Klamath Falls in the interest of hunting arrived in the city last night for a short time to spend several days in the Tule Lake country. Both Bowman and Little are residents of Talent.

Bend Visitors.—M. E. Gilbert and daughter of Bend are among the visitors in Klamath Falls this week.

Merchants In.—Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Taylor, merchants of Beatty on the reservation are in the city for several days visiting with friends.

With Copco.—J. W. Peart of Medford, affiliated with the California-Oregon Power company is spending a short time in Klamath Falls.

Beatty Visitors.—Included in the visitors in Klamath Falls this week from the reservation are Mrs. McIntosh and daughter and A. C. Olson all residents of Beatty.

Rancher Returns From South.—M. H. Wampler, well known rancher of Rocky Point spent the past evening in Klamath Falls from his home on the lake. Wampler has returned from San Francisco where he spent the holidays.

Miss McMahan Arrives in Klamath.—Miss Cecelia McMahan arrived in Klamath Falls last night after an absence of six months during which time she was visiting for several months in St. Louis, Missouri. Miss McMahan has been affiliated for several years with Miss Gertrude's shop and will assume charge during the absence of Miss Eckman who is leaving this week for the east on a spring buying tour.

Visiting Here.—Mrs. L. N. Woodside, who is attending the University

Mitchell Influence Presages Aircraft Fight in House

At least three members of house aircraft committee favor adoption in full of recommendations of Col. William Mitchell for reform of U. S. air services, and the committee, which includes men who do not agree with the colonel, is expected to have a stormy time passing on scores of air bills introduced in house. Members of body are seen at the capital: (l. to r.) Reps. Anning S. Prall, N. Y.; Charles S. Faust, Mo.; Florian Lampert, Wis.; Chairman Albert H. Vestal, Ind.; Frank R. Reid, Ill.; Clarence Lea, Calif. Messrs. Prall, Lampert and Reid advocate the Mitchell plan.

of Oregon, where she is majoring in a special music course, arrived in Klamath Falls on Christmas Eve to spend the holidays with her husband who is advertising manager of the Golden Rule. Mrs. Woodside has many friends in Klamath Falls who will enjoy her visit while in the city. During the past summer she served as hostess at the Crater Lake Lodge.

Leave for the South.—Mrs. W. E. Lamm and young daughter left Sunday morning for the south to spend a short time before leaving for Honolulu. Mrs. Lamm will be joined in San Francisco by her mother, Mrs. McCourt and her sister Mrs. George Watt, a former Klamath Falls resident, who will sail with her on the thirty first for the Islands. Mrs. Lamm was accompanied to Ashland by her husband, owner of the Lamm mill at Madocel Point.

Minor Operation.—Miss Alma Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ryan, prominent merchant, submitted to a minor operation for the removal of tonsils yesterday in the Klamath Valley hospital. She was reported as resting easily last night.

Visit in Ashland.—Mr. and Mrs. Willard L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E.

Shaw and Thornton Smith spent Sunday in the valley, where they enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. P. E. Hinkley.

Merrill Visitors.—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kandra, well known Merrill residents, spent yesterday in Klamath Falls shopping and visiting with friends.

Lakeview Visitor In.—F. Jordan contractor of the Lakeview road, spent yesterday in the city on business.

Miss Richmond Returns.—Virginia Richmond, daughter of Mrs. Perry O. DeLap returned from a two month tour in Portland, where she was the house guest of Mr. and Earl H. Jefferson.

Silver Wedding.—Mr. and Mrs. M. Giacomini, prominent residents of Merrill, celebrated their wedding anniversary on Monday afternoon, December 27, with an elaborately arranged dinner at home. Covers were laid for Mrs. M. Giacomini, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Garcelon and daughter Jane, of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Offield of Klamath Falls, Miss Marie Munson of Clingham, Washington and Miss of the Pievna school and John Giacomini.

In From Merrill.—Included in scores of out of town visitors Klamath Falls yesterday were L. Pope of Merrill, his son F. Pope of Oregon Agricultural College and Kenneth Colwell of University of Oregon. All are residents of the neighboring city.

In Klamath Monday.—J. A. ray, Merrill barber, spent the day in Klamath Falls looking after business affairs.

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES
PURE DRUGS

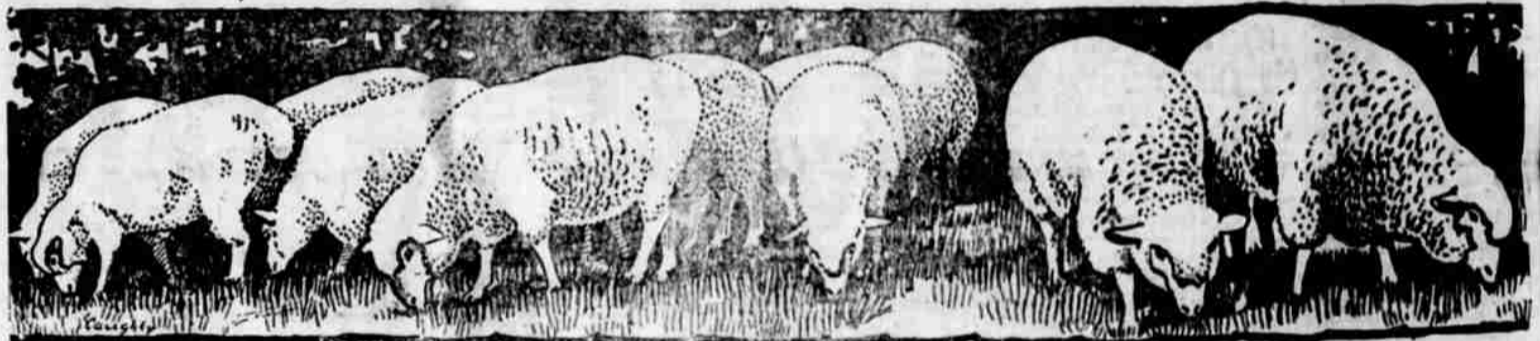

Masons, Attention

Special Communication

Tuesday, Dec. 29, at 1 P.

For purpose of conducting funeral services for Daniel A. Nicholls. By order of W. M.

See Our Fine
Assortment of Picture Frames. Let Us Do Your Kodak Finishing.
STINSON'S STUDIO
In the Hopka Bldg

A Great Clearance Sale

IN ALL THE
BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILLS STORES

10% TO 25% REDUCTIONS

Not a sale to sell dead stock or to close out odds and ends—but a genuine sale covering practically every article in our entire chain of stores. Save money on the following lines:

SUITS
OVERCOATS
PANTS
BOYS' CLOTHING

UNDERWEAR
BLANKETS
FLANNEL SHIRTS
BLAZER SHIRTS

SOCKS
MACKINAW
ROBES
FURNISHING GOODS

Brownsville Woolen Mills Stores

FIFTH AND MAIN STREETS

Other Stores at

PORTLAND ALBANY EUGENE MARSHFIELD

S. J. Montgomery (left), representative from Oklahoma, and Robert M. LaFollette, who succeeds his father as Wisconsin senator, are the "babies" of the new congress. The youngest representative was born in December 1894; February 1895, was the natal month of "Young Bob."