

LOCALS

Sheepman in Klamath.—Ben T. Murphy, prominent sheepman and sheep operator in the Lake county district, arrived in Klamath Falls Wednesday night for a brief business visit.

At the Hall Hotel.—D. H. Kimple of Longview is included in the out-of-town business visitors in Klamath Falls this week. Kimple is a guest at the Hall hotel while here.

Visiting With Relatives.—Mrs. Angeline Moneyhun and son Otis Moneyhun of Palo Alto, Calif., are visiting in Klamath county for several days. They have also been visiting with relatives and friends in the Fort Klamath country.

Medford Visitor.—Included in the many out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls this week is W. A. Stewart, well known resident of Medford, who is transacting business affairs in the city.

Surveyors in Klamath.—E. J. Van Wormer of Dunsmuir and E. Beckman, also a resident of Dunsmuir, are visiting in Klamath Falls for several days, interested in surveying for the Southern Pacific.

Visiting From Valley.—Mr. and Mrs. Merle S. Kilgore and son visited for several days in Klamath Falls from the Kilgore ranch in the Langell Valley country. They left on Wednesday evening for their home after a business and pleasure trip.

Former Resident Here.—E. A. Tuttle, former Klamath Falls resident, and now dispatcher for the Southern Pacific in Roseburg office, is visiting in the city with old friends and acquaintances.

With Copco.—S. M. Bullis of Medford was in the city for several days this week, interested with the California Oregon Power company. Bullis returned to his home in Medford Wednesday evening.

Cow Tester in Klamath.—Lester Cartwright of Salem, official cow tester of Marion county, and John Aldrich of Marshfield, official cow tester of Coos county, are in Klamath Falls for a short time, interested in dairy developments in Klamath county.

Returns From Medford.—Mrs. Nanna Cantrell returned the early part of the week from Medford where she has been visiting for several days with her mother, Mrs. Cordelia Ankeny of Eugene who is visiting in the valley during the holidays with her daughters.

Of Weed Lumber Company.—J. M. White prominently identified with the Weed Lumber company is a business visitor in Klamath Falls this week, arriving on Wednesday night from his home in Weed.

Weed Visitor.—Another Weed visitor in Klamath Falls connected with the Weed Lumber company is A. D. Rockwood, official of the organization. Rockwood is a guest in the White Pelican hotel while in the city.

Business Visitor Here.—Mrs. Edna M. Lyon who made a brief visit to Klamath during the past summer arrived in the city Wednesday night to spend the remainder of the week looking into affairs. Mrs. Lyon is a resident of Seattle.

Former Klamath Resident.—Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Wray of San Francisco are in the city on a brief business trip. Wray is with the Simon Saw company. Mrs. Wray is a former Klamath Falls girl.

Lumberman Here.—Jake J. Steiger, well known Klamath lumberman is in the city for a short time from his home in Medford.

Returns From Portland.—Elwood W. Roberts, prominent lumberman of the Klamath country and northern California is in the city after a brief business trip to Portland. While in the north Roberts completed several deals on timber purchases.

Plate Holders Few.—According to Leah M. Smith of the Klamath county chamber of commerce and head of the American Automobile association, Klamath Falls branch, plate holders with the insignia of Triple A have not been received by any members of the Klamath Falls organization. The plates are of sickle and particularly effective with the license plates of 1926, which are black and white.

Wire Received.—G. A. McCarthy has received a wire from A. A. Bellman, who is enjoying a two months visit in Cuba, Isle of Pines and Florida. Bellman was in Florida when the telegram was sent, and announced that he would leave on Wednesday morning for Havana, Cuba, to visit for a time. From Havana Bellman plans to visit in the Isle of Pines. Twenty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Bellman made a visit to Cuba, and had long cherished a desire to visit the islands again.

Visiting in Klamath Falls.—A group of Oregon Agricultural college men are visiting in Klamath Falls with Bob Gordon and W. J. Nicholson, well-known Fort Klamath ranchers. Vernon Owens of the school and Russell Leever with Gordon and Nicholson motored to Klamath Falls Wednesday from Medford. Owens is a resident of Jackson county, where his father was formerly county commissioner. Leever is a resident of Fort Klamath, where his parents reside.

Standard Oil Man Here.—C. H. McCutcheon of Sacramento, mechanical engineer of the Standard Oil company is spending several days in Klamath Falls looking into conditions of the local plant.

Kedron Club Meeting.—According to an announcement made by Miss Vera Houston on Wednesday afternoon, the next meeting of the Kedron club will be held on January 14 in the Kedron club room of the First Presbyterian church.

Party in Church Tonight.—Much interest is being centered on the watch party to be enjoyed tonight, Thursday, in the Presbyterian church, when the senior Christian Endeavor society holds their annual affair. Those in charge of the party included Margaret Cummings, Marie Crystal, Mildred Chase and Eda Jones.

Visiting in Portland.—Mrs. Lorene Peasley is enjoying a fortnight's visit in Portland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hanners of Peasley last night, she is expected to return home the early part of next week.

Susanville Visitors.—D. E. Collins and J. Jackson of Susanville are included in the business visitors in Klamath Falls this week.

Timber Inspector Here.—Paul Geary, government timber inspector from his home in Oroville, is visiting in Klamath Falls for a brief time.

With Agency.—Included in the recent visitors in Klamath Falls this week is Lee Haworth, connected with the United States government service at Yainax from the Klamath agency.

Expected Back Today.—J. J. Miller, Southern Pacific freight and passenger manager of the Klamath Falls branch of the road, is expected to return Thursday night from San Francisco, where he has spent the past few weeks visiting with his daughter, Miss Alice Miller, who is in training in a bay hospital.

Mrs. Thomas Is Hostess.—Mrs. Bert Thomas entertained informally on Tuesday evening for a group of friends with an interesting holiday party.

Leaving for the South.—Sam Dixon, foreman of Rex Bord's ranch in the Olene district, is leaving today for the south, where he will spend a month or six weeks.

In Tuesday for Treatment.—Vernon Lindsey spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Klamath Falls from Sprague River, where he is connected with the Campbell-Towle Lumber company. While in the city Lindsey received medical attention for injuries received this week while working in the camp.

Returning From Portland.—Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb and son Calvin, are expected to return to Klamath Falls on Friday evening from Portland, where they have been visiting.

Ogle in Klamath.—Hal Ogle, for many years a sincere friend of Julius Mueller, who was killed Tuesday afternoon by electric shock, arrived in Klamath Falls Wednesday morning from Rocky Point, where he has been for the winter months.

Leaving for the South.—Mrs. Cora Sanderson and Mrs. Claud Davis are leaving on Sunday morning for San Francisco, where they will spend a fortnight visiting with their many friends and relatives. Mrs. Sanderson will continue to San Rafael, where she will spend several days with her son, Lawrence "Pat" Sanderson, a former Klamath Falls resident. Mrs. Davis will visit in San Francisco and other bay cities during her visit in the south.

Here for New Year.—Gordon Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith, former Klamath Falls residents, and now owners of a farm near Grants Pass, arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon to spend the New Year holidays with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Smith. Smith plans to return to Oregon Agricultural college the early part of the coming week to resume his studies.

Leaves for Portland.—Bruce Jeffers, former Klamath Falls resident and graduate of the Klamath County high school, left for Portland to resume his position after visiting during the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Magee.

In From Algona.—Mrs. Matt Egan is included in the business visitors in Klamath Falls this week from her home in Algona.

Visit From Lamm's Mill.—Mrs. S. W. Egeline spent Wednesday visiting and shopping in Klamath Falls from her home at Modoc Point or Lamm's Mill.

Miss Clow Ill.—Miss Thelma Clow, one of the popular members of the high school set, is confined to her home this week with a severe attack of grippe.

Visiting in Seattle.—Mr. and Mrs. Champagne of Pelican City, where Champagne is employed as sawyer, are visiting in Seattle with Mrs. Champagne's mother during the holiday season.

Central Leaving.—Roland Cantrell is leaving Sunday morning for Eugene, where he will resume his studies in the University of Oregon.

Attend Theatre.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston are among the Klamath Falls residents to attend the showing of Kolb & Dill's "Pair of Fools" shown Tuesday evening at the Cratrin theatre in Medford.

Bonanza Visitor.—Fanny Lundy of Bonanza was a business and pleasure visitor in Klamath Falls Wednesday afternoon.

Visiting in Portland.—Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson and daughter Peggy, with E. A. Geary and Ed Geary, left Wednesday shortly after noon for Eugene and Portland, where they plan to spend a fortnight. They made the trip by motor.

In From Dorris.—Mrs. S. J. Allen has been in the city for the past two days, enjoying a business and pleasure trip. Mrs. Allen, whose home is in Dorris, received medical attention while in the city.

Roberts Improving.—Friends of E. T. Roberts, who suffered a compound fracture of the right leg below the knee on Tuesday evening, will be glad to learn that he is resting as easily as can be expected and well on the road to recovery. Roberts is resting in the Klamath General hospital.

Visiting in San Francisco.—Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. DeWeese are visiting for a fortnight in San Francisco with friends and relatives.

Miss DeLap Leaves.—Miss Octavia DeLap returned to Richmond, Calif., Wednesday morning, after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeLap. Miss DeLap is a teacher in the Richmond schools.

Malin Visitor.—Joseph M. Kotera of Malin is included in the out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls this week.

At the Empire.—Among the out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls this week are Mr. and Mrs. Elia Pryor, residents of Bend, who passed through the city on Wednesday evening, en route to their home in the north. They have been visiting during the holidays with Pryor's brother and family, residents of Chico.

Enjoy Kolb & Dill.—Miss Letha Simmonds accompanied Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Garcelon and daughter Jane and Mrs. Lester Offield to Medford on Tuesday night to enjoy the showing of Kolb & Dill's current vehicle, "Pair o' Fools."

Jinker's Team Challenged.—According to J. M. Glover, coach of the girls of the First National bank, who have formed a basketball team, the team has had plenty of chance to enter contests during the past week, but lack of a place in which to train has forced them to reject the acceptance of the challenges. Among the teams which have challenged the Jinkers is that of the Fort Klamath girls. They have requested a game later in the season, however, when the girls have been in training for a time. "The games will be played according to reception," said Glover yesterday, "and first come, first served, and all teams played."

In From Keno.—Inc out-of-town visitors Falls yesterday was W. Keno, who spent Wednesday in the city.

See Our Fine Assortment of Frames, Let Us Develop Your Kodak Finishing. STINSON'S STUDIO In the Hopka Bldg.

BASKETBALL

Fort Klamath vs. Klamath Cardinals

Altamont Pavilion

Friday, Jan. 1st

7:30 P. M.

Admission 35c

Southwell Stationery Co.
EVERYTHING FOR THE OFFICE

WE INSTALL BOOKKEEPING SYSTEMS
626 1/2 Main St. Phone 602

Announcement

After January 1, 1926

THE ELECTRIC EQUIPMENT CO.

will operate on a

STRICTLY CASH BASIS

Effective the same date, this establishment will open at 6:00 A. M. and close at 10:00 P. M.

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES PURE DRUGS

Heavyweight BOXING Card

FRIDAY, January 1, 1926

SCANDIA HALL

(Not in the afternoon, as previously announced)

MAIN EVENT—Ten Rounds

Frank Farmer vs. Sugar Willie Keeler

Farmer has beaten Nig Yeager, Jimmie Delaney and many others as good. Can he take 215-pound Keeler down the line?

SEMI-WINDUP—Six Rounds

K. O. Hogan vs. Jim Fleming

(Six Rounds—165 Pounds)

Their last fight was a furious draw

HEAVYWEIGHT SPECIAL EVENT—Four Rounds

Kid Short vs. Buck Weayer

You know them both. Neither weighs less than 200 and both are over six feet

PRELIMINARY—Four Rounds

Kid Sullivan vs. Carl Floyd

Tickets at Mecca, Smoke, Waldorf and Rex
Auspices Klamath Falls Municipal Boxing Commission

Ladies welcome

Johnnie Sylvester

FRIDAY NIGHT—8:30 P. M.—January 1

1¢ SALE 1¢

Mixed Candy, One Pound, 25c; Two Pounds 26c

Fancy Mixew, One Pound 35c; Two Pounds 36c

Sifted Peas, can 15c Fruit Cakes, each $1.00

Sweet Corn, can 15c Sweet Cider, gal. 50c

Tomatoes, can 15c Royal Ann Cherries, can 25c

String Beans, can 15c Blackberries, can 25c

Thanksgiving Pumpkin, can 15c Loganberries, can 25c

Corn Meal, 10 lbs. 45c Peaches, can 25c

Corn Flakes, pkg. 10c Apricots, can 25c

Milk, any kind, can 10c Broken Sliced Pineapple, can 25c

Campbell's Soup, any kind 10c Prunes, can 25c

We deliver hourly any order amounting to $1.00 or over. Pay the delivery man at your home and receive your groceries at the same price, or less, than at any other store.

PUBLIC MARKET

126 N. 6th St.

Pay Cash—It Pays

Phone 169

KAPSO FOR COLDS
—at—
FORBES PURE DRUGS

Announcing a Change of Ownership

The Battery Service Station, 613 Klamath Ave.

Has been purchased by V. E. Holmes and will move from its present location Thursday, December 31st to the

Oregon-California Highway Garage

Phone 500 423 S. 6th St.