

PREDICTS CHAMPIONS SPORTS WORLD

FRANK GETTY

Let's look into the future of what 1926 has in store for sports. What Nurali or runner will dash like a meteor across the horizon during the new year?

Many of the smiling faces of the "champion" will be in the first sport reflected on the surface of the crystal ball. This most uncertain of forecasts are forecast.

Will defend his middleweight title against Tiger Charlie (Phil) Rosenbantz. The crown will be in the very first important fight of the year at the Garden City night.

Shade, the California welterweight, will defend his title against the ten pounds and hand of Roland Todd.

Kaplan will not retain his middleweight title for another month, nor will Rocky Languish, the new lightweight king.

The crystal ball cannot see the future of the situation, however. The year will come, and in the national pastime the crystal ball predicts the Pittsburgh Pirates, and likely champions of the world, because baseball is based on mathematics.

One who is likely in tennis, Bill Tilden may prove the champion of the year. The pitcher who once too often to the pitcher, Tilden is due to try once again his stunt of spotting his opponent two sets, and four and four.

Lengien is due to defeat a lot of Americans by defeat. Willis this coming spring. When comes football time there will be Grange, Michigan in the lead, and will carry away the honor.

California on the coast, and Yale in the east. Princeton, starting with cars famous for their 1925 season, is doomed to defeat by the Princeton, what amounts practically to a foregone conclusion.

Even if none of these predictions come true, Happy New Year.

ON, Dec. 31. — (United Press) — A blight of ghosts has descended upon England.

Old wraiths have come forth throughout the country for the holidays. Reports of supernatural phenomena have authentication.

Accepted as seasonal. The reports range from a bear in the London district, and a nearly nude woman in another, to reports of murderers at Exeter, and in southwest England, and reports of animals and persons in the northeast.

In the village of Wartenby, near Easingwold, villagers are terrified by the frequent appearances of a white apparition in the form of a white horseman, who gallops through the village and on into the open gates and fences.

Everybody in the village has seen the Prince of Wales, who is hunting in the vicinity.

Flood of Queries Has Ad Stopped

"Apartment to rent."

"No objection to children."

"Help! stop that!"

All being not familiar family quotations, but merely broken notes reported by the young business office matron.

It seems she did a few lines of business through the classified department of The News with Marion Nine. He had a five-room apartment for rent.

The ad appeared once, and most of Klamath Falls was calling Nine. He wanted the ad stopped immediately, wishing, however, that he had many apartments.

Nine's advertised beliefs in the felicity of children might, of course, had something to do with it. But The News classified ads do pay.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. — Before the new year is many hours old there will be a scuffling of resin and a ducking and bobbing and the swish of soggy padded leather, as Dave Shade of California, and Roland Todd, former middleweight champion of England, engage in the first bout of 1926 in the new Madison Square Garden Friday night.

If the Californian does not completely outclass the Britisher, it will be not only the first, but one of the most surprising upsets of the new year, for Shade proved himself in his bouts with Jimmy Slattery and Mickey Walker to be one of the best middle-sized men of the ring.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31. — Here is a little joke, just among sport fans for New Year's.

Luis Angelo Firpo has agreed to fight Jack Dempsey for the heavyweight title at Tia Juana, Mexico, during 1926.

James Douglas, a movie man, made this announcement solemnly, when he arrived here from Buenos Aires. He said Firpo was in fine condition, and should arrive here this month.

And the echoes—all the way from Los Angeles—answers ha, ha!

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS. NEW YORK, Dec. 31. — The joint conference between representatives of the anthracite miners and operators was adjourned until Tuesday.

The efforts to settle the strike went on without let-up Thursday with unusual secrecy attending the developments behind conference doors.

Adjournment was taken at 9:35 p. m.

TO PACK SCANDIA HALL AT 8.30 P. M.

Frank Farmer and Willie Keeler have something to shoot at when they tear into each other at Scandia hall this evening.

Matchmaker Johnnie Sylvester has promised to match the winner against Nig Yeager, Tiny Herman or Chub Crawford on the next card, providing any of these three heavyweights can be procured, and at least two of them have agreed to come here.

So with a top-notch battle like that as their goal, both Keeler and Farmer can be depended upon to throw everything they've got at each other, with the chances that one or the other of them will drop before their 10 rounds are up.

Reports from the various cigar stores indicate a better advance sale than usual, so those who want the best seats for tonight's fight should get busy and make their choice, as it looks at this writing like the house will be sold out long before the first preliminary starts at 8:30.

Both Farmer and Keeler wound up their hard training yesterday afternoon, and their sparring partners heaved sighs of relief. The way these two big heavyweights have been battering their sparring partners around has been terrible—for the other boys—and if they slam into each other the same way it's going to be a great battle while it lasts.

The Mallia country will be well night deserted tonight, because most of its population will be at the ring-side watching "One Round" Hogan swap punches with Jim Fleming in the six-round semi-final. Here's a battle between a couple of local boys that is drawing almost as much notice as the main event, and those who have seen the boys working out are predicting the fight will not go more than three rounds. Although Hogan seems to rule a slight favorite, Fleming is not without his supporters, which is just as it should be.

Hurrell Short's ambitious son, "Kid," will lace on the gloves for his first appearance in the ring, when he faces Buck Weaver in a four-round special event that promises to churn the air with flying gloves and falling bodies. Carl Floyd and Kid Sullivan will open the show promptly at 8:30.

The advance sale of tickets is reported the best in the history of the fight game here.

SINGLE MEN SCORE. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31. — Single men in California live longer than married men, according to statistics of the state department of health announced Thursday.

Prohibition is responsible for this unusual condition, the department declared, stating that formerly the amount of drinking done by single men made their death rate higher than that of the benedicts.

No mention was made of the effect of the married state on longevity.

JAPANESE FRIENDLY. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31. — Friendly relation exists between the United States and Japan, Dr. K. Ikeda, honorary professor of the Tokyo Imperial university, declared upon his arrival here from the Orient today.

Dr. Ikeda, who is accompanied by his daughter and a group of scientists and business men, has come to the United States to do chemical research work in eastern universities.

He represents the Imperial Academy of Sciences in Japan.

Prosperity to You and Yours in 1926

Greetings of Appreciation:—

The Golden Rule Corporation stores of Klamath Falls and Chiloquin express to you their thanks in an appreciation of your silent confidence in the policy of the company, its methods of business, its earnest endeavor to satisfy through the efficiency of conscientious salespeople, in merchandise which gives the ultimate in value for the quality reflected at the price.

This silent expression of your confidence is reflected in the records of the Klamath Falls store alone, showing the 1925 volume of business the largest in the store's history. In addition, the volume of business done by the Chiloquin store, in its first five months, has been larger than reasonably expected.

In all of this we are humbly thankful that our services, our merchandise, our efforts to be of community and individual usefulness, have been appreciated. We trust that our sincerest efforts to the future will merit an additional increase in public confidence as may be recorded collectively by each of you as individual friends.

Prosperity we wish to you and yours in this New Year; that prosperity may be a reward for just services to yourself, your neighbor, your family; that your prosperity may be shared jointly in the future of a better, brighter, more vigorous Klamath Falls; for a county of greater productivity, more and finer modern homes, larger and wider development of educational facilities; in all a co-laboring community offering greater opportunity for happy children, of bigger and broader men and women, healthier and more intelligent citizens, each sharing and enjoying the rewards of work well done, with aims and ambitions achieved in peace, usefulness and unselfishness.

GOLDEN RULE CORPORATION

E. W. VANNICE, President.
