

EARL OF CRAVEN IS SOCIAL LION

Canadian 400 Is Ready to Fete Countess Vera Also, If There

OTTAWA, One, Feb. 17.—(United News)—Canadian society is ready to fete the Earl of Craven, whose moral lapses rendered him undesirable in the United States and if Vera, Countess of Cathcart, could have escaped from Ellis Island to visit Canada the dominion "400" was ready to fete her, too.

Craven arrived in the capital Wednesday, proudly answered to the nickname "Pluffy," which he acquired while serving with a Canadian outfit during the war, and answered that the United States probably would have to get along without him henceforth. His lordship still feels that the United States government played him a mean trick, although he is not sager to talk about it as he was when he first arrived in Canada after flight from a department of labor warrant for his arrest. He is "decidedly fed up with the entire proceedings."

Until Friday Craven will remain in Ottawa and then will go to Montreal to meet Ledy Craven. They will return to Bermuda from Halifax.

Commission Will Stage Next Bout

The Klamath Falls boxing commission intends to stage a boxing show on its own account, and promises a card that should be a real fight card, on March 2d.

In an endeavor to put together an evening's entertainment of ring stuff that will take away the somewhat stale taste of the recent Gorman-Dotson fiasco, the commission has succeeded in persuading Kid Starkey to leave his business in Chico long enough to come up and step ten rounds with Benny Dotson on the evening of March 2.

Starkey's past performances here have been so satisfactory that the commission wisely decided that no other opponent for Dotson would be considered. The memory still lingers of Starkey's two battles here with Johnny Trambitas, and his engagement with Mike De Pinto.

Dotson showed, in the few minutes that Gorman allowed him to work a couple of weeks ago, that he has everything needed to furnish a fast and clever mill.

The rest of the card will be fully as attractive as the ten-round main event.

EDWARDS WINS.

Checking Up On Street Numbers

This morning Martin Peterson, with the consent of the city council will cover as much of the city as possible, to correct and check up on the numbers on the structures according to location.

For the past three months Peterson has been working on prints correcting the numbering of streets in Klamath Falls and during the first part of the week completed the numbering of the platted sections of the city.

The numbering of the homes and buildings carries out the recent action taken by the council of changing the names of streets in Klamath Falls, in which some 29 changes were made.

Last Basketball Contest on Friday

The Klamath Falls high school basketball team will play their final game of the season Friday, February 19 at 7:45 p. m., when they meet Merrill on the Henley floor, according to an announcement made yesterday.

The game will decide the championship of the 1925 basketball season in Klamath county.

Following the game, to be held in the newly completed gymnasium, a dance and chicken supper will be sponsored by the Parent Teacher association of the Henley district.

Flapper's Rights Stumps Jurymen

MASON, Mich., Feb. 17.—(United News)—Progress in the retrial of Arthur C. Rich, Battle Creek youth, on charges of assaulting Louise King, a co-ed, marked time Wednesday as defense attorneys continued to challenge jurors, who are to decide a modern girl's rights on a petting party.

Defense counsel has used only ten of its thirty peremptory challenges and it was predicted that an acceptable jury could not be selected before Thursday night.

Questioning of veniremen centered around alleged efforts to spread propaganda among the prospective jurors against Rich.

It was announced by Sheriff George Colby that Miss King had arrived at Battle Creek from her home in Washington, Pa., and will remain with friends until needed for testimony at the trial here.

The defense will contend Miss King has no ground for complaint against Rich as her ultra-modern ways gave him reason to believe she was immoral.

State attorneys will attempt to prove that even the girl, who pets, drinks, smokes and rolls her hose at the knee has a right to expect chivalrous treatment from her escort.

IMPROVES MANLY CARRIAGE

LONDON, Feb. 17.—(United News)—The prince of Wales is receiving congratulations instead of condolences on his most recent fall from his horse, in which his left collar bone was broken.

It has been found that the new break evens up a sag in Wales' right shoulder caused when his other collar bone was snapped in a fall a couple of years ago.

Today's snowstorm will keep you cool next summer

The sands of people will keep cool in the valleys next August with the help of today's snowfall in the mountains.

Electricity will bring them fresh breezes from melted snow in the mountain streams. A tiny motor will pour coolness and comfort out of an electric fan.

And how much will this modern miracle cost?

The work of giant power-houses—the use of hundreds of miles of copper wires—service day or night at the touch of a button—all this costs less than half a cent an hour as the price of current for your electric fan.

In the meantime, the electric lamp which makes it possible for you to read the evening paper as comfortably as by daylight will burn an hour longer for another half a penny.

Electricity is the cheapest service you can buy.
