Troops to Protect Alleged Murderers

GULFPORT, Miss., Feb. 20.—(United Press)—A company of the Gulfport troops of the state militia has been ordered to mobilize and embark for Pica-yune, Miss., where Harold Jackson and Jesse Farze are held charged with the murder of J. E. McLemore and William M. Minges, two government employes found shot to death near the Louisiana-Mississippi state line early Friday.

The order for the mobilization and movement of the militia company is said to have come from Governor Whitfield at Jackson. While no reports of threatened violence or mob action at Pica-yune have reached here, state authorities are thought to have decided on the troops mobilizing to forestall any possibility of any such an outbreak.

U. of C. Defeats Stanford in Tight Game; Face Title Contest

OAKLAND, Calif., Feb. 20.—(United Press)—The University of California basketball team made it two in a row here tonight against the Cardinal five from Stanford, winning 24 to 16 and gaining the right to meet Oregon for conference honors.

The Blue and Gold triumph was more slenderly gained than the score indicated. The Cardinal resistance was stubborn throughout both halves with some beautiful shots from center court that kept the score almost a stand off until the last minutes of play.

Team work won for California, with clever passes that brought the ball beneath the Cardinal basket. Only a few Stanford scores were made at close range.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR

Colds, which are especially seasonal of the year, yield very readily to CHIROPRACTIC treatment. It is exceptional for results to be obtained two or three adjustments.

Should the condition be chronic treatment will in practically every case give permanent relief.

DON'T NEGLECT A COLD. Illness has started as a slight cold may be the means of several weeks sickness.

No Charge For Examination

Do not hesitate to call for a free examination. I find that yours is not an ailment that will respond to CHIROPRACTIC. I will readily agree there will be no obligation on your part. An examination will be made with the aid of a Neurometer, the new scientific instrument which locates with unerring accuracy the organic trouble.
