RULES GIVEN FOR CARE OF COMPLEXION

No soap and water should touch a woman's face if she desires to maintain a good complexion, Fannie Ward, 43-year-old beauty, who looks much younger, told a meeting of 300 society women here Thursday.

Cold cream and oils should be used exclusively, she said.

Alexander P. Moore, former ambassador to Spain, husband of the late Lillian Russell, introduced Miss Ward.

RETURNS FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Laura Chamberlin, mother of Mrs. C. H. Underwood, returned Friday evening from Southern California, where she had been visiting with friends and relatives for the past three months. She visited in Santa Ana, Los Angeles, San Francisco and other California cities.

MISS TOOMBS IS SUNDAY BRIDE

Miss Elsie Mae Toombs, daughter of Mrs. Hattie Toombs, became the bride of Leone Tiffany Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock with Rev. A. L. Rice reading the ring ceremony. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, 1415 Crescent avenue.

Miss Toombs wore a frock of pale rose with bands of dove gray. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. Miss Toombs was attended by Miss Aileen Mordoff.

Freeland Staley attended the groom.

Dolores Toombs, frocked in pink crepe, made a charming flower girl. She carried a basket of sweet peas.

Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany are at home to their many friends at 305 Pine street.

A wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Toombs, assisted by Mrs. A. G. Pearson with covers laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Dick Toombs, Mrs. A. G. Pearson, Miss Aileen Mordoff, Miss Perne Hanks, Miss Miriam Wortley, Miss Mary Russell, Paeland Staley, Alfred Robin and Mr. and Mrs. Tiffany.

Outfield Job Awaits George Uhle If He Fails to Comeback on Mound

Cleveland, which has had great success in making useful outfielders of useless pitchers, is figuring on trying George Uhle in an outfield post if the big righthander fails to come through on the mound. Since 1923, when he won 26 and lost 16, he hasn't been much use to the Indians. He wields a big stick, and Speaker may send him out to perform alongside Charlie Jamieson, another former pitcher, in the same garden where Joe Wood, old slab star, performed so long and credibly.

Chiropractic for Stomach Trouble

Few persons suffering from stomach trouble realize that the source of their complaint may be in their spine, yet a very great number of organic disorders may be traced to an impinged, or pinched nerve in the spinal column.

This impingement is the result of the slight dislocation of one or more vertebrae, and in most instances can be corrected in a remarkably short time through a few painless chiropractic adjustments.

Free Examination

If you are suffering from any ailment, call at once for a free examination. If I find that I cannot help you, I shall gladly tell you and there will be no charge whatever. My examination is made with the aid of the PATHO-NEUROMETER, a new scientific instrument, which with unflinching accuracy will trace your trouble to its origin.

Do not hesitate to avail yourself of this service.
