Why We Prosper

Because our prices are maintained as long as our stock lasts and we have one of the largest stocks of groceries in Klamath Falls. How about our prices compared with other stores, you ask? We suggest you compare our prices that are maintained every day in month with those of any other store. Then in addition we deliver them free if order amounts to $1.00 or more. We operate our own delivery hourly. Pay our delivery man at your home and save.

Mrs. Ida Hamilton, 234 No. 3rd street received the $5.00 in merchandise free this week. Seven more weeks we will give $5.00 in merchandise free. Come in and ask us about it.

BROOKLYN TEAM WALK

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 11—(United News)—With a shaky infield that is not yet completed and an uncertain outfield, the chances of the Brooklyn Robins in the coming national league pennant race do not appear to be very bright.

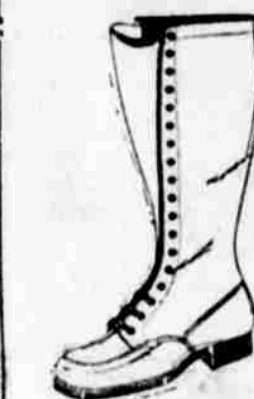

The club which fell last season from a pennant contending position to the second division, will have to depend largely on one of the good pitching staffs which Wilbert Robinson usually manages to pick out of the air.
