

FOES OF LEAGUE ATTACK BITTERLY

national bellah," Reed told the senate. "If this country ever needs a Patrick Henry and a fagot from the altar of the revolution it is at this hour. The League of Nations is a villainous conspiracy against the liberty of the world.

Names Dictator.

"The league provides sanctions. Sanctions are the diplomatic name for war, for fire and sword, for famine and plague, for the atrocities of bursting shells and poisonous gases.

"Look at these members of the league. There is this dictator in Italy, who attacks people for their religion. So many Italians want to come to this country that it would take 20 years to assimilate them. Great Britain kindly offered to police the seas for the world. France stands by holding in her hand the hat of the mendicant, and back of her is the largest standing army in the world. Japan grips in a clutch of steel vast portions of China and territory formerly belonging to Russia. She owns islands that may be a menace to the United States at any moment.

"All of the nations thus armed to the teeth are members of the league and most of them are represented on the court."

Miss Eleanor Goss is alternate.

33 Chinese Die In Student Riot

protocol signed with the powers in 1901.

Students Remonstrated.

Following the yielding by China to the demands of the ultimatum the student demonstrations have taken on more intense form.

The students maintain that the ultimatum interfered with a domestic crisis in China and went beyond the rights of the foreign governments. The present outbreak, while not yet an outspoken demonstration against all foreigners, is admittedly a formidable protection against the action of the foreign governments.

In some cases the protesting students have gone so far as to demand the recall of all foreign envoys, stationed in Peking. The Chinese envoys, fearing looting or worse, have stationed guards outside the homes of many prominent Americans and British. Division of opinion among leading Americans and Britons have caused many clashes on the subject of the ultimatum.

American missionaries living in Peking have pointed out to American Minister John V. A. McMurray that the United States cast aside its traditional policy of friendship toward China by joining in the ultimatum.

SUPPORT RAND FOR U. S. COURT

Associate Judges Ask Ore. Senators to Support Judge Rand

WASHINGTON, March 19.—(United News)—Associates of Judge John Z. Rand of the Oregon supreme court, in a telegram to Senator McNary, have asked the Oregon senators to place Judge Rand's name before the president for appointment to the United States court of appeals to fill the vacancy, caused by the rejection of Wallace McCamant.

Senator McNary today wired reply that upon the president's return to Washington he will deliver the message personally, but that in discussing the matter with President Coolidge he received the impression that McCamant's successor will come from California. This confirms prediction in previous dispatches that Judge James of Los Angeles will be offered the appointment.

Judge Rand represented Judge McCamant before the credentials committee at the Republican convention in 1920 when Sanfield McDonald was contesting the right of McCamant to sit as a delegate.
