GEORGE MORDOFF DIES AT MEDFORD

Word was received here early yesterday morning of the death of George Mordoff, aged father of Myron G. Mordoff, of Medford and Wolff Co., of Klamath Falls, in Medford Saturday at 1 a. m. Details as to the cause of death are lacking, it was believed to be due to an attack of heart failure.

Mordoff left immediately to be with his mother in Medford, who, with two sons and three daughters, survives her husband.

George Mordoff was one of the old western pioneers. Born and reared until a young man in Chicago. Mr. Mordoff saw the first train leave for the west from the Chicago yards. He was born there, January 29, 1859.

Funeral services for Mr. Mordoff will not be conducted until later in the week or until the arrival of his children.

DEMANDS EXPENSES

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 27—(United Press)—Magnus Johnson, former United States Senator from Minnesota was unanimously endorsed as a candidate for governor by the state farm-labor association tonight.

Two ballots gave the former senator a large enough margin that delegates started a stampede and the endorsement went over unanimously with a shout.

Johnson tied a string to his endorsement.

"I will not run, unless my election expenses are guaranteed," he announced in response to cries of "Speech!"

Durant Motor Co. Official Is Here

H. J. Faneuf, factory representative of the Durant Motor company, of Oakland, arrived in Klamath Falls yesterday on a business trip in connection with the company. He is working with M. W. Hamaker and reports conditions all along the Pacific coast to be in excellent shape.

According to Faneuf, there will be late delivery on all Star cars. This doesn't mean that the cars are unavailable, but shows the great demand which can not speedily be supplied.

"There is a greater demand for the Star cars than ever before," stated Faneuf yesterday, and Mr. Hamaker of Klamath Falls is to be complimented upon his wonderful sales record.

PASS IS OPENED

WALLA WALLA, Wash., March 27—(United Press)—Snoqualmie Pass will be opened to autos Sunday, J. W. Hamilton, district highway engineer, announced tonight.

Barriers will be removed Sunday morning and cars may traverse the nine miles of snow if care is exercised, he said. Work on the highway will continue so that it will be in first class condition by April 1st. Hamilton visited the summit last evening and found conditions right to let down the barriers, the earliest in the history of the Sunset highway.

INDICTED FOR MURDER

HARLAN, Ky., March 27—(United Press)—Indictments charging that he had murdered the foster parents of his wife and one other woman, were returned tonight against Haaka Doekoy, 20, of Ocala, Va.

The murder was committed Friday night at Loyall, near here.

arrived in the city from a severe illness. It is possible that both Mr. and Mrs. West may return with Collier to Klamath Falls on the return trip Monday or Tuesday.

Tunney Is Ready to Meet Stribling

NEW YORK, March 27—(United Press)—Gene Tunney and Bill Stribling, heroes of the fight that did not happen in Miami recently, will meet here in the Yankee stadium on July 8, according to the plans of Tex Rickard.

Billy Gibson, manager of Tunney, has accepted the terms and the date and Pa Stribling, manager of his son, will give a definite answer after they complete a barnstorming tour of three weeks.

Stribling's challenge, directed at Paul Berlenbach, for a world's light heavyweight championship match, was rejected by the New York boxing commission for the reason that Jack Delaney is the recognized challenger.

TRAIN KILLS SIX

OWOSSO, Mich., March 27—(United Press)—Six persons were instantly killed at Corunna, 12 miles east of here today when a through passenger train crashed into their automobile at a grade crossing.

Five of the victims were members of the J. L. Smith family of Bancroft, near here. The sixth was Florence Hemlinway, 11, a friend.

All were dead when picked up after the train was brought to a stop. The automobile, a sedan, was wrecked.

WET-DRY DEBATE IS BROADCASTED

Many gangsters and thugs have been put behind the bars who had been immune while brewery politicians ruled our cities."

He said the wets who wanted prohibition repealed were not disinterested inasmuch as they were brewers, alcoholic addicts, distillers, bartenders and others of that ilk.

"The overwhelming majority of the American people are sober, not drunken. They backed the fight to put the prohibition amendment in the legislature and they backed the fight to endorse it."

With a final fling—and looking at Harbo—Whipple said:

"There are not enough society women puffs, political crafters, social morons and personal liberty parasites to make prohibition fail."
