

SOCIETY

OLD CAMPFIRES
Moonbeams golden on the hills,
wind-tossed pine trees bending,
Dusky lies the meadowland, gray
the grassy glade,
Fragrance of the forest blooms
with campfire odors blending;
Here the gray ghost of a fire that other hands have made.

I sit idly pondering, 'mid lights and shadows dancing,
Wondering whose—the foot that trod beside the narrow stream,
Dreaming of another's eyes across the canyon glancing,
Where a wild cry echoes and two fire points gleam.

On these pine boughs crushed and brown did someone lie asleeping
With a smile upon his lips, till the sun was high?
Or did one wrapped in solitude, his lonely vigil keeping,
Droop upon his mission while the night crept by?

I would I knew what brought him
here beside the rapids leaping?
Did one whom he loved request the weary trail he take,
Or did he feel the wanderlust
across his heart strings sweeping?
Perhaps he sought "God's country"
for his bruised soul's sake.

Thus I sit and weave my dreams beside the darkened river,
There's romance in gray ashes and charred circles in the grass, Friendly faces smile at me where dog-wood blossoms quiver,
Songs of carefree dorelllets ring
down the mountain pass.

The first ray of tomorrow's sun will find me onward plodding,
My cheerful little forest friend will cold and lifeless be,
Mayhap another roving one above
his campfire nodding,
Will gaze into the canyon's gloom
and weave his dreams of me.

—Marie Eldridge Hinear, Arvin, Calif.

BLOSSOM DAY IN SALEM CELEBRATED

One of the most beautiful customs of the Willamette Valley has recently been celebrated with the observance of Blossom Day. On Sunday, March 28, residents of Salem and the Salem district in Marion county, revelled by the thousands in the valley's beauty. A steady stream of autoes led into Salem and out of Salem into the valley, where the balmy weather showed to excellent advantage the blossom laden trees that line the highways and byways.

According to Salem residents, blossoms were out in such profusion as seldom seen in this vicinity. Over the routes marked by the placards put up by the Chertians, the tourists saw the hillsides blanketed in white and trimmed in pink. Klamath Falls and Klamath county is so situated as to make a "Blossom Day" impossible. But, fostered by the chamber of commerce, trees have been planted along the avenues and streets in the city that will lend a similar charm that the trees that lined the Salem highways. When the trees bear foliage, and several of the species are the blossoming type, the city will put on that indescribable appearance that makes it a city of homes, of trees and of beauty.

Do not let those trees die. Keep them well watered and if possible use hay or some other moisture-retaining grass that will give the plants the beauty that they will gain only from care and cultivation.

EASTER NEGLIGEE QUITE IMPORTANT

It isn't only the new Easter hat and gown, but also the Easter negligee, according to the fashion experts.

Negligees now being shown are being developed in the more diaphanous materials, and later shades. Soft, crepe backed satin is one of the most widely used materials. It needs very little trimming, often having merely a contrasting velvet bow tying on one hip.

One combination is a Copenhagen blue robe, tying with deep peach. The robe with two flounces from the knee is popular, both in satin and the soft changeable taffeta silk. The orchid shades predominate in taffeta.

Pastel shades are widely used. Pale coral georgette is used for the loosely sleeved upper portion of a negligee, and reaches half way to the knees, where it is slightly taken in, giving a blouse effect. A deep ruffle of ecru lace, matching the collar and cuffs forms the skirt. Looped satin ribbons in several shades of coral, falling from a nosegay of pastel flowers cover the fastening on the hip.

Rosemarie, Lilac, nude, blutte, seaspay, appear in hosiery worn with negligees.

According to the fashion dictates the stockings are more important accessories to the negligee than to any other costume as both heel and top may be seen on occasion. For this reason every detail of the stocking must be chosen with extreme care so as to enhance rather than detract from the beauty of the ensemble.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER ON TUESDAY EVENING

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder entertained informally at dinner for a number of friends. Preceding dinner tennis was enjoyed on the Snyder court. Cards and music followed the dinner hour.

Covers were laid around a centerpiece of yellow daffodils for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder.

ENTERTAIN AT BRIDGE AT MCCONNELL HOME

The home of Mrs. Avis McConnell, 539 Conger avenue, was the scene of an attractive party when Miss Virginia West and Miss Aubra Bradbury entertained at bridge.

Guests included Mrs. E. G. Wiscarver, Mrs. Russell Austin, Mrs. George Myers, Mrs. Orin Dadman, Mrs. Levant Pease, Mrs. Avis McConnell, Miss Grace Farrand of San Leandro, Calif., Miss Loretta Jennings, Miss Jean Perry, Miss LeLaine West, Miss Vera Skelton and the hostesses, Miss Virginia West and Miss Aubra Bradbury.

TEACHERS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL HONORED

Mrs. Lee Parker honored the members of the teaching staff of the Baptist Sunday school on Thursday evening at her home in Mills addition. Rooms of the Parker residence were attractively adorned with daffodils. The centerpiece of the luncheon table was a deep blue glass basket in which the yellow daffodils were arranged.

Guests of the evening included Mrs. Henry Grimes, Mrs. Laura Chamberlain, Mrs. F. W. Abley, Mrs. Gilman, Miss Lucille Larkey, Everett Vanderpool, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ritchie, Mr. Herman Foster and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker.

MISS BIEHN VISITING HERE

Miss Pearl Biehn, with her father, George Biehn, is visiting in Klamath Falls for several days from her home in Portland. Miss Biehn is spending the Easter holidays with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, and with Miss Frances Humphrey.

DRAMA CLASS TO MEET APRIL SIXTH

The drama section of the American Association of University Women will meet on April sixth at the home of Mrs. Avis McConnell, 539 Conger avenue, according to announcement during the past week. The meeting has been postponed since Thursday. A number of interesting papers and readings will be given.

MRS. RUONICH IS HONORED THIS WEEK

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the past week was given at the H. M. Allender home when Mrs. Harry Loucks and Mrs. Allender honored Mrs. W. Ruonich, the occasion being the latter's birthday.

Following an informal afternoon a dainty two-course luncheon was served to the guests. Those who called during the afternoon to honor Mrs. Ruonich included Mrs. W. D. Cofer, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mrs. O. D. Matthews, Mrs. Pete Burgoine, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. H. Phillips, Mrs. H. E. Cornell, the honor guest, Mrs. Allender and Mrs. Harry Loucks and Mrs. H. M. Allender, the hostesses.

SUNCHABO GROUP ENJOYS AFTERNOON

A part of the Sunchabo campfire group enjoyed an afternoon of tennis on Monday, others fond of swimming holding a swim at the natatorium.

Those to play tennis met at the home of Miss Lydia von Berthelsdorf on Pacific terrace. In the group were Ethel Carlson, Elvira Call, Thelma Grizzle, Etta Mathers and Lydia von Berthelsdorf. They were coached by Rev. Arthur Rice.

Others who enjoyed the swim included Winifred May, Muriel Moore, Ella Redkey, Margaret Cummings, Anna Setzer, Jennie Grover and Alisa Massey. Miss Aubra Bradbury, assistant guardian, coached the girls in swimming. The next meeting of the group will be held on Tuesday after school hours, and all girls will meet at the tank for a swim.

MISS HUMPHREY IS HOSTESS AT BREAKFAST

This morning one of the prettiest of spring customs will be observed at the George Humphrey home on Pine street, when Miss Pearl Biehn of Portland is honored with an Easter breakfast by Miss Frances Humphrey.

Spring flowers and Easter lilies will decorate the home. Covers will be laid for nine intimate friends of the honor guest and hostess.

MISS HARRAND VISITING HERE

Miss Grace Farrand, formerly a teacher in Klamath Falls schools, is spending the Easter holidays in the city as the guest of Miss Loretta Jennings and Miss Clara Calkins.

Miss Farrand is now teaching in San Leandro, California, and her brief visit here is enjoyed by her many friends.

Oriental Motif Sports Favorite

The oriental motif is featured in this American-designed sports costume for the south. It consists of a mandarin coat of printed velvet brocade with velvet border and crepe accoridian pleated skirt.

PALM BEACH PANORAMA LAST WORD FROM SOUTH

The Palm Beach spectrum is white, light and bright. White has transferred its chief attentions from daytime hours to the evening, when it dominates over a melee of pastel shades shot with red and black, which augment their numbers night by night.

By day, of course, white is still a factor, but it recedes somewhat before a flood of bold de rose colorings, yellows, blues, greens and other dusty or intense pastels. Newer than the monotone costume are those which combine two colors; red and yellow, pink and blue, white and some brilliant shade. Other highlights are many plaids, many dots, and a tendency to employ silver with sports clothes.

Beach costumes begin to exhibit a really astounding formality. Tucked taffeta, black satin, trimmed with gold leather, even velvet of gray or royal blue, seem to have strayed from ballroom to beach by the merest accident. Costume jewelry dotes the waves in the form of necklet, bracelet and earring. Less unexpected, though even more "startling" are modernistic prints on linen, silk and cotton. This last fabric is becoming fairly important among styles, both wet and dry. The beach ensemble now embraces parasol, gloves, bag and white straw hat, sometimes hand painted, sometimes fringed, sometimes bearing strange resemblance to the cape itself.

The cape has unquestionably arrived at Palm Beach. It ranges from elbow to knee length, it appears independently or as an adjunct. It divides its energies between daytime, beach and evening clothes, and considers not material beneath or above its notice. Sometimes, not satisfied with its achievements as wrap proper, it annexes itself to a frock, where it may adopt circular styling or hand as a straight panel of fabric, fringes or lace. Nor is the intrusion amiss, since the mode is invariably graceful.

The very broad brimmed Milan hat is all set for the season. Usually it beams in some bright or light shade, simply banded with velvet ribbon. At the same time, a few more elaborate large shapes satisfy the craving for hat consciousness. Soft quilted silks are seen for less formal wear. Small felts or velours in gigoilo and beret drappings maintain importance for sports, although belting ribbon and crocheted straws have severely shaken their monopoly.

OBSERVE THIRTEENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A number of intimate friends were hidden to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bell, 144 Montclair avenue on Tuesday evening, March 26, to celebrate with them their thirteenth wedding anniversary, the affair being a surprise.

The evening was spent in cards, music and dancing, and the guests brought with them a delicious luncheon.

Those who honored Mr. and Mrs. Bell included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Rhehart Mosenbacher, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Donart, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Northey, Mrs. Jack Evans, Harry Keen, Oscar Brennehan and Miss Estelle Bell.

TO ENTERTAIN FOR FRIENDS SUNDAY NIGHT

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brixner will entertain for a number of friends, honoring them with dinner. Tennis will precede the dinner hour on the Brixner court on Michigan avenue.

Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Brixner.

MRS. KENT HOSTESS AT LUNCHEON FRIDAY

The Glenn Kent residence on Pacific terrace was beautifully decorated with pink peach blossoms on Friday, when Mrs. Kent entertained with an informal luncheon for a group of friends.

Covers were laid for Mrs. H. F. Darrow, Miss Vera Houston, Mrs. Lloyd Rice and Mrs. Glenn Kent.

RETROTHAL TOLD OF DOROTHEA HAWKINS

During a surprise party given for Miss Dehlla Hawkins in honor of her birthday anniversary, the betrothal of Miss Dorothea Hawkins to Earl Mack was told, on Saturday evening.

Miss Hawkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hawkins, and a graduate of Klamath county high school. She attended the Oregon state Normal school in Monmouth for a year, and at present is teaching in the Spring Lake school.

Earl Mack is a graduate of Oregon Agricultural college and is affiliated with Tau Delta. He is now connected with his father on the Charles Mack ranch in Spring Lake district. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack are his parents.

The wedding will be an event of late spring or early summer, the date not yet having been set.

Guests who were present included the following: Mrs. A. Wakeman, the Misses Eva Jones, Edna Dunbar, Joy Miller, Eva Miller, LaVerne Thomas, Beatrice Pearson, Vera Offield, Bernadine Metcalf, Mildred Brown of Fort Klamath and the Misses Hawkins, and John Hawkins, Walter Brodland, Ralph Adamson,

Washable Silk Practical for School Frocks

A washable rough texture silk makes a pretty and practical school frock for the student. Open collar, accoridian pleating, braid and buttons constitute trimmings.

Ralph Jones, Roy Wakeman, Irving Keller, Forest Miller, Frank Moser, Beryl Blevens, Charles Mack, Earl Mack and Ben Hollister and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Hawkins.

O. A. C. GLEE CLUB ENJOYED BY MANY

The week was ushered in in a most interesting manner when on Monday evening, in the new Fremont school auditorium, the Oregon Agricultural college glee club, under the direction of Paul Petri was presented in a musical program. The house was filled to its greatest capacity and long before the men appeared on the stage there was but standing room only.

The glee club was assisted in its program by Fred McKeen, accoridian player, and the Midnight Sereaders.

Following is the program presented Monday night:

- O. A. C. Song, "Hail to O. A. C."
- The Sword of Ferrara.....Bullard
- The Glee Club
- Dream of Love.....Rogers
- Who.....Rogers
- The Mid-Night Sereaders
- Travesty on the Rigolette Quartette
- The O. A. C. Quartette
- Selections on the Piano Accoridian
- Ernest Beals
- Shadow March.....Protheroe
- But They Didn't.....Rogers
- The Glee Club
- Excentric Dance
- Fred McKeen
- Baritone: Solo
- Blair Stewart
- Keep a Goin'.....Jacobson
- The Clock.....Andrews
- The Glee Club
- Some More Selections on the Piano
- Accoridian.....Ernest Beals
- Where My Caravan Has Rested.....Lohr
- The Glee Club Quartette
- A Mighty Vulcan.....Cadman
- Aima Mater.....Cadman
- The Glee Club.

DANCE TO BE GIVEN BY ST. PAUL GUILD

The furnishing committee of St. Paul's Guild is planning an early spring dance, to be given on April 23, at Altamont hall. The most interesting feature of the evening will be the grand march led by Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Emmitt. Mrs. Emmitt will wear the frock in which she was married more than fifty years ago.

Old-fashioned dances and the new steps will be featured during the evening, so that old and young alike may enjoy the affair.

MRS. CASPER IS HOSTESS AT PARTY

One of the many pretty Easter parties of the week was enjoyed on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. George Casper, 225 Cross street, entertained for her Sunday school class of the Methodist church.

Easter motifs, decorations and favors carried out the spirit of the season and cut flowers and Easter features were included in the decorations on the tea table.

Mrs. Casper was assisted in serving luncheon by Mrs. J. A. Leech and Mrs. J. C. Richter, who poured, and Mrs. T. J. Webb and Mrs. N. W. Young.

Following is the guest list of the afternoon: Mesdames Ida Meredith, F. McDowell, Foster, C. W. Smith, M. Burchett, Gysbers, Donald Gysbers, J. Guthrie, C. Mater, L. E. Brock, Dapp, Mills, E. U. Hemmat, W. C. Comings, S. Martin, C.

LEAVE FOR THE SOUTH FOR FORTNIGHT'S TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, nee Johnston, left the latter part of the week for San Francisco and other southern cities by motor. They will enjoy a fortnight's trip visiting with friends in the south as well. The wedding of Miss Johnston and Mr. Steiger was an event of late February.

Southwell Stationery Co.
EVERYTHING FOR THE OFFICE
WE INSTALL BOOKKEEPING SYSTEMS
226 1/2 Main St. Phone 902

SOCIETY MAKING RESERVATIONS
The first important affair for society, following the Lenten season will be the dinner dance on Tuesday evening, April 6, in the dining room of the White Pelican hotel, for which a great many reservations have been made. In the list of reservations there are included (Continued on Page Five)

25¢
—is the right price to pay for a good tooth paste—
LISTERINE TOOTH PASTE
Large Tube
25¢

EASTER
Get Your Kodak Out
Bring your films to us
8-Hour Service
The Peasleys
Photographic Art
ENLARGING AND TINTING
Opposite Court House—327 Main Street
Phone 39.
Quality Photographs Picture Frames

EASTER CONCERT
at the
Methodist Church, Tenth and High Sts.
April 4, 1926, 7:30 P. M.
"Look Ye Saints, The Sight Is Glorious"—Congregation.
Prayer—Rev. T. D. Yarnes
Anthem—"Easter Dawn"—Marie M. Hine
Anthem—"He Lives Again"—Ira B. Wilson
Scripture.
Easter Cantata—"Alleluia"—R. M. Stultz
Instrumental Prelude
1.—Opening Chorus—"Hearts and Voices Heavenward Raise"
2.—Soprano Solo—"The First Day of the Week," Miss Esther Martinson.
3.—Chorus—"In Vain With Stone the Tomb They Barred."
4.—"The Empty Sepulchre," Baritone solo, F. W. Becktel; alto chorus; alto and soprano chorus; soprano solo, Esther Duvivan; chorus with soprano obbligato.
5.—"Jesus, Our Risen King," chorus; tenor solo, R. E. Patterson
6.—"Woman, Why Weepst Thou?" Soprano solo, Mrs. T. D. Yarnes; women's chorus; alto chorus; tenor solo, C. H. Barnstable; women's chorus.
7.—Chorus—"The Strife Is Over."
Offering
PART TWO
Instrumental Prelude
8.—"Peace Be Unto You," soprano solo, Mrs. T. D. Yarnes; chorus.
9.—Male Quartet—"Many Other Signs Did Jesus," Barnstable, Patterson, Becktel, Yarnes.
10.—"O Lamb of God," duet, Miss Martinson, R. E. Patterson; double mixed quartet.
11.—Closing chorus—"Alleluia!"
Benediction.

Beauty Culture That Excels
at the
White Pelican Beauty Shop
Phone 180 for Appointment.