

LOCALS

Merrill Visitor—Mrs. Harold Hendrickson of Merrill was in the city yesterday to shop and visit with friends.

From Malin—A. M. Thomas, a frequent business visitor in Klamath Falls, was seen in the city yesterday for a short time.

Leaves for South—Mrs. C. D. Barcelona left early yesterday morning by motor for San Francisco and other southern cities to spend a week or ten days visiting with friends.

Here on Business—Mrs. Jean Gilman of the Butterick Publishing company is in the city for several days making her headquarters in the Golden Rule store while in Klamath Falls.

Visit in Medford—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shepherd are included in the Klamath Falls visitors to spend the week-end in the valley, visiting with friends in Medford.

In for Week-End—A. E. Whitman spent the week-end in Klamath Falls from the Anna Creek Lumber company, where he has been for the past week looking into his lumber interests.

Baby Is Born—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quick are being congratulated over the arrival of an infant son born Sunday evening. Mrs. Quick will be remembered by many as Miss Thyra Bryant and the daughter of Mrs. Eva Boudoin.

Return From Portland—Ray Dunn of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, local manager, and Thomas B. Malarkey of the Herald editorial staff, returned late yesterday afternoon from Portland, where they spent the past week-end on business.

Music Appreciated—By far one of the most interesting programs of the year was that given by the music section of the Women's Library club when "Negro Music" was taken up yesterday afternoon in library club rooms. A paper on the music was read and Jack Whitney gave a series of negro songs.

Ganong Again Practicing—Wm. Ganong, formerly attorney on Coos Bay, who went to Klamath Falls following the war and acted as district attorney there, has again entered the law practice there after several years in army hospitals, according to word received here today. Ganong was in the office of C. F. McKnight when here. He left about five years ago. Coos Bay Times, Marshfield.

Returns to Home—After visiting for the past week-end with her daughter, Mrs. Docia Norris and son Leland Willis and wife, Mrs. J. Q. Willis returned to her home in Cottage Grove. While here her daughter honored her with a prettily appointed dinner. Mrs. Willis made the trip south with Mrs. D. L. Ijama who visited with her husband, who is cable splicer with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. They returned north Monday morning.

Return From Portland—Wayne Akers and Lot Beattie of the Gray Goose Sandwich shop have returned this week-end from Portland, where they have been for several days to purchase clever fixtures for their shop. The Gray Goose will open within a week, and friends of Akers and Beattie are anxious to patronize the place which promises to be one of the most interesting in the city. The Gray Goose will be located under Mo's store.

To Visit With Relatives—Captain O. C. Applegate is planning to leave this week for the valley, where he will visit with his sisters and a son. Captain Applegate will visit with his sister, Mrs. H. H. Sargent of Jacksonville, for a week. Mrs. Sargent is one of the old valley pioneers and well known in Klamath Falls. In Medford the captain plans to visit with another sister, Mrs. M. I. Alford and his son, Frank Applegate.

Correct Error—In a society item published in The Klamath News on Sunday morning an error was made when it was announced Miss Ruth Cofer, the daughter of F. H. Cofer and Roland Cofer, also the son of F. H. Cofer. Both Miss Cofer and her brother are children of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cofer and have prominent roles in the May festival to be sponsored this year by the Klamath county high school. Miss Cofer will be crowned Queen Ruth I. by her brother, Prime Minister Roland.

Returns From Bend—Dr. E. Dietrich has returned to Klamath Falls from Bend, where he has been for several days called to perform a major operation.

Condition Same—The condition of Peggy Myler Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson of Caledonia Marsh, remains the same, according to attending physicians.

Here on Business—Bert Adams, a frequent business visitor in Klamath Falls from his home in San Francisco, is here for a short time calling on friends.

Merrill Rancher In—S. P. Dehlinger, prominent rancher of the Merrill road, was in the city Saturday to shop and visit with business friends.

Merrill Rancher In—Charles Drew, prominent rancher of the Merrill district, is included in many out of town visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

Hildebrand Rancher In—Jess N. Drew, rancher of the Hildebrand country, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Monday to transact business affairs.

Eastern Star—The regular meeting of the Eastern Star, Aloha chapter, will be held in the Masonic hall tonight at 8 o'clock, according to announcement made yesterday by Mrs. W. G. Wortley, worthy matron.

Returns From North—Charles D. Garcelon of the Garcelon Electric company has returned from the north, where he spent three weeks visiting with his sister, Mrs. V. Richards of Tacoma.

Return From South—After a week spent in San Francisco looking into business matters, E. N. Bubbs, cashier of the American National Bank, has returned from the south and reported business conditions fine.

Guests at Empire—W. W. Claypool of Prineville and Fletcher V. Wood, also of Prineville are here for a short time to look into business conditions in Klamath Falls. While here they are guests in the Empire hotel.

Sunday in Klamath—Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Heindrich of Chiloquin spent Sunday in Klamath Falls visiting with their many friends and relatives. Heindrich is connected with the Klamath Supply company at Chiloquin.

Visiting With Blairs—Mr. and Mrs. G. Earl Smith of Grants Pass returned to their home yesterday after visiting for the past week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Blair of the Empire hotel. Smiths are former Klamath residents.

Leave for North—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stoner left early Sunday morning for Portland and Astoria for a fortnight's vacation. They will visit with their parents, who reside in Astoria, during their absence. Stoner has recently recovered from a major operation and anticipates that the rest will make him fit once more.

Visiting Here—Mrs. O. F. Blay visited for a short time in Klamath Falls from her home in Crescent before leaving immediately for Redding, called there by the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Sam Harrell. Mrs. Blay made the trip south from Crescent with Marion Barnes, who was in the northern section of the county in the interests of his office as deputy state game warden.

Mrs. Foster Hostess—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Foster entertained at dinner at 6 o'clock Sunday morning for a number of intimate friends. Covers were laid for the following: Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Foster, Mrs. Carmel Hartin and son Frederick, Mrs. Marion Barnes and Allison and Jimmy Barnes, Mrs. Goldie Miller and son Billie Dean Houston, Mrs. Flavia McDowell and Wilbur Kennett. Music completed the evening.

West Improving—The many friends of Merle West, former councilman of Klamath Falls, will be happy to know that he is rapidly recovering from his serious illness and attending physicians of St. Francis, where West has been receiving treatment for the past six months, report his condition most satisfactory. West will be able to be taken from the east in the near future, according to E. M. Bubbs, who visited with West while in San Francisco last week.

First Anniversary—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills were hosts on Sunday evening in honor of their first wedding anniversary.

Here from John Day—H. F. Pound and son are here from the John Day country to look into the business conditions of Klamath county.

At Harriman Lodge—Marion Barnes, deputy state game warden, spent Monday at Harriman lodge, where he transacted business in connection with his office.

In from Keno—Alice Maud Blaker was a business visitor and shopper in Klamath Falls yesterday from her home on the Keno road.

From Odell Lake—A well known visitor in Klamath Falls from the Odell lake country was visiting in Klamath during the past few days. He is George A. West, and a well known land holder of the Odell section.

Motor to Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abbey, Miss Helen Abbey, Miss Thelma Clow, Miss Grace Skinner and Mrs. Let Abbey drove to the valley Sunday and visited with friends in Ashland and Medford.

Charged with Speeding—Elbert Johnson was fined $15 and costs in the office of Judge Emmitt yesterday, charged with speeding on the highways. Wilber Nine and E. L. Kirk are scheduled to appear to answer similar charges.

Visit With Sister—Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hinkley of Malin motored to Klamath Falls Sunday to spend the day visiting with Mrs. Hinkley's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith and Thornton of Crescent avenue.

Editors Picnic—Mr. and Mrs. Fendel S. Walte of The Klamath News, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Raymond of The Evening Herald, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Darrow and Bill Walte motored to Spring creek Sunday and enjoyed a picnic and motor trip.

Week-End at Lake—One of the first of the summer colony to enjoy the week-end at Lake of the Woods were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and family. They have an attractive cabin at the popular resort, which has been opened but recently.

Returns from South—Mrs. A. J. Vore and son Joe have returned to Klamath Falls from San Francisco and Sisson. While in Sisson they visited with Mrs. Minnie Henry. Vore motored south Sunday and returned to Klamath Falls with his wife and son.

Motor to Chiloquin—Andrew Collier, president of the Klamath county chamber of commerce, Lynn P. Sabin, secretary, and R. E. Stinson, local photographer, spent Monday in the Chiloquin district taking pictures for use of the local chamber.

Visiting With Brother—Miss Eleanor Rodolph of Oakland, Calif., is in the city for the week visiting with her brother, Rollin Rodolph, who is here for several months with his auditing firm of San Francisco. Miss Rodolph was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. F. B. Rodolph.

Judge Orr Here—Judge John S. Orr of Reno, Nevada, is in Klamath Falls to transact business for several days and visiting with his many friends in the city. He is a brother of the late Marshall Orr of Bonanza, one of the most prominent of the old Klamath pioneers.

Drive Around Lake—One of the first parties this year to drive the entire distance around Klamath and Agency lakes included Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goldschar and son Robert, Mrs. Charles Stemwell and Louis Alt. According to Goldschar the worst part of the road is located within the city limits of Klamath Falls as you leave the city bordering the lake and property owned by the California-Oregon Power company. The party enjoyed their Sunday picnic lunch at Odeum.

Foreign Cars—The following foreign cars from California, Colorado and Montana, registered yesterday in the chamber of commerce Triple A booth: Frank Lamb, Sacramento; William Davall, Los Angeles; C. H. Hunziker, Colorado Springs; Eleanor Rodolph, Oakland; Mrs. Ed Olson, Paeble; Roy Gray, Los Angeles; Dexter Smothers, Sacramento; M. L. McGraw and D. H. Young, both of Porterville; Frank Buskey, Missoula, Montana; Lloyd Kranz, Sacramento; Joseph Black, Scotia, Calif.; W. E. Baker, Emeryville; Grant Spangenberg, Oroville; Robert Knight, Gardena; J. A. Stallings, Oakland; Charles L. Holmes, Stockton; E. F. Smith, Sacramento; H. A. Wood, Berkeley.

On Business—Included in the many out of town visitors in the city yesterday was John Hunsbitt, prominent rancher of the Merrill route.

From Algoma—Viola Harrington spent Monday afternoon in Klamath Falls from her home in Algoma, and was among the court house visitors yesterday.

Miss Jenkins Ill—Miss Inez Jenkins, who submitted to an operation for the removal of her tonsils during the past week, was unable to resume her duties in the First National bank yesterday, suffering from a relapse. She is still very weak, at the home of her parents on Lincoln street.

Returns to Desk—After an absence of the past two weeks, suffering from a severe attack of influenza which threatened to prove more serious, J. A. Gordon, president of the First National bank, returned yesterday morning to his desk. His many friends are glad to learn of his recovery.

Many Attend Meeting—Many women attended the meeting last night of business and professional women and heard a most interesting discussion of the book, "Intimate Life of Helen of Troy," given by Mrs. Maida Harwood. Those whose birthdays occurred in March and April were honor guests.

Sugarman Returns—After an absence of the past month, K. Sugarman and his son-in-law, Irving Joseph have returned to Klamath Falls. They spent some time in San Francisco and in San Diego, where their families have spent the winter. Mrs. Joseph and child returned north for the summer. While absent from the city O. M. Hector was in charge of Sugarman's.

Marriage License—E. C. Collins was issued a license to wed Mrs. Minnie M. Harris, from the office of the county clerk yesterday. Collins gave his age as 28 and his occupation as a lumberman. Mrs. Harris is well known in Marshfield, where she was employed on one of the Coos Bay papers. They were married at 5 o'clock by Rev. T. D. Yarnes, in the Methodist parsonage. C. S. Currin attended the couple.

SAMPLES NEVER CAME. NEW ORLEANS, April 12.—Sam Friedfeld, whose confidence game fooled a number of Minnesota salesmen, has been caught here and is on his way back to the northwest. Sam's game was to advertise for drummers and exact a $25 deposit for "samples," which never were delivered.

Service without a fault.

Try Lorenz Co first
6th Near Main

WOOD

BLOCK WOOD is coming faster and we are now delivering at once.

We can also make some deliveries to the country; none is being sold at the bin, however.

We are delivering Green Slab on the night shift.

Phone Us Your Orders.

Peyton & Co.

"Wood to Burn."

601 Main Phone 535

Big Wool Buyer Is Offering 30c

Klamath sheepmen are faced with the proposition of selling wool for 30 cents a pound or holding out until later in the season in hopes that the price will increase.

This was the word on the streets yesterday when it was found a representative of the J. Koshland company of Boston, one of the largest wool buying concerns in the United States had been authorized to buy all of Klamath's wool for 30 cents. The output this is virtually the same as it was last year, when sold for 40 cents.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Mildred Farnum, 26, died yesterday in a local hospital following an illness of the past week. She is survived by a young daughter.

Funeral arrangements are pending word from relatives who are thought to be in California. The remains are at Whitlock's funeral home.

THE SMOKE

SPORTSMEN'S SUPPLIES

April 15th is the Big Day

Let us help you get ready. Complete lines of camp equipment and fishing tackle.

Hobson's hand-made rods and flies. For the man who buys the best.

A. D. LAMBERT, Prop.

WRESTLING MATCH

Thursday, April 15

American Legion Hall

Joe Hackensmith

Boston, Mass.

Henry Burke

Klamath Falls

A good preliminary
Also a Battle Royal

General Admission $1.50

Ringside 2.00

Under Management

J. M. Glover, American Legion

Phone 1026-W

Painting

Paperhanging

Tinting

RAY PIERCE

Decorator

Contract or Day Work 924

Calif. Ave.

J. N. Bramhall

DEALER

Flour, Mill Feed, Hay and Grain, Grain Bags,
Burlap and Sack Twine

Wholesale and Retail Groceries

Storage and Transfer

Agent J. I. Case Threshing Machine Co.

Office and Warehouse

Phone 945

305 Spring St.

Win a Scholarship For Yourself

If you want to complete your schooling with a six months business course call at Glover's Jewelry Store for particulars.

We give a scholarship from our store each year.

Contest Opens, April 15

Closes, June 15

Glover's Jewelry Store
Near First National Bank