Mrs. Browning Now Gives Out $5 Tips

NEW YORK, April 1.—(United News)—Mrs. Edward West Browning had the time of her young life Wednesday, and at the end of the day was positively certain that she knew the value of money.

The former Frances "Peaches" Heenan motored grandly up to a Manhattan store, where six months ago she was only a $12 a week clerk. As policemen cleared a way for her through the crowd and salesgirls who had never known she worked with them, claimed recognition, the 15-year-old "Peaches" swept into the store's beauty parlor, spent $12.50 to have herself fixed up and gave the attendant a $5 tip.

The young bride of the "Cinderella man" was radiantly happy in her triumphal return, but Browning remained sulky and continued to evade newspaper men.
