MAYOR'S VETO

taken to prevent the exercising of the will of the people. His veto

One by one his reasons for the veto can be shown as utterly falaclous.

He says that a special election is to be held—at a date he does not mention-and that holding the election at this time is an unnec sary expense.

Really Saves

The fact is that the election on May 21, will save the people about $1700. Costs of printing the ordiincurred nance have already been to the extent of $800 and this expenditure would in part be wasted were the election postponed.

It was planned long before the two special initiatory measures, offered as excuses, for delaying a vote on the commissioner-manager form of government came to light, to nection with the primary for the press purpose of saving that $1700 of the taxpayer's money. And Mr.

Goddard knows it. Act Travesty

Then he writes as a second act to his travesty that he "is of the opinion that a special election called to adopt a new city charter should never be held on the date of a gen-eral election, when there is every opportunity for politicians and can-dates to cloud the issue with their various personalities as well as the various state and national issues." If this were not an insult to the intelligence of the electorate of Klamath Falls it would be rare burlesque. It has long been the ment will be printed on a simple special ballot, and not with the two special measures, of Mr. Goddard's at some time in the future.

Wants His Job And he writes: "I firmly believe the legal voters should have the opportunity to express themselves on the important questions outlined in the proposed city charter."

There is only one thing wrong ith this last. That is, Mr. Godwith this last, That is, Mr. God-dard does not believe what he says. His actions show it. He is fighting to retain himself in his $2000 a year job. And back of him are more insidious influences "who seek only their own welfare."

If this were not an insult to the intelligence of the electorate of Klamath Falls it would be rare burlesque. It has long been the practice to place as many issues on the regular election ballots as possible, rather than to call special elections—for no other reason than to cut down the heavy expense of election.

And if there were ever a time when Klamath Falls had an opportunity of the form of whether or not it wants a commission-manager form of government the primary ballot of May 21, gives it that opportunity. There is not another question to go on the ballot that could by any possible chance confuse the issue. Names of candidates for county, and the ballot that could by any possible chance confuse the issue. Names of candidates for county, at the and congress only will appear.

And the one question of a comment will be printed on a simple special ballot, and not with the two
