SYMPHONIC NIGHT

Mine is the haunting laughter of the night,
Swift hours bounding down a cataract of dreams,
A symphony of stars in veiled moonlight,
The silver tones of vision-laden streams,
Mine are the vibrant echoes of the dark,
The platitudes of sleepless, vague desire,
The lamentations of a soul whose stark
Defiant fingers pluck the strings of Passion's lyre.

The soothing harmonies of hope fulfilled,
A midnight chime of memories, the knell
Of bold illusion selflessness has killed—
These sonances within my being swell
Till grief is mesmerized. Then over all
Drift bugle notes of Love's loud clarion call!

Pendleton, Oregon.

JOY OF LIFE

"Let me live out my years in heat of blood!"
Yea, Lord, this is my only wish and plea:
That I may thrill with joyous ecstasy
At dawn awakening; that the morning skies
Shall fill my soul with ever new surprise;
That when a sunset incarnadines the west
Grant me the rushing beat of happiness;
That blooming apple trees on distant hill,
The gentle murmur of a wayside rill,
A fleecy cloud in azure summer skies
Or the deep wisdom in a baby's eyes
May stab my soul with joy as deep and pure
As voiced by any lark, piping on any moor.

This ask I, Lord, that when it comes to be
That these things stir no answering throb in me
Then, let me die—I would not linger on
When the bright ecstasy of life is gone.

—Eleanor E. Hansen.

MISSSES LINDLEY ARE HONORED MID-WEEK

Honoring Miss Josephine Lindley and Miss Katherine Lindley, popular-bridge elects whose weddings will be events of the early summer, Mrs. George A. Myers and Mrs. Robert G. Lindley entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Lindley.

Five tables of bridge were in play during the evening with high score going to Mrs. Herman Glewold and low to Miss Alleen Mordoff. Bridal handkerchiefs were the gifts to the honor guests.

A luncheon was served later in the evening with lovely favors and table decorations. The rooms of the Lindley home were attractively arranged in tulips and Oregon grape.

The following guests were bidden to the affair, the Misses Josephine Lindley, Katherine Lindley, Jean Perry, Lois Bynon, Frances Humphrey, Margaret Hargus, Aileen Mordoff, Grace Myers, Lelaine West, Virginia West, Elna Jensen, Fern Hanks, Gertrude Lindley and Mesdames Otto Nichols, Herman Glewold, Marvin Lucas, Robert Riggs, Lester Offield, J. Royal Shaw, Frank Howard, Wayne Akers, D. D. Van Fleet, Paul Dalton, John Houston, W. B. Johnston of Bedford, George C. Ulrich and George R. Lindley.

BISHOP IS HONORED AT FELLOWSHIP DINNER

In honor of Bishop and Mrs. William P. Remington of Pendleton, in the diocese of eastern Oregon, the members of St. Paul's Guild entertained at a fellowship dinner in the parish house Saturday evening at six o'clock.

Tables were beautifully decorated in lilacs, iris, tulips and pansies. Two courages were arranged at the table where the Bishop's party sat. Following dinner, a musical program was enjoyed with Mrs. Remington, a musician of note, appearing in several numbers.

Today confirmation will be given by Bishop Remington and it is for this reason, primarily, that the Bishop made the trip to Klamath Falls.

MRS. WILLITTS IS HOSTESS

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. L. F. Willitts entertained for members of the Auction Bridge club at her home on Klamath avenue at Fifth street.

Mrs. W. E. Lamm won high score for the afternoon.

LEAVES FOR SOUTH SATURDAY MORNING

Miss Katherine Lindley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Lindley, left yesterday morning for Richardson Springs, where she will spend two weeks in an effort to improve her health.

VISITING IN EUGENE THIS WEEK

Miss Alleen Mordoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron G. Mordoff, left early Friday morning for Eugene, where she will spend several days with her sister, Miss Mae Mordoff. Both the Misses Mordoff are members of Delta Zeta on the Oregon campus.

BUSINESS WOMEN ENJOY PICNIC

The first out-of-door affair sponsored by the members of the Klamath Falls Business and Professional Women's club, was enjoyed on Monday evening, when a group held a picnic supper and marshmallow roast on Upper Klamath lake.

In the party were Mrs. Jean Young, Mrs. Leda Parker, Mrs. Lena Dennis, Mrs. Lorene Peasley, Mrs. Polly Dixon, Mrs. Delpha Terrill, Mrs. Margaret Peck, Miss Frances Beatty, Miss Cordelia Cantrell, Miss Lucille Barclay, Miss Lois Bynon and Herbert Dennis.

The next meeting of the group will be held May 9th in the White Pelican hotel, when the May dinner will be enjoyed. Dr. G. S. Newsom, county health officer, will be speaker of the evening, and several musical numbers have been scheduled for that evening as well.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ENJOY "KID" PARTY

Members of the Royal Neighbors of Klamath Falls lodge enjoyed a "kid" party on Wednesday evening in I. O. O. F. hall. More than 65 members of the lodge and their friends were present, and the evening was one of the most enjoyable this season.

MEET SATURDAY TO STUDY HAYWOOD BROWN

A meeting of interest was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg on Pine street, when she entertained for members of the literary section of the American Association of University Women, Klamath Falls chapter.

The subject of Haywood Brown was discussed and the afternoon's program led by Mrs. Myrtle Helm.

CHILD IS BORN FRIDAY MORNING

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Lohrey, former residents of Spokane, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends in Klamath Falls over the arrival of a baby boy at the Klamath Valley hospital.

The son has been named Robert Harvey. The Lohrey family reside in the Mills Hall apartments.

MRS. HUNTER IS CHARMING HOSTESS

One of the prettiest parties of the season was that over which Mrs. F. Hill Hunter presided on Thursday afternoon at her lovely home on Pacific Terrace. Six tables of bridge were in play during the afternoon with tea served at 5 o'clock.

The rooms of the Hunter home were artistically arranged in the delicate shades of lilac, iris and the other fascinating pastels found in the spring flowers.

Assisting Mrs. Hunter about the rooms was Mrs. L. L. Truax, Mrs. A. F. Graham, Mrs. Harry Borgman, Miss Harriett Hunter and Miss Delphin Graham.

High score of the afternoon was awarded to Mrs. H. D. Newell, second high to Mrs. Leslie Rogers and consolation to Mrs. Wilbur Jones.

PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN BY ST. MARY'S SOCIETY

Members of St. Mary's Altar society will be hostesses on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. C. Lorenz with an interesting musical program during which time a joint gathering of Merrill, Fort Klamath and Klamath Falls women will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Roy Hickman is in charge of the musical program which promises to be most interesting. Many of the leading artists of Klamath Falls will participate in the event.

ISSUE INVITATIONS FOR BRIDGE EVENING

On Monday evening Mrs. W. L. Sanders will entertain for a large number of the younger set with a bridge party at her home on Ninth street. Six tables will be in play during the evening.

Mrs. J. L. Shirk, Mrs. Herman Foster and Miss Florence Hector will assist Mrs. Sanders during the evening in her duties as hostess.

MISS McMILLAN IS HONORED BY FRIENDS

One of the most interesting visitors in the city this spring is Miss Marie McMillan of San Francisco, former Klamath Falls resident, who is spending a fortnight in Klamath Falls as a guest of her many friends. A great many social affairs have been given in Miss McMillan's honor. She plans to return during the coming week.

MISS WESTFALL IS BRIDE OF MR. VERNON

At a prettily arranged wedding on Saturday evening, Miss Evelyn Westfall became the bride of Wallace Vernon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Veltch who attended them. The wedding ceremony was read by Rev. A. F. Simmons of the First Baptist church. Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Vernon will be at home to their many friends in Klamath Falls.

MISS McMILLAN HONORED AT BRIDGE PARTY

Complimenting Miss Marie McMillan of San Francisco, who is visiting in Klamath Falls, her former home, with many friends, Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt entertained on Thursday afternoon with a delightful bridge luncheon to which a number of Miss McMillan's most intimate friends were bidden. Following luncheon several tables of bridge were enjoyed in the sun room.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Abbott entertained on Tuesday evening with a beautifully appointed dinner party in Miss McMillan's honor at the Abbott home. Following dinner music was enjoyed.

On Monday afternoon a number of intimate friends of Miss McMillan are motoring to Modoc Point where they will be the guests of Mrs. W. B. Lamm during the afternoon.

Mrs. McMillan is the house guest of Mrs. Zumwalt this week and will remain in the city for the coming week. During that time a number of other social affairs are being planned in her honor.

ENTERTAIN FOR GIRLS OF 1925

In honor of the girls of the graduating class of 1925, Klamath county high school, Miss Mae Crystal and Miss Florence Hector entertained at the O. M. Hector home on Wednesday evening, April 25.

The affair was in the nature of a "kid" party, with the guests dressed in the little frocks of their childhood days. The luncheon table was cleverly arranged with animal crackers forming a circus in the center. Games, to find favors, balloons and candy, carried out the spirit of the party.

It is planned to have a series of reunions of the class of 1925, held at the homes of the girls. Those present on Wednesday evening were the Misses Kathryn Walton, Gertrude Monk, Geraldine Marr, Thelma Short, Leatha Simmons, Delphia Hawkins, Florence Hector, Alyse Hector, Claire Hector and Mae Crystal.

BOX SOCIAL GIVEN IN FORT KLAMATH

On Saturday evening of last week members of the Fort Klamath community enjoyed a box social in the school as a benefit to send nine students from Fort Klamath to the summer school session at Oregon Agricultural college. More than $127 was cleared from door receipts and the sale of the prettily decorated boxes.

The students who will attend O. A. C. this summer are interested in boys' and girls' club work and patrons of the school are anxious to have Fort Klamath well represented.

CHILD HEALTH DAY OBSERVED IN KLAMATH

May 1st, May Day, has come to be annually celebrated as Child Health Day. It is the particular day on which teachers, dentists, doctors and nurses endeavor to stimulate general interest in the public health to make each citizen feel his responsibility in the health of his community, hoping that the suggestions and enthusiasm of this day will continue throughout the year.

As early as the thirteenth century it was customary on the first of May, even kings and queens, to make trips to the fields to gather May flowers. Even then the question of health was emphasized, for the May king and May queen were required to embody the kindest hearts, brightest eyes, rosiest cheeks, whitest teeth and straightest bodies in the entire kingdom.

In Klamath Falls, Friday afternoon and all day Saturday was given over to the observance of Child Health Day. Throughout the preceding week health posters were made and a prize given to one child from every school for the most complete poster. Tags were also sold on the streets by the school children, all proceeds to go toward furthering health work in Klamath county.

HONOR MISS WEST SATURDAY EVENING

In honor of the birthday of Miss LeLaine West, Mrs. G. C. Ulrich and Miss Virginia West entertained for her on Saturday evening with a bridge and dancing party.

The Ulrich home on Conger avenue was attractively arranged with lovely spring flowers.

Dancing was enjoyed the early part of the evening followed by bridge. C. A. Henderson was awarded high score.

MISS HOETT IS BRIDE OF WEEK

A wedding of interest among the younger set is that of Miss Virginia Hoett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dawley, to John Schubert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert Sr., of Spring Lake, on Monday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Glewold attended the two.

Miss Hoett wore an attractive frock of Nine green, with a soft hat to correspond with her costume. Mr. and Mrs. Schubert will be at home to their many friends in Klamath Falls after June 1.
