CONGRESSMAN FINED FOR BEING INTOXICATED
 WASHINGTON, June 11.—Representative John J. Gorman, Illinois republican, was fined before a woman justice of the peace in a suburb of the capital Friday, and fined $10 on a charge either of being drunk and disorderly or for contempt of court.

PRESIDENT TO MOVE FOR INDEFINITE PERIOD
 WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Coolidge has been advised definitely that he and Mrs. Coolidge will have to move from the white house while the mansion is under repair. He looks upon it as a "painful operation."

Thaw Reunion Rumored Again As Both Deny Charges Against Son

Moved by the common impulse to protect the reputation of their son, Russell, Evelyn Nesbit and Harry K. Thaw have reached an amicable understanding and may be reunited. A report issued by a Chicago hotel that young Russell—said by the hotel to be 19 years old—had been giving lavish entertainment for his lady friends and neglecting to pay the bill so aroused the boys parents that public statements were immediately and jointly made. They deny the report utterly, saying that Russell has not been in Chicago recently, that he is but 15 years old and that he is a source of real comfort and aid to his mother. And, as for themselves, they indicate that the "hatchet is buried." Young Thaw is seen above; also his mother, Evelyn Nesbit, and Harry K. Thaw.
