

YANKEES WHIP BOSTONIANS IN SLUGGING MATCH

(By United News)
Murderers' row walloped five Boston pitchers for 23 runs in a double-header Friday afternoon, the Yankees winning both games, 12 to 4. Babe Ruth hit his twenty-fourth home run in the second game and Laverne made his tenth in the opener.

The Browns took some of the edge off the White Sox, by beating them 11 to 4, and putting them nine and a half games behind the Yanks.

Gaston, Faber and Thurston were hit freely, but Gaston managed to tighten up in the pinches. In the National league Cincinnati defeated the world's champion Pirates in the first game of a crucial series 9 to 5.

Pittsburgh pushed seven runs over the plate in the first two innings, but the Reds came back with a rush in the later innings, putting over the winning counter, in the ninth. This puts the Reds a game and a half ahead of Pittsburgh.

Jess Barnes bested his brother Virgil in the Giants-Robins encounter and Brooklyn won, 7 to 4. The defeat sent the McGraw band to sixth place and entrenched Brooklyn in fourth.

The Braves and Phillies fighting for the cellar position, ended a see-saw battle with the Phillies on the long end of an 8 to 7 score.

The Cleveland-Detroit game was called at the end of the second because of rain. The Indians were leading 2 to 1 at the time. Rain also halted the Cubs-Cards game.

STOLE PENNIES OF BLIND.

SAYS HE MADE CHANGE

BROOKLYN, June 25.—(United News)—Held in $1000 bail for stealing pennies from a blind news vendor's tin, William Copping declares he was just making change. The complainant was "Blind Bob" Schiffbauer, a former sailor, who lost his eyesight during a backfire of a gun on the Alabama during the war.

YALE CAPTURES FROM CRIMSON FOES OF OLD

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 25.—(United News)—Yale won the annual Harvard-Yale four-mile boat race on the Thames early Friday evening, leading the Crimson oarsmen at the finish by about a length and a half.

Yale led practically from the start, but the Harvard oarsmen clung tenaciously to the bow of the blue shell. After the three-quarter-mile mark had been passed, Harvard, by a desperate pull, brought its shell to within half a length of the rival crew.

But the Eli oarsmen raised their beat and, swinging in unison, shot their shell forward until open water showed between the boats.

Yale was a length and a half to the good as the shells shot past the finish mark. The oarsmen did not seem much fatigued by the strenuous grind and continued rowing to their respective boathouses.

When the French ambassador learned of the difficulties, rather than physical disability, that prevented Mlle. Lenglen from appearing, he is understood to have given Suzanne what is known as a severe "hailing out" for her alleged discourtesy to the queen.

The envoy told Mlle. Lenglen that after such behavior she had only herself to blame if her name were scratched from the list of those who are to be presented at court.

The French star arrived late at Wimbledon Friday in a gorgeous make-up, a gay red raincoat and a bright green sports coat and played out her singles match while the gallery sat silently looking on. She beat Mrs. G. R. Dewhurst, champion of Ceylon, 6-2, 6-2.

Suzanne Panned For Actions in Snubbing Queen

WIMBLEDON, England, June 25.—(United News)—Suzanne Lenglen, imperious queen of tennis, has discovered that the queen of England may after all have more royal prerogatives than herself. Even the French ambassador joined in impressing the point on Suzanne.

The French star's discovery of a sudden indisposition which prevented her from playing in a singles match Wednesday when Queen Mary had come to Wimbledon for the express purpose of watching Mlle. Lenglen perform now is attributed by authoritative sources to pique.

Suzanne, it now appears, not only had demanded that her singles match follow the doubles match on the program—instead of the reverse order planned by the committee—but had insisted that she play on the center court in front of the royal box, where Queen Mary could best look on and see her in both matches.

The tennis officials refused to listen and the trouble began.

When the French ambassador learned of the difficulties, rather than physical disability, that prevented Mlle. Lenglen from appearing, he is understood to have given Suzanne what is known as a severe "hailing out" for her alleged discourtesy to the queen.

The envoy told Mlle. Lenglen that after such behavior she had only herself to blame if her name were scratched from the list of those who are to be presented at court.

RUTH POUNDS OUT ANOTHER HOME RUN

BOSTON, June 25.—(United News)—Fans at Fenway park here Friday afternoon saw Babe Ruth knock his twenty-fourth home run of the season in the second game of the Yankees-Red Sox double-header. The Bambino is now only one run behind his record of 1921, when he had 25 homers to his credit on June 25.
