

PERSONALS

Frank Upp, assistant manager Woolworth's store in Medford, is expected to arrive in Klamath Falls to spend the Fourth of July holidays with his mother, Mrs. Frank Upp and family.

Joseph Jensen, county engineer, is leaving today for Nevada near the Battle Mountain district, where he will spend the remainder of the week looking into his mining interests here.

Miss Ruth M. Akers, who was graduated from the School of Music of the University of Oregon in 1925, has arrived in Klamath Falls to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Akers. Miss Akers spent the past week-end at music supervisor of the public schools in Wenatchee, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swingle of the Bly district were among the many out-of-town visitors in Klamath Falls Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt have spent the past week-end at their cabins at Lake o' the Woods. Many Klamath Falls residents as well as many from Medford and Ashland spent the past week-end at the pretty lake.

U. G. Hill and E. E. Miller, equipment men connected with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, are in Klamath Falls from Portland to install additional equipment at the local office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Goeller and Mrs. Karl G. Cummings were among those to spend Sunday at Rocky Point.

Ach Brownlee of Marysville, E. T. Robie of Auburn and W. T. Ellis of Marysville, who have been spending the past three weeks at Rocky Point on the west side of Klamath Lake, left Monday for their homes in California.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stubbins of Los Angeles drove through Klamath Falls on their way to Rocky Point where they will enjoy a week's vacation and outing.

Among those seen at Rocky Point over the past week-end were Miss Frances Bratten and Miss Florine Finnell who were guests at friends at the popular resort.

C. H. Urie and E. I. Raney, both residents of St. Helena, Oregon, are spending their vacation at Rocky Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Al F. Graham and son Herbert, have returned recently from a two weeks' visit in San Francisco and Los Angeles with friends and relatives. They made the trip by motor.

James Swansen of the Swansons Barber Shop has returned home after motoring south with his family who are planning to spend the summer months in Pasadena.

Mrs. J. F. Wells, mother of Mrs. Harry Ackley, is in Klamath Falls visiting for an extended time with her daughter and many friends. Mrs. Wells makes her home in Ashland and will spend some time here on the Ackley ranch on the west side of Upper Klamath lake.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cramblitt were among those seen at Rocky Point over the week-end. They were accompanied by their daughter, Miss Mary Vi Cramblitt.

G. M. Baker and Mrs. Baker with Mr. and Mrs. N. Y. Young and family spent the past week-end at Rocky Point where many Klamath Falls residents enjoyed a few days from the city's heat.

Miss Mae Mordoff and Miss Jean Perry are planning to leave next week for San Francisco and Berkeley where they will attend the annual convention of Delta Zeta, women's national fraternity. Both Miss Mordoff and Miss Perry are members of the University of Oregon chapter.

Mrs. George Drummond, well known Klamath Falls matron, has returned to her home after spending the past month visiting with friends and relatives in Kansas City and Oklahoma points.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Lamb have returned from Cannon Beach where they spent a short time. Mrs. Lamb enjoyed the beach with her son Calvin and met Dr. Lamb north last week to return to Klamath Falls.

Tom Malarkey, employed as reporter on the Evening Herald, has left for a two weeks' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Malarkey of Portland, and with friends in Seaside.

Drs. and Mrs. George Merryman and sons spent the past week-end with Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Campbell at the Campbell summer home on Lake o' the Woods.

Miss Marian Grubbs has returned to Klamath Falls from Corvallis, where she attended the three-week session of boys and girls club work from Klamath county. Monday Miss Grubbs resumed her position with the Golden Rule store where she is employed in the office.

Mrs. Wayne Akers and her young son Richard have returned from Eugene where they have been for the past fortnight visiting with friends at Mrs. Akers' former home. According to Mrs. Akers Eugene and the valley cities have been experiencing very hot weather during the past 10 days.

Linn Nesmith of the California Oregon News company was among those to spend Sunday at Rocky Point fishing.

H. A. Utley, prominent real estate man of the Lakeview country and pioneer resident of Lakeview, was in Klamath Falls yesterday for several hours looking into business affairs for the Favell-Utley company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McNeely, Oliver Wilson and Miss Ruth McNeely spent the past week at the McNeely cabin at Rocky Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger have returned to Klamath Falls from Portland where they have been for the past two weeks. Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, Sr., of Medford, was taken to Portland last week where she submitted to a major operation in St. Vincent's hospital. According to Mrs. Steiger, her mother-in-law is vastly improved. She is a former Klamath Falls resident.

Mrs. Lester Offield has been called to the bedside of her father, M. Giacomini of Merrill, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks.

Mrs. Ada J. Walker has left for Canada where she will visit for a month or two with friends and relatives. Mrs. Walker will spend the major portion of her time in southern Canada. She makes her home on Fifth and Lincoln.

A party of the younger set enjoyed a swimming party Sunday at Whul-kee on Agency lake. Included in the party was Pearl Collier, Lon Hilton, Anne Crawford, Thelma Clow and Jack Davidson. A picnic supper was enjoyed later in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, Miss Myrtle Collier and Orville Hamilton were guests in Fort Klamath Sunday at chicken dinner. Following the dinner the party stopped at Whul-kee beach for a swim.

A. W. Moon of Ashland is included in the business visitors in the city this week.

Included in the out-of-town business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday was Louis J. Robin, well known rancher of the Olene district where he has been ranching for a great many years.

Ben Wilson has accepted a position with the Wilson Abstract company for the summer months until the opening of the winter school term.

Theo. W. Flackus, well known rancher of the Dairy district, was in the city on business yesterday for a brief time. He was visiting old friends in the court house during the afternoon.

A group of girls are leaving shortly after 5 o'clock for Whul-kee on Agency lake for a supper party and swim. The party will include Ruth Lindsey, Connie Crystal, Mae Crystal, Inez Jenkins, Jo Upp, Katherine Plunkett, Pearl Collier and Myrtle Collier.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Saunders, residents of Wilmington, California, are expected to arrive in Klamath Falls to spend the Fourth of July holidays with Mrs. Saunders' mother, Mrs. Frank Upp and family. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will be accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saunders, also of Wilmington.

Word has been received by friends of Miss Alice Kessler telling of her arrival in Europe where, with her mother, Miss Kessler will spend the summer months. At present they are travelling in the British Isles. Miss Kessler will resume her position as teacher in Klamath county high school.

New Plant Wizard Grows Foreign Fruits in Florida

From Florida comes the news of a man who horticultural work rivals that of the late Luther Burbank. He has imported and developed many unusual fruits, which thrive in Florida soil. At the left, above, is seen a "Monstera Deliciosa" which looks like corn and tastes like combined strawberries, pineapples and bananas. Center is H. W. Johnston, the horticulturist. Right, a number of "Jujubas," fruit native to Arabia, acclimatized by Mr. Johnston.

D. W. Stevenson spent the past week-end visiting with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Stevenson of the Southern Oregon Tourist Bureau. According to Stevenson the valley has been very hot during the past few days.

F. A. Ohlemeyer was a host last night to 25 members of the Business and Professional Women's club when they enjoyed their June picnic party at his ranch on the Spring Lake road. Mrs. Irma Dixon, president of the club, was greeted upon her return from Astoria where she attended the annual state convention of Business and Professional Women's clubs held there.

Miss Gertrude Lindley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Lindley, has returned from Medford where she spent several days the house guest of Miss Lella and Miss Marion Brown.

Miss Geneva Glenn, daughter of Mrs. F. J. Glenn, has arrived in Klamath Falls with her mother from Berkeley, where they have spent the past winter. Miss Glenn is a journalism major at the University of California and will spend the summer months here. Monday she accepted a position with the Golden Rule during the rush weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert L. Cook were among those to attend the baseball game Sunday between Klamath Falls and Medford on the Medford diamond.

Mrs. Jean Dean, who recently came to Klamath Falls to make her home from Portland, has accepted a position with the Golden Rule store for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Perry and a party of the younger set, including Miss Jean Perry, Miss Elva Jensen, Miss Aileen Mordoff, Miss Mae Mordoff and Alec Brandt, C. W. Taylor and Kenneth Perry, motored to Whul-kee where they enjoyed a swim Sunday. A supper party was later enjoyed at Chiloquin.

Miss Ruth Lindsey, Mrs. Goldie Miller, Jimmy Welch and Wilbur Kennett drove to Medford Sunday where they spent the afternoon attending the Medford-Klamath Falls baseball game.

Mrs. McPherson Examines Gallery Of Rouges in L. A.

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—(United News)—Almae Semple McPherson looked into the faces of 3500

H. J. Overturf, well known lawyer of the Bend country, is here for the remainder of the week looking into legal affairs and visiting with attorneys here.

of southern California's most desperate criminals Monday, and smiled.

With Assistant Captain of Police Joe Taylor, Mrs. McPherson scanned three bulging volumes of the police file rogues' gallery in the hope of identifying her asserted abductors.

At the conclusion of the examination she told reporters she had nothing to say.

Then she added, "please remember I am a minister."

GREAT INTEREST IS SHOWN IN KLAMATH

(Continued From Page One)

ber of well-to-do farmers of Del Norte county should not decide upon locating in this section in the near future.

"People generally emigrate to sections that are prosperous, and where there is a future awaiting, and that is the reason so many people of Crescent City and the surrounding country are so much interested in Klamath Falls. They know of the great railway construction that is about to be started in this vicinity, and during my travels covering a period of two weeks the principal topic of conversation seemed to be regarding Klamath Falls."

Elmer Applegate has a hobby and that is botany. He delights in cultivating both wild and tame flowers of almost every known variety, and one need only visit his home located one-quarter of a mile southeast of this city to be convinced that he delights in communing with nature as his gardens are a great source of entertainment and education.

EVANGELIST CLOSES MEETINGS IN CITY

The three weeks evangelistic meeting at the Christian church came to a close Sunday night and the congregation feels that much good has been accomplished.

In his closing remarks Rev. M. L. Petelle expressed the hope that the community might call upon him and upon the church for any service they may be able to render, since the building was erected with that purpose in mind.

Thirty-five persons were added to the membership during the meeting.

MUSICIANS LEAVE FOR GRANTS PASS

Vellie Pruitt, evangelistic soloist, and Mrs. Clara Tuttle Feston, pianist, who have been assisting Rev. M. L. Petelle in the meetings at the First Christian church, returned to their homes in Grants Pass Monday.

According to word received here later it was learned that an infant daughter had been born to Mrs. Pruitt Sunday.

Big shipment of pretty new dresses in today at Bee Begin's Store. 224-29

Trap Shooting

Modoc Point

July 3rd and 4th

9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Main events start 10 a. m. Shooting for money prizes or birds only.

All shooters classified.

All shooters welcome.

Spectators welcome.

Lunch served.

Everything Under The Sun For Fun

WE ARE HAVING A CELEBRATION
JULY 3, 4, 5 and 6

FEATURING: the visiting warships; clam bakes; beach sports; bathing beauties; round-up; speed races; baseball; ocean scenery and redwood trees.

REACHED—Over the new Redwood Highway.

Klamath Falls Is Only a Day's Drive
— FROM —

Crescent City,
CALIFORNIA

Crescent City Celebration Committee
LOOK US UP

