Arthur Meighen Premier Canada Assumes Duties

OTTAWA, Ont., June 29.—(United News)—Hon. Arthur Meighen was sworn in Tuesday as premier of Canada, following the resignation Monday of Mackenzie King, as head of the government. Meighen surrendered his seat in parliament that he might accept the premiership. He was represented Tuesday afternoon in that body by Sir Henry Drayton. Pending general elections in Canada five acting ministers have been named to hold office with Meighen temporarily. They will not draw salaries or have portfolios and will thus retain their seats in parliament.

CITIZENS RESPOND LOYALLY FOR BONDS will be compelled to gaze upon the transformation in utter bewilderment.

Optimism Now Prevails
The people of Klamath Falls will awaken this morning with a renewed spirit of optimism. Their vision will have been brightened; their human dynamo will be brought into action and they will proceed with the building of a greater Klamath Falls and a great Klamath county.

The election was a magnificent demonstration of what the people of Klamath Falls stand for as regards our future. It brought factions under one wing, it resulted in hatchets being buried that had been held in threatening attitude for a long time.

Reason to Be Happy
The people of this pulsating little city have reason to be happy. A great victory has been won and we must now all shed our linen and put our shoulders to the wheel of industry and build for the future. The goal is near, and through our public spiritedness we have demonstrated that we will let no barrier stand in our way which will tend toward the upbuilding of a greater Southern Oregon.

The total registration in the city was estimated at about 3000, but of this number it is believed that fully 500 have left since the last election. That would mean that 2500 people were eligible to cast their ballots upon this all important question. Practically one-half of the registered voters exercised their franchise, and of that one-half 98 per cent, and a trifle better, made it known that they were in favor of a greater, bigger and better Klamath Falls.

DANGEROUS FIRE NARROWLY AVERTED

Sparks flying from the top of the waste incinerator is believed to have been responsible for a grass fire yesterday afternoon which swept several acres adjoining the Sixth Street Lumber company's mill and destroyed short sections of fence about the grounds.

THE SEASIDE TRIP

One joy of a city is having some attractive place to run to by way of diversion. Almost everyone likes an occasional outing, and with automobiles as numerous as here, the open road has the biggest lure.

PUBLISHER OF OREGON SEES OUR GROWTH

on several occasions during the past few years.

It might not be out of reason to state that Editor Brodie publishes one of the snappiest, most brilliant and ably edited daily papers in the whole state of Oregon, but why shouldn't he? It has been his life's work and he knows the game in all its most minute details.
