Mrs. L. Edwards Dies at Home in Jacksonville, O.

Mrs. Ella Edwards of Jacksonville, Oregon, mother of Mrs. Leslie Rogers of Klamath Falls, died at the family residence in Jackson county, at 11 o'clock Friday morning, according to a message received by Leslie Rogers, cashier of the First National bank of this city, at noon yesterday.

Mrs. Edwards has visited in Klamath Falls numerous times as a guest in the Rogers home had made many friends here. She had spent several weeks in the city and with her daughter's family at Lake of the Woods early in June.

Death was due to heart trouble. Mrs. Edwards had been ill but three weeks. She was 70 years of age at the time of her death.

Mrs. Rogers was at the bedside of her mother. Mrs. Edwards is survived by a husband, Lee Edwards, her daughters, Mrs. Rogers of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Charles Cofer of Jacksonville, Mrs. Carl Cofer and Mrs. E. W. Hopkins of Portland, and sons, Carl, George and Thomas Margreiter, of Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be held in Jacksonville, the date to be announced later.
