

Pelican Teachers Still Rambling In Sunny South

Klamath Falls will learn a lot of history when the four school teachers now touring the country in The Pelican, return in early September.

Following is the telegram received here: "Went swimming in the Atlantic ocean at Daytona, Florida, the world's famous beach. We drove to St. Augustine, the oldest city in the United States, and the main street, St. George, is so narrow that there is only one-way traffic, and that with difficulty. We visited the oldest house in the United States, also a school house that was 300 years old. Went through Fort Marion, old Spanish fort started in 1638. You'll hear from us somewhere in Georgia next. The Pelicans."

BOY SCOUT TROOPS MEET ON WEDNESDAY

A meeting of the local Boy Scout troops will be held Wednesday evening in the Boy Scout rooms at the court house at 7:30 o'clock. At that time important matters connected with the location of the permanent site of the summer camp will be discussed.

BABY PEGGY WILL BE ATTRACTION AT ORPHEUS TONIGHT Baby Peggy in the "Darling of New York" will be the headliner at the Orpheus this afternoon and tonight. This little screen artist is not only the darling of New York, but she is the darling of every film lover who has seen her in action. She always takes a clever part in any assignment given, and press reports on the "Darling of New York" are most commendable. A rip-roaring comedy, "Locked Out," the "Raiders of the North," and the third chapter of the "Riddle Rider," make up a strong program. ICE CREAM IS HOBBY WITH SACRAMENTO YOUTH SACRAMENTO, July 12.—(United News)—Frank Thompson, 19, consumed 37 well filled ice cream cones within an hour. He says he could do better with a little competition.
