Ernest, chairman; W. P. G. Thacher, and Ralph D. Casey of the University faculty staff.

The March issue of Poetry printed "The Little Queen Sleeps", one of Miss Stewart's work. Her work has been published also in the Magazine of Verse and the Measure, a journal of verse. The winning song will be set to music and will be sung as an event of the half-centenary observance on the campus, October 18 to October 23.

Curtains made by the girls are perhaps the most attractive additions to the little room. They are of brown linens with darker brown trees and green bases in stencil.

Light brown chairs with the insignia of fire burning on the head with a quaint little settee painted in the two-tones of brown add materially to the gaiety of the little room. A table is yet to be installed and an attractive and very gay runner has been made by the girls of Sunchabeo.

A linoleum rug was the gift to the club house of the Winema group.
