WHY not point with pride to your own home? There are thousands of reasons why you should. There is not a reason why you should not own a home to which you may point with pride. This is true, especially when a start for home owning is so easy, with the prices so low and the plan so generous, as made by the Klamath Development Company. Further, to build a home in Klamath Falls is good judgment, which is wisdom, and with it there is profit. The profit, aside from the increase in value which accrues with the increased growth of Klamath Falls, is in the increase of family stability, economic independence, social relations and pride in civic responsibility, including morals, education and good government as a dependable safeguard to your loved ones and your investment. Klamath Falls is growing. Build, grow and profit with it.
