

PERSONALS

Traffic Officer Walter Foster made a brief business trip to Medford yesterday afternoon and reports heavy tourist travel over the Klamath Falls-Ashland highway and the Pacific highway north.

Mrs. A. M. Collier was among the Klamath Falls women to accompany her husband, president of the Klamath county chamber of commerce, to Eugene for the Trail-to-Rail celebration in Eugene. There was a large number of women on the special that left for the north yesterday.

Mrs. May Van Meter, property owner in Klamath Falls, was here for a short time this week from her ranch home, located in the Olene district.

Gilbert Harrison, rancher of the Bonanza country, is included in the out-of-town business visitors in Klamath Falls during the past few days.

Charles Gray was a business visitor in the city from his home near Bonanza this week.

Hal S. Nelson, sales promotion manager of the Willits-Tverland Pacific company, is here for several days on a combined business and pleasure trip from Seattle. Nelson was quite favorably impressed with Klamath Falls and stated that his return trip to southern Oregon would be looked forward to with much pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Jordan of the Lakeview route were in the city to shop and visit with business acquaintances for a short time yesterday afternoon.

H. H. Van Valkenburg, former resident of Klamath Falls and also former owner of what is now the Holiday dairy ranch, was a business visitor in the city this week from the valley. Van Valkenburg now makes his home in Ashland.

J. R. Elliott, rancher of the valley, was in the city Wednesday for a brief business visit.

Lakeview ranchers to spend yesterday in Klamath Falls included Maurice J. O'Keefe, well known sheepman of the neighboring district.

Miss Ruth Lindsey was unable to attend her position in the First National bank Thursday.

Mrs. Bert Gerking was shopping in the city for a few hours Thursday from her home near Lakeview.

This evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Schallock on Pacific terrace, Lazar Samoiloff will be honored with a formal reception from 9 o'clock until 11 o'clock. Samoiloff's accompanist and assistant, A. Kostalmetz, also of San Francisco, will be an honor guest at the Schallock home this evening. Both the prominent musicians, Samoiloff and Kostalmetz, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Voye of Washington street.

"Doc" and Mrs. A. J. Lyle of the Klamath General hospital left yesterday for Palo Alto where they will be joined by their daughter, Miss Alexis, who has spent the past few months in the south. They also plan to visit in Long Beach and San Francisco before returning to Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tatman have as their house guests for several days, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bailey and their daughters, the Misses Dorothy and Nelsine of Taft, California. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey will also visit with friends in Yreka before returning to their home in Taft.

Mrs. Clara Worden, a former Klamath Falls resident, and her son, Robert have arrived in Klamath Falls to spend several weeks as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Worden of Washington street. Mrs. Worden has scores of friends who are welcoming her return to Klamath Falls even for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Sisemore of the Fort Klamath district were visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday for a few hours.

W. F. Jinnette, prominent Merrill rancher, who was operated upon in a local hospital for appendicitis, is rapidly recovering from his illness.
