

SOCIETY

GREAT OREGON

Today we stand on the same ground
Where fifty years ago
Our fathers stood and proudly crowned
The fair ideal we know.
They pledged the University
To us with loyal vow.
And loyalty to loyalty
We pledge our fathers now.

Chorus

O. Pioneers of faith and light,
We sing our praise to you!
May we, with reverence for your might,
Love true as you loved true.
O. Oregon! Flower of the State
As beautiful as dawn!
We sing our praises to you, great,
Great Oregon!

When fifty years again pass 'way
There will be yet a few
Of us to gather here and say:
"As we have loved, love true!"
What is great now shall greater be
As fuller years go on,
For faith and love build mightily
Our Oregon.

BUSINESS WOMEN TO MEET IN SEPTEMBER

Before the fall activities and round of parties, meetings and social affairs are plunged into, members of the Business and Professional Women will rest from the duties of their clubs.

During an executive meeting of Business and Professional Women on Tuesday evening, it was announced that there would be no social meeting on August 23, as previously announced. And the first meeting in the new season is scheduled for the second Monday in September, the 13th.

The first fall meeting to be held by the club will be in the nature of a dinner party at Linkhaven Tea rooms. Following dinner Rev. J. Henry Thomas of St. Paul's Episcopal church, has promised to address the women. Rev. Thomas has chosen as his brief discussion, "Constructive Improvements Necessary to Klamath Falls."

Following the address the evening will be given over to informal entertainment. It is at this meeting, especially, and probably more than any other gathering of the fall months, that guests and prospective members are urged to attend. Every member is asked to bring a guest to the dinner at half past six, Monday evening, September 13.

In order to take the place in the community that such a club holds, two of the members were asked to assist in showing the Portland business men and chamber of commerce representatives through the business and residential districts of the city Saturday, when the special train arrived at half past nine from the Trail-to-Rail celebration at Eugene during the past week. The women were Mrs. H. D. Hunsard and Mrs. Steve Sabo, Jr.

FLOAT TO BE PLACED IN PARADE

One of the most interesting floats for the Labor Day parade and the three-day celebration in Klamath Falls, is promised by the Business and Professional Women's club. The committee in charge of the float includes Mrs. Lena Dennis chairman, Mrs. Malda Crippen Harwood and Mrs. Leda Parker.

Following a brief committee meeting a float in the nature of a business office, depicting the business life of the women, was chosen. There will be stenographers, office assistants and secretaries, showing the business side of the life, and a nurse will represent the professional.

MIZPAH CLASS IS ENTERTAINED TUESDAY

Tuesday afternoon members of the Mizpah class of the Methodist Sunday schools, met at the home of Mrs. J. Gysbers for several informal hours.

A cafeteria luncheon was served late in the afternoon, following games and music.

The guests included Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mrs. H. E. Momyer, Mrs. Sarah Smith, Mrs. Aubrey, Mrs. William Steinmetz, Mrs. Guy Satterlee, Norman and Arthur Satterlee, Mrs. Florence Smith, Mrs. Frieda Bryant, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Mattie Burchett, Mrs. Crowder, Mrs. C. C. Lewis, Mrs. Lulu B. Hutchins, Mrs. Patridge, Mrs. Drake, Mrs. J. H. Rea, Mrs. J. S. Mills, Mrs. J. N. Guthrie, Mrs. M. L. Miller, Mrs. Stanley Berry, Mrs. C. L. Lewis, Mrs. L. E. Brock, Miss Eleanor Yarnes, Donald Hutchins, Miss Mary Jane Drake, Miss Betty Lou Drake, Miss Rachael Gysbers, Francis Gysbers, Miss Ruth Gysbers, Donald Gysbers, Mrs. John Yaden, Mrs. Carrie Maier, Mrs. J. Levings, Mrs. Melissa Hammel and Mr. G. T. Casper.

MOTOR TO DIAMOND LAKE FOR WEEK END

An interesting party of Klamath Falls' younger set motored to Diamond Lake Saturday afternoon, chaperoned by Miss Minnie Barnum. Miss Joy Miller, Miss Edna Dunbar and Charles Mack, John Hawkins and Ben Hollister joined Miss Barnum, Miss Dehlla Hawkins and Miss Charlotte Grover at Diamond lake. The party will climb Mt. Thielsen Sunday morning and return here Sunday night.

BRIDGE PARTY SCHEDULED SOON

The first important social function of the fall season, to be sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club, will be a large bridge tea, which is scheduled for the latter part of September. Although the president, Mrs. Irma Dixon, has not yet appointed a committee to outline the plans, this will be done at the next meeting, September 13, when the group meets at Linkhaven for dinner.

MIL AND MRS. BRIXNER ARE HONOR GUESTS

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brixner, who returned Tuesday night from Honolulu, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker were hosts at their home in Mills Addition to a prettily appointed dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Brixner were met at the train by a number of their intimate friends, and welcomed back to Klamath Falls. Covers at the dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker.

MISS MARTIN COMPLETES HISTORY OF SENEGAL

Following a year's research work and endless translation in French histories and text books, Miss Dorothy Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Martin of Klamath Falls and San Francisco, has compiled a fascinating history of Senegal, French territory in West Africa, the only history of the little country in the English language.

It was for her thesis and M. A. degree that Miss Martin spent months on the preparation of the history of the African territory, and so excellent was her work, adjudged by the heads of the history departments of the University of California that the book has been placed on the shelves of the Berkeley school library for research work for other students and teachers, as well.

Miss Martin is well known in Klamath Falls and the Klamath country, as she lived here for many years, and was one of the first girls to receive her degree, in 1923, from Klamath Falls. Miss Martin visited here for several weeks this summer.

VISITING HERE FROM DUNSMUIR

Mrs. Minnie Henry and son Wilford are visiting in Klamath Falls as the guests of her sisters, Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. A. J. Voyer and Mrs. Emma Mills. Mrs. Henry and her son reside in Dunsmuir.

MRS. MARTIN TO LEAVE FOR SOUTH

Mrs. S. E. Martin and Miss Betty Ramsby, her niece, are leaving Sunday (today) for Oakland, where they will spend the winter at the Martin home. Miss Ramsby will complete her high school course in the Oakland high school, and probably return north early in the spring. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Ramsby.

MRS. NICHOLS IS COMPLIMENTED

For Mrs. Otto Francis Nichols, Mrs. George R. Lindley entertained at the Lindley home overlooking Lake Ewauna, Thursday evening. A score of the younger set were bidden to the affair.

Guests included Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Sarah Lindley, Mrs. Robert Riggs, Mrs. George A. Myers, Mrs. Robert Lindley, Mrs. George Ulrich, Mrs. Cecil Matt, Mrs. John Schubert, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Herman Givold and the Misses Ferne Hanks, Miriam Wortley, Elma Jensen, Alisa Massey, Gertrude Lindley, Mae Mordoff, Aileen Mordoff, Margaret Bond of Bend, Jean Perry, Margaret Humphrey, Pearl Blehn, Margaret Hargus, Bessie Tull and Lois Hynon.

INVITATIONS OUT FOR BRIDGE PARTY

Miss Frances Humphrey and Miss Lois Hynon have issued invitations to a small number of the younger set for an informal bridge party on Thursday evening at the George Humphrey home on Pine street.

DAUGHTERS HONOR MOTHERS AT PARTY

One of the prettiest parties of the late summer season, beautiful in sentiment as well, was that for which Mrs. Frank Mills was hostess at her attractive new home on High street, to a group of young maids and matrons of the city and their mothers, on Friday afternoon. A dainty luncheon was served to the guests later in the afternoon. Late summer flowers in tall vases made the rooms attractive.

Mrs. Mills' guests were Mesdames H. T. Dow, Martin McAndrews, Mary Drew, J. A. Houston, George T. Porter, Carver Ball, Marion Hanks, J. S. Mills, William Maguire, J. C. Johnston and the daughters; the Mesdames C. A. Patterson, C. E.

Smart Collar Distinguishes New Two-Piece

A smart high collar distinguishes this new two-piece frock consisting of box pleated blouse with black trimmings.

Bell of Chilcoquin, Ernest Heiken, A. M. Collier, R. H. Radcliffe, D. N. Clemens, John Brett, Tom Elliott, Jacques J. Steiger, Frank Mills, the hostess, and the Misses Perle Dow, Esther McAndrews, Katherine McAndrews, Vera Houston and Mary Hall.

MIL AND MRS. J. I. BEARD TO ENJOY VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Beard and daughter, Miss Jean, are leaving today, Sunday, for Corvallis, where they will visit for a week with Mr. Beard's brother, director of the Corvallis, O. A. C. band. From Corvallis they intend to motor to Portland and beach resorts to spend the remaining week before returning to Klamath Falls.

MATRONS TO BE HONORED HERE

On September the tenth, Friday, at half past twelve o'clock, matrons of Klamath Falls and Klamath county, who have been employed in that most fascinating of work, keeping their own home lovely, will be honored by the American home department of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club, with a luncheon at the White Pelican hotel.

Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg is chairman of the committee which has had plans outlined for the luncheon for six months. At one time the matrons were bidden to such an honor luncheon but the affair was postponed indefinitely.

It is the desire of the committee to be in touch with all matrons who have kept house for 50 years or more so that they may be invited to the September luncheon.

Those assisting Mrs. Wattenburg include Mrs. Z. J. Powell, Mrs. Con J. Zumbalt and Mrs. John C. Boyle.

MRS. JESTER'S GUESTS LEAVE

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herwig of Spokane, Wash., have returned to their home in the north by way of the valley after visiting in Klamath Falls for several weeks with Mrs. Herwig's sister, Mrs. Glenn Jester.

SCHALLOCK HOME SCENE OF RECEPTION

By far the most interesting and outstanding affair on the social calendar last week was the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallack on Pacific Terrace Friday evening, when Lazar Samoiloff, famous Russian vocalist, and A. Kostalametz, his accompanist, of New York City, were honored by more than one hundred and fifty Klamath residents and numerous guests from out of town.

The distinguished musicians have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Voyer for the past few days.

Mrs. W. E. Lamm of Modoc Point presided at the punch bowl which was set in a lovely bower of flowers in one corner of the attractively appointed room. She was assisted by Mrs. Will Lorenz, Mrs. Harry Poole, Mrs. Minnie Henry, Miss Evelyn Amicke, Miss Marie Davenport and Miss Elizabeth Ramsby. Mr. Samoiloff, Mr. Kostalametz, Mr. and Mrs. Schallack, Mr. and Mrs. Voyer and Mrs. Emma Mills received the guests.

Miss McNeve of New York, sang beautifully during the evening and Jack Whitney's numbers were enthusiastically received.

The two visiting musicians will leave for the north by way of Crater Lake Sunday, where Professor Samoiloff will conduct a master class in the Ellison-White conservatory of music in Portland.

MISS BEDFORD'S BIRTHDAY OBSERVED

Miss Roberta Bedford, charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bedford, was honored Saturday afternoon at the Bedford summer home on Agency Lake, when a score of the very younger set of Klamath Falls were entertained at the cabin. The affair celebrated Miss Bedford's eleventh birthday.

Bathing and games were the diversions of the afternoon, and at late hour a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

MISS McANDREWS IS HOSTESS TUESDAY

For the pleasure of a large number of the younger set, Miss Veronica McAndrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin McAndrews, entertained with an informal dancing party at the family residence on High street, Tuesday evening.

The following guests enjoyed the evening: The Misses Marjorie Peyton, Joy Evans, Lucille Coar, Virginia Peyton, Della McGrath, Marie Davenport, Virginia Richmond, Lydia Von Berthelsdorff, Veronica McAndrews, and the Messrs. George Condy, Paul Kennedy, Ernest Nielson, Robert Fans, Walter Hannon, Harold Lightfoot, James Jefferson, Lee Roberts and John McAndrews.

MRS. STEARNS VISITING HERE

Mrs. Orson A. Stearns of Ashland, pioneer resident of southern Oregon, and well known in Klamath Falls, is visiting here for a brief time from her home in the valley. She is accompanied by her son, Ernest Stearns of Oakland. He recently was graduated from Oregon Agricultural College from the school of engineering.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Wagner motored to Medford yesterday afternoon to spend the week-end visiting friends in the valley.

Miss Margaret Yager, who has been visiting her brother, W. C. Mason, and family, city, expects to return to her home in Duluth August 25.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Duncan of McMinnville, have left for their home in the valley after visiting for the past week with N. T. McCoy and family at 1940, Portland street. Duncan is county school superintendent of Yamhill county, and stated that he was very pleased with conditions as he found them in Klamath county. Mrs. McCoy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and anticipates numerous visits from her parents in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Runkell and their daughter are remaining in Eugene and Portland over the week-end following their attendance at the Trail-to-Rail celebration in Eugene this week. Runkell, who is county judge, will be back on the "bench" Monday.

Matt Egan, manager of the Algonquin Lumber company, was a business visitor yesterday from the neighboring community and mill.

W. Frain, resident and rancher of the Topsy country, was here for a few hours Saturday afternoon to transact business affairs and visit with friends. In the opinion of many, Frain has the most picturesque ranch in Klamath county, situated at the foot of Topsy Grade. At the head of the grade, it is possible to look below to Frain's ranch, nestled in the foothills. Frain's ranch is also noted for the early crops which it produces for Klamath consumption.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Horton, well known ranchers of the Poe Valley country, were in the city for a short time yesterday afternoon visiting with friends and shopping.

Francis J. Bowne spent a few hours in Klamath Falls Saturday on business and in the interests of the Klamath county school board of which he is chairman.

Miss Vera V. Offield, school clerk of the Klamath county schools, is spending this week-end at the ranch home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Offield of Merrill.

Miss Dorothy McGuffin, sister of Mrs. Beryl Blevens, is the house guest of her sister and brother-in-law from her home in Duluth, Minn. Miss McGuffin will visit here until the latter part of September.

Kenneth Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart of Spring Lake district, has returned to his home in Klamath after spending the past three weeks in the south where he submitted to medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Duncan, well known residents of Salem, are spending a few days in Klamath Falls as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. McCoy of this city. Mrs. McCoy is the sister of Duncan. He is proprietor of the Red Cross Pharmacy of Salem, and she reports business in the capital city excellent.

Miss Maurine Smith, who has been visiting her uncle, Lee Smith of Klamath Falls, will return Monday to her home in the East. Miss Smith will visit with relatives in Portland and Nampa, Idaho, en route East.

Roy C. Gibson has accepted a position as assistant in the office of the Klamath county engineer in the court house.

J. Martin Adams, youngest son of J. Frank Adams, Klamath pioneer, is leaving early this morning for the south with Mrs. S. E. Martin and Miss Betty Ramsby. Adams will leave for the East at Sacramento and go to Philadelphia by way of New Orleans. In Philadelphia, Adams will represent Theta Chi fraternity, Stanford university, at the annual convention of the national.

Monte Mamaker of the Star Car Agency, is making a brief business trip to Oakland, California, and members of his firm expect his return to Klamath Falls Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howie of the Howie Motor company, and who were among the Klamath Falls residents enjoying the Trail-to-Rail celebration in Eugene this week, continued to Portland where they will enjoy a fortnight's vacation.

Of interest to many Klamath Falls residents is the word that Miss Amy Thompson, former Klamath county high school teacher, visited in the city yesterday. Miss Thompson has spent the past winter teaching in Gustine, California, although she is now en route East. She was accompanied to Klamath Falls this week by Miss Anne Peterson, teacher of San Francisco, and Miss Frances Wisniewski of Foley, Minnesota.

Carl Lange, former county school clerk in the office of Fred Peterson, county school superintendent, has accepted the position again to fill the vacancy left by Miss Vera Offield who will leave soon to take nurse's training in the Cook County hospital in Chicago. Lange has been employed as scaler for the Ewauna Lumber company for several years past and has resigned that position.

Miss Dehlla Hawkins and Miss Minnie Barnum, both employed in the office of the tax collector, are spending a fortnight at Diamond Lake, and they report excellent fishing in the lake waters even this late in the season, according to a letter received by the sheriff's office. Mr. and Mrs. A. Matteson and a group of the younger set will spend the week-end with Miss Hawkins and Miss Barnum at Diamond Lake.

John S. Orr of Reno, Nevada, who is here in the interests of his brother's estate, the late Marshall Orr of Bonanza, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls for a short time yesterday afternoon. Judge Orr will return in the near future to Reno. He is a former Klamath Falls resident and is well known in the Klamath country.

H. Offenbacher, now a resident of the Rogue River Valley, but a former Klamath Falls resident, is spending the week-end in Klamath Falls. He made the trip to Eugene to attend the Trail-to-Rail celebration, with the Klamath Falls and San Francisco business men, and returned with the special train Saturday morning. Offenbacher owns the property on Main street where the Sugarman building is located. While in the city he is looking into property interests as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith and son Thornton are expected to return to Klamath Falls today after spending the past week in San Francisco.

cisco. Mrs. Smith will resume her position in the chamber of commerce, at the Triple A desk, filled by Mrs. Irma Dixon during her absence. Smith is employed with the United States Reclamation Service.

Jesse D. Walker of Lorella, well known rancher and pioneer of that county, who made the trip to Eugene for the Trail-to-Rail celebration this week, returned with the special train and spent last night in Klamath Falls before returning to his ranch home today.

E. M. Plasil, rancher of Malis, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls Saturday.

D. E. Alexander of the Rock Creek ranch, was in Klamath Falls on a combined business and pleasure trip Saturday. Alexander is a member of the advisory committee of the Klamath county fair board and is especially interested in the stock show.

Harry Kinney of Sprague River was here on business for a few hours yesterday.

W. B. Brown of Langell's Valley was among the Saturday business visitors in Klamath Falls yesterday.

George Brochanek, well known rancher of the Malin country, was here on business for a few hours yesterday afternoon. Brochanek is among the many ranchers of Malin who are looking forward to a prosperous year despite the fact that grasshoppers ate large portions of the grain crop.

The family service you've been hearing so much about

For long years we have been striving to develop a super-laundry service that would be exactly what women want—and now we have succeeded.

Finished Service

The name of this Service is Finished Service, a service that will surely please you.

You can send your entire washing—your best linens, your personal things, the children's clothes, all your family apparel, and it will come back as sweet and clean and beautifully ironed as if fresh out of a band box.

We have always made it a point to be modest in our advertising, but we are enthusiastic about Finished Service, and we know you will be, too. Phone us today for that next washing.

Wanted—Pianos

If you have a piano that is "just furniture" why not ask us to place a value upon it?

You may become a better musician upon one of our high-grade radios than upon the piano.

Trade your silent piano for a radio.

We can use only three pianos in exchange just now so don't delay in getting our proposition.
