LINGUIST OF THE NEWS SETS SWEDISH NOTICE

Of interest to Swedish residents is an announcement in the church column concerning something religious. It is set in Swedish and the only printer who could master the writing was Nate Otterbein. Nate once traveled through the old world and became a linguist, hence his ability to put the type together of this particular announcement. This is the first time that a notice has ever appeared in a Klamath paper set in a foreign language.

HERMANN E. ABRAHAMSON TO PLAY CLASSICAL MUSIC

Herman E. Abrahamson, who is to appear at the Baldwin hardware store in a Radio recital tonight, created a sensation some years ago when he appeared at the Gamut Club in Los Angeles playing classical selections on an ordinary hand saw.
Since the radio has become so universally prominent he has been broadcasting from a number of the larger stations on the Pacific coast. Among these are KGW and KJR.
The public is invited to this instructive and entertaining demonstration tonight from 6 until 9 at the Baldwin hardware store.

Justice Emmitt Was a Solomon; Ready to Adjust

"You two fellows go sit on a log for a half hour and see if you can't get together on this proposition and if you can't then come back here and I'll donate you $5." Thus did Justice R. A. Emmitt dismiss the assault and battery case of the state against a well known citizen.
According to defendant's attorney, the complainant owed the defendant $5 for the past year and a half and when plaintiff saw him on the street he promptly administered a black eye in exchange for the money he claims he did not receive.
The time of the battery is alleged by the state to have occurred Tuesday, August 24, at the intersection of Pine and Third streets.

Coast Tourists Hear School Bell And Speed Home
School bells on the coast have started their fall ringing and as a result California tourists in Oregon are few and far between.
The slack registration of tourists in the America Automobile association bureau at the chamber of commerce, presided over by Mrs. Leah Smith, has been noticeable for the past week when tourists were scurrying back from the northland to put Tom, Dick and Harry and Mary in school for the winter.
Registrations yesterday included A. J. Stanford, Sacramento; Gilbert P. Doble, Delano; Harry M. Cole, Ana Arbor, Mich.; J. M. Stagg, Los Angeles; Mrs. Roba McLawson, Minneapolis; Leo F. Flynn, Seattle; Mrs. Charles H. Freear, Bakersfield; Albert Spahn, Roseville; Carl J. Hannum, Chico; S. E. Greer, Denair; A. Eyan Ripper, Berkeley.

RABLERS ORCHESTRA HAS TWO NEW PIECES

A slide trombone and an alto saxophone have been added to the Ramblers orchestra, according to announcement made last night by Johnny Sylvester, manager of the boys.
A dance tonight in the Scandia Hall will have its weekly feature, Johnny Matto, who will sing two new numbers.

Two Quarts of Peanuts

Thirty-five years ago an American missionary imported into China two quarts of peanuts and gave them to two Chinese farmers.
One ate his peanuts—the other planted and replanted his.
Today, the Shantung peninsula grows 18,000,000 bushels of peanuts per annum and they are sold all over the world.
As with peanuts—so with dollars.
Don't spend all of your dollars. Plant and replant some of them in a savings account in this fast growing bank where they will grow.
