The queen's robes and gowns and crown will be shown tonight in the windows of Plicher's store, Fifth and Main streets, and the diamond ring to be presented to the queen will be seen in the window of Fred Glover's jewelry store Monday night.

Contestants are requested to turn in their books by not later than 7 o'clock tonight to Miss Cors Larson at the Arcade hotel, that a careful check may be made of the vote and the proper standings be tabulated.

Will Investigate Water Sanitation of Klamath County

To thoroughly investigate sanitary conditions of bodies of water throughout Klamath county, George Tonkin, federal district game warden for the southern Pacific district, arrived in this city yesterday from his headquarters at Sacramento.

Representatives of the California game commission are encamped at present at Tule lake, and after a few hours here yesterday morning, Tonkin left to join the party.

Fred Peterson, county school superintendent, in preparing for the opening of the county schools for the winter term, spent yesterday in the Keno and Algoma districts where school affairs are rapidly being outlined.

GREAT ENDURANCE OF WOMAN GYMNAST

With a record of 200 one-arm swings, in which she casts her body over her shoulder, it is doubtful if there is a woman gymnast who is endowed with the endurance of Miss Erma Ward, star of the Sells-Floto circus, coming to Klamath Falls next Monday. There have been other claimants to this honor, but no other woman has, so far as known, equalled the record set by this young and ambitious performer.

She is also a member of the famous Flying Ward troupe of bar performers and appears twice daily in each act. Miss Ward is small in stature although perfectly formed, has reddish brown hair and is accounted one of the best looking young women in the show.

Divorce Action By Millionaire Finally Dropped

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—United News—On motion of counsel for Robert F. Lakenan, Kansas City millionaire, a divorce suit against Leota Crider Lakenan, screen actress, was dismissed in superior court here today.

Testimony which mentioned C. E. Munger of San Francisco, as co-respondent was struck from the records at the same time. Action to dismiss the suit was started yesterday when Lakenan's attorneys learned that Munger had not been served with a copy of the complaint.

PRIMARY IN TEXAS INTEREST POPULACE

E. Ferguson, that carried Mrs. Ferguson into office in 1925 by an overwhelming majority.

Outside of the state, her election was hailed as an important victory for the women of the nation, but in Texas it was received as another victory for her husband, "farmer Jim." Unable to be a candidate himself because he had been impeached, "farmer Jim" replied to his enemies by running his wife and electing her.

He has been the real governor, the power behind the throne. For twenty years "farmer Jim" has had things his own way in Texas politics. He is a politician of the old school, crafty and resourceful.

The defeat of Governor Ferguson tomorrow would be a defeat for "farmer Jim." Tonight, with the opening of the polls only a few hours away, Governor "Ma" Ferguson sat in the chief executive's mansion with her knitting. Her husband, making the greatest fight of his long and stormy career, spoke to an audience at Groesbeck, asking that Mrs. Ferguson be retained in the governor's mansion, where while he spoke, she sat knitting.

TRAINS TO CARRY BIG LOAD OVER LINE

work will start soon on a 65,000 gallon water storage tank. D. J. Russell, superintendent of construction, stated yesterday.

Miles of Pipe Line

With the completion of the oil lines, there will be nearly five miles of pipe line at the terminal. This figure includes that used in the sewer, fire protection and water service systems, and the oil mains.

The firms on two stalls of the ten-stall roundhouse, will be finished today, ready for concrete the first of next week. Piling for seven stalls has been driven, and with the completion of pile driving on the other three stalls, the driver will be moved to the site where the sandhouse is to be erected.

The major part of the terminal construction will be finished by the first of the year, is the opinion of the chief engineer, although work on minor details will probably be in progress until the middle of next summer.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—"Dutch" Ruether, veteran southpaw who has led Washington pitchers this year, was released today to the New York Yanks for the waiver price of $4,000.

He will leave Saturday for New York to join his new team mates. This makes a complete battery sent to the league leaders by Manager Bucky Harris, Severold having gone to New York recently.
