

SOCIETY

A social calendar, for the benefit of the club women and those whose affairs during the winter are of importance to society, will be used during the winter months on the society page of The Klamath News, beginning September 5, the first Sunday morning in the month.

If there are social affairs of interest to you and your friends, or dates when your club or society meets and you wish it kept prominent in the minds of the members, call 877 and a line will be saved in the calendar for your use.

"DICKENS" PHILOSOPHY

Who can describe the pleasure and delight, the peace of mind and soft tranquillity, felt in the balmy air and among the green hills and rich woods of an inland village?

Who can tell how scenes of peace and quietude sink into the minds of pain-worn dwellers in close and noisy places, and carry their own freshness deep into their jaded hearts?

Men who have lived in crowded, pent-up streets, through whose lives of toll, and never wished for change; men to whom custom has indeed been second nature, and who have come almost to love each brick and stone that formed the narrow boundaries of their daily walks—even they, with the hand of death upon them, have been known to yearn at last for one short glimpse of Nature's face, and, carried far from the scenes of their old pains and pleasures, have seemed to pass at once into a new state of being, and crawling forth from day to day to some green, sunny spot, have had such memories awakened up within them by the mere sight of sky, and hill, and plain, and glistening water, that a foretaste of heaven itself has soothed their quick decline, and they have sunk into their tombs as peacefully as the sun, whose setting they watched from their lonely chamber window but a few hours before, faded from their dim and feeble sight!

The memories which peaceful country scenes call up are not of this world or of its thoughts and hopes. Their gentle influence may teach us to weave fresh garlands for the graves of those we loved, may purify our thoughts and bear down before it old enmity and hatred; but beneath all this there lingers in the least reflective mind a vague and half-formed consciousness of having held some feeling long before in some remote and distant time, which calls up solemn thoughts of distant times to come, and bends down pride and worldliness beneath it.—Charles Dickens.

MISS MILLER BUDE OF SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Coming as a great surprise to their many friends is the announcement of the wedding late Saturday afternoon, August 21, of Miss Viola V. Hill and Arthur R. Dickson, both of Klamath Falls, who were married by Rev. A. L. Rice of the First Presbyterian church, on the rim of Crater Lake, at 4 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson will spend their wedding trip at Crater Lake and in the mountains.

Mrs. Dickson has taught for the past year in the Pelican Bay school, and during the summer months has been instructor of the city playground. Mr. Dickson was a member of the Klamath county high school faculty during the past year, but has now accepted a permanent position with the Ewauna Box company.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickson have been active in the Presbyterian church since making their residence in Klamath Falls. They will be at home in a fortnight in the Sunset apartments.

MISS MILLER IS HOSTESS SATURDAY

Saturday evening Mrs. Harold Miller entertained informally for a group of friends complimenting her husband, whose birthday was August 21. The evening was spent in cards and music.

PORTLAND VISITORS HONORED WITH PARTIES

Mrs. David R. Vandenberg of 701 North Eleventh street, has had as her house guests for the past week, her mother, Mrs. W. J. McCawley, and her sister, Miss Maud McCawley, of Portland. The visitors left for their homes in the north Tuesday.

While in Klamath Falls, Mrs. McCawley and her daughter have been feted upon numerous and delightful occasions.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Henry Rundo of 1134 Grant street, entertained for the Portland visitors at bridge.

Thursday evening Mrs. Samuel P. Miller was a delightful hostess at dinner. Covers were laid, circling a centerpiece of early fall flowers, for Mrs. McCawley, Miss McCawley, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Miller.

A delightful bridge party was that given for her house guests Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Vandenberg at her home. Mrs. Oliver Williams was given high score. Cut flowers made the room attractive. Mrs. E. Dietzsch entertained informally on Friday evening, when she asked a number of Klamath Falls people to meet the visitors. Twelve guests were entertained at the Dietzsch home with an interesting musical evening.

Today, Sunday, a picnic luncheon at Crater Lake ended a most delightful week spent in Klamath Falls.

MRS. COLLIER VISITING HERE

Mrs. Robert Collier of Portland is the house guest of her sisters, Mrs. Ralph Hallantyne and Miss Francis Clarke, for a fortnight. Mrs. Collier is being entertained during her visit here.

VISITING IN KLAMATH FALLS

Mrs. A. D. Miller and her daughter, Miss Constance, are among the interesting visitors in Klamath Falls this week. They are former Klamath residents, and are being welcomed by their many friends upon their return here. Miss Miller will leave soon for Columbia university to study music.

MISS ELLIOTT IS HONORED AT SHOWER

A bridal shower, one of the prettiest of the early fall season, was given for Miss Nelle Marie Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Elliott, at the home of her parents on Thursday evening, August 19.

Miss Gertrude Smith, Miss Jennie Grover and Miss Edith Johnson were hostesses for the surprise party planned for Miss Elliott whose marriage to Pete Moteschenbacher will be an event of late fall.

Miss Elliott is affiliated with Alpha Delta Pi on the University of Oregon campus and Mr. Moteschenbacher is a member of Alpha Tau Omega.

Guests at the shower Thursday included the Misses Jo Upp, Martha Upp, Pansy Robertson, Connie Crystal, Ethelwynn O'Flaherty, Florence Hector, Bernice Hector, Zephia Rogers, Ruth Christy, Beulah May, Winnie May, Lorraine Mordoff, Elizabeth Ramsby, Waive Withrow, Joy Miller, LaVerne Thomas, Joy Evans, Gertrude Cofer, Mamie Harris, Florence Murphy and Mrs. Mahlon Landis.

MISS FERNE HANKS IS HONORED THURSDAY

Miss Ferne Hanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Hanks, whose marriage to Ted Elvin Shoop will be an event of interest early in September, was the inspiration for a bridge party and bridal shower given Thursday evening at the George Humphrey home by Miss Frances Humphrey and Miss Lois Bynon.

The rooms of the Humphrey home were attractive in cut fall flowers and low bowls of asters in purple shades added greatly. Miss Jean Perry was awarded high score at bridge. Mrs. Marlon Hanks, low.

A two-course luncheon was served following bridge. A dainty doll bride, frocked in white satin, and a groom in black and white, with two bridesmaids, formed the centerpiece of the table. White satin ribbons led from the old fashioned corsages at each cover and told of the betrothal of Miss Hanks and Mr. Shoop.

Miss Hanks cut the bride's cake. Covers were laid for Mesdames George Humphrey, Marlon Hanks, D. N. Clemens, Otto F. Nichols, Jacques J. Steiger Jr., Leon Tiffany, Marvin K. Lucas, John Schubert, Herman Gisvold, Cecil B. Matt, Stanley Hajicek and the Misses Fern Hanks, Aileen Mordoff, Jean Perry, Pearl Biehn, Kathleen Malloy, Thelma Short and Elma C. Jensen.

FALL ACTIVITIES OF CHURCH START

One of the most successful meetings in the history of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church was held Thursday afternoon when the first fall gathering was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. M. W. Cosboom, with Mrs. William Steinmetz and Mrs. James Robison assisting as hostesses.

During the afternoon's discussion it was decided to hold a rummage sale on October 16, and the annual holiday bazaar, which is one of the most interesting events of the year, is scheduled for December 4. Where the bazaar and rummage sale will be held will be announced later.

Guests of the afternoon included Mesdames S. R. Berry, C. H. Barnstable, E. T. Higginson, W. D. Cofer, Carrie Maier, W. A. Levings, Ebba Bennett, L. A. Brannan, E. M. Chilcote, H. E. Peliz, Mattie Burchett, T. D. Yarnes, Rhoda Tompkins, James Robison, Lillie M. Partridge of Hogueham, Wash., M. W. Cosboom, W. J. Steinmetz, H. G. Wortley, H. E. Momyer, L. K. Phelps, T. R. Skillington, J. N. Guthrie, E. H. Balsiger and the Misses Dorothy Skillington and Pearl Foster of Petaluma, Calif.

MRS. ENMAN IS THURSDAY HOSTESS

For the pleasure of a few intimate friends, Mrs. S. E. Enman entertained at her attractive home on Merrill road Thursday afternoon, August 19.

The guests included Mesdames Dolan, Hugh O'Connor, G. S. Thompson, Robert Cheyne, Burt Dawson, C. A. Hill, Mary McDonald, Spokane, Wash., and J. R. Elliott and the hostess, Mrs. Enman.

SOCIETY FOUR MISS JENNINGS TO VISIT IN PORTLAND

Miss Loretta Jennings is spending this week in Portland as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jennings. She will return early in September to resume her position as teacher in the Riverside school. Miss Jennings has spent the summer in Klamath Falls employed with Wheeler-Olmstead mill as stenographer.

MR. AND MRS. ROGERS ARE WEEK-END HOSTS

With Lake of the Woods, one of the prettiest mountain lakes in southern Oregon, filled with gay parties at the summer homes which dot the shore of the lake, none were more interesting than the house party given by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, who entertained for eight couples from the city and additional guests who are summering at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and their guests motored to the lake early Saturday afternoon.

MRS. COLLIER RETURNS SOUTH

After visiting in Klamath Falls as the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Warren of Pine street, Mrs. Charles Collier has returned Thursday morning to her home in Chicago, California.

While in the city Mrs. Collier also visited with her brothers, Scott and Edwin Warren. Mrs. Collier was the inspiration for a number of attractive social affairs during her brief visit in the city.

MRS. ROGERS IS HOSTESS FOR GUEST

One of the loveliest parties of the summer was that given for Mrs. Charles Collier of Chicago, California, when Mrs. Leslie Rogers entertained with a bridge luncheon Wednesday at 1 o'clock at her home on Pacific Terrace.

Low bowls of golden and orange hued nasturtiums were used for the centerpiece in the dining room, and covers for the guests were laid around these motifs.

High score at bridge was awarded Mrs. E. H. Pike. Mrs. Collier was given an attractive guest prize.

Mrs. Rogers was assisted at luncheon by her daughter, Miss Jean Rogers, and Miss Harriett Hunter.

WEEK-END VISITORS AT LAKE O' WOODS

With the fast approach of the fall months, the opening of the Klamath Falls schools, and the general close of summer hostess duties, Lake of the Woods, which affords summer hospitality to many Klamath Falls and Rogue river valley residents, is calling more than ever to those who summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood have as their house guests this week-end at Lake of the Woods, Mrs. Underwood's mother, Mrs. Laura Chamberlain and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hall are entertaining this week-end at their summer cottage for Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Albertson and Mrs. Lottie Martin. They motored to the lake Saturday morning.

SCHOOL OF DANCING TO OPEN IN FUTURE

The younger set of Klamath Falls society will be interested to learn that the dancing school of Mary Coe Peterson will open for fall and winter work early in September.

During the past winter, mothers of the tiny tots escorted them to their dancing classes where they learned technique, "positions" and the rudiments of dancing and this year, on a more elaborate scale, Mary Coe Peterson has arranged her classes. For the present they will be held in the Moose Hall pending further arrangements.

The winter ballet and the spring recital are two of the interesting features of this winter's program.

MRS. SMITH IS HOSTESS THIS WEEK

One of the prettiest parties of the week was enjoyed at the home of Mrs. D. M. Smith Tuesday afternoon when a lovely lawn party was given for seventy-five children, members of the primary department of the Methodist Episcopal church. A charming luncheon was served later in the afternoon.

The primary department is divided into five groups, according to age, and the several ladies heading the groups assisted Mrs. Smith and supervised the games. They were Mrs. George Lindley, Mrs. Robert Lindley, Mrs. C. V. Drake, Mrs. Gordon Quimby, Mrs. C. Lewis and Mrs. Esther Danivan.

Assisting Mrs. Smith with refreshments were Mrs. George Caspers, Gysbers, Mrs. John C. Yaden, Miss Gertrude Lindley, Miss Dorothy Gillington, and Miss Ruth Chilcote.

MISS MCCORMICK IS BRIDE OF SUNDAY

Miss Winifred Iris McCormick was one of the prettiest brides of the season when she was married to Louie Coggins early Sunday morning at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal church with Rev. T. D. Yarnes officiating.

Mrs. F. L. Mendonca, sister of the bride, and Bryce McCormick the bride's brother, attended the bride and groom.

The bride was charming in a lovely model of sable satin with hat and matching accessories.

Following the wedding, the party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mendonca where a wedding breakfast was served.

Mrs. Coggins, following her graduation from Klamath county high school, received her teacher's training course at Monmouth and has since that time taught in Klamath county. Mr. Coggins is affiliated with the Standard Oil company at Chiloquin. The couple will be at home to their many friends in Chiloquin following a brief wedding trip in the valley.
