

Tilden Triumphs In Tennis Games Over Johnston

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 2.—(United News)—In a stirring five-set match on the soggy courts of Longwood, big Bill Tilden and his new doubles partner, Alfred H. Chapin, Jr., triumphed over little Bill Johnston and Ed Chandler, inter-collegiate champion, and entered the finals of the national championships.

Tilden and Chapin had to come from behind to win, as the two Californians were at their best in the second and third sets. The scores were 6-3, 0-6, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Angels Are Handed Third Defeat by Hollywood Boys

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—(United News)—The league leading Angels suffered their third straight set-back today when the Hollywood Stars defeated their fellow townsmen, 2 to 4.

Los Angeles lost nothing in the Pacific Coast League standings, however, for Oakland, second place club, was defeated by Seattle, 9 to 5.

Mission grabbed its second straight game here, beating the great Mails, 4 to 2. Mails was relieved by Moudy after the winning runs had been scored.

Portland defeated Sacramento, 6 to 2, despite the Senators 12 to 8 lead in the matter of base hits.

REPORT WILD GEESSE FORAGING IN IDAHO

Reports of widespread depredations in southeastern Idaho by wild geese is the occasion for a trip to the section by Ray C. Steele, United States game warden of Portland, who will leave Saturday. Huge bands of the migratory birds are reported to be alighting in the fields and on the lakes and streams, foraging as they go. These reports are sometimes justified and sometimes exaggerated, said Steele. He will take a camera with him to make a complete survey of the situation.

Dempsey Pounds Sparring Partner With Big Wallops

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 2.—Tilly "Kid" Herman stood up under bombardment of blows that Jack Dempsey heaped on him Thursday afternoon and barely got out of it conscious. The heavyweight champion lashed the young California middleweight with left and right hooks. He drove him into the ropes with severe body punishment. A furious left that connected with his jaw sent him to the canvas sideways.

Dempsey picked him up and clinched until the fighter may shake off the effects of the blow. Herman came back to life with a bang. He pumped blow after blow at Dempsey. They didn't hurt and Dempsey unloosed another pile driver that made Herman sag. But he stayed on his feet for the few seconds needed to end the round.

Even though it rained heavily, a good crowd watched the titleholder in action.
