

Pelicans Ready To Dangle Scalp Of Grants Pass

"We've got a mighty good chance to win the game with Grants Pass", is the unanimous expression of Pelican baseball players who will today meet the Cavemen on Grants Pass territory for the last regular league game of the season.

The Pelicans will go into the game with the regular lineup. Manager Eddie Duback stated last night, declaring that the boys have never been in better shape to come out on top in a diamond struggle.

It is expected that in event of the foregoing conjecture, the Pear Pickers will meet the local team here next Saturday for the first game of the series.

Whoever wins the decisive game today will have an excellent chance to cop the honors away from Medford who for many weeks has felt assured of a pennant.

It is believed that a great many local fans will accompany the Pelicans to Grants Pass today.

Rules Laid Down In Big Fight For Dempsey-Tunney

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 11.—(United News)—When Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney step into the ring for their battle for the world's heavyweight championship September 23, they must fight absolutely independently of any advice from their respective corners.

The Pennsylvania state athletic commission has issued its orders governing the conduct of the fighters and their seconds during the bout, and has decided there shall be no coaching from the corners.

If the seconds of either principal think their man is being badly defeated they will not have the privilege of throwing in a sponge or towel in acknowledgement of defeat.

This all important individual—the third man in the ring—will not be named publicly until after Dempsey and Tunney are in the ring and have had their hands taped.

The customary practice of coming into the ring with hands bandaged is denied the fighters. Bandages of two inch gauze will be provided by the boxing commission and put on after the principals have climbed through the ropes.

With such precautions does the Pennsylvania boxing board guard against the possibility of any fraud. The judges, who will decide the winner if the bout goes the limit of 10 rounds, will not be named until after the fighters have been bandaged.

The referee, named at the same time, will cast the deciding vote if the judges disagree.

Under the rules laid down by the Pennsylvania boxing board, the kidney punch, the "rabbit" punch, one of Dempsey's old favorites, and back hand pivot punches are barred.

The referee will be instructed to warn each boxer once and then disqualify him if he uses these illegal blows, Chairman Frank L. Weiner announced.

The principals will weigh in at 2 p. m. on the day of the fight at the offices of the Pennsylvania boxing board.

San Francisco Boy In Finals of Golf

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 11.—(United Press)—Johnny McHugh, San Francisco youth and former state golf champion, won his way into the finals of this year's tournament here this afternoon.

McHugh defeated "Chuck" Hunter, Tacoma, two up, in the day's 36-hole semi-final match.

The forenoon play ended with McHugh three up and he was hard pressed by the Tacoma during the afternoon round, losing one hole of his advantage, but still emerging victor.

Dempsey Engages In Real Swatfest With Lightweight

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 11.—(United Press)—Tommy Loughran, Philadelphia's leading candidate for light heavyweight honors, gave Champion Jack Dempsey something to think about this afternoon in the smart lifting boxing fray they arranged, and if Jack is so inclined Sunday's crowd is apt to witness a repetition of the same exhilarating pasting.

Some 3000 persons gazed rapturously at the first honest to goodness swatfest that has occurred in the training camp for a week at least.

They saw Loughran spend six hectic minutes with the champion—taking Dempsey's much surmounted nose was not immune either. The blows that Loughran slid in seemed to leave it intact and unhurt.

Tunney Will Cast Aside Garb Today And Become Pug

STOUBSBURG, Pa., Sept. 11.—(United Press)—Gene Tunney, who has spent the greater part of the past week more like a professor than a challenger to a world's heavyweight crown, will cast aside his intellectual garb tomorrow and bundle on his gloves.

Not that he has stayed away from the ring, but he has not over exerted himself in it either yesterday, and his sparring partners seemed none the worse for wear.

Tunney has followed his own precautionary way, because of fear of overtraining, but it is expected he may break loose with a hint of the form he expects to use against Dempsey, when he goes into the ring tomorrow.

GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN TODAY

Coast League Is Unchanged From Pennant Standing

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—(United News)—Seattle got an even break with the Missions in a twin bill, taking the first 5 to 0 because of Bratt's steady pitching as well as heavy hitting.

The Seattle pitcher included a homer in his brace. The Missions won the second encounter, a seven-inning affair in the last frame 3 to 2.

"Beaty" Brett was hit hard throughout, but managed to keep in the running until the Missions' final half when Slade singled and got around to third on a wild pitch.
