BOOK DEPARTMENT TO MEET OCTOBER

Mr. Phillip Gibbs' last novel, The Unchanging Quest, will be reviewed by Mrs. Nelson Reed when the first meeting of the year for the book department of the Klamath Falls Women's Library club is called in the library club rooms on Monday afternoon, October 4.

Mrs. Levant Pease will review the Rosalie Evans Letters from Mexico during the November meeting, the date of which will be announced later.

We Must March, by Honore Willis Morrow, is the title of the novel to be reviewed by Mrs. Lynn Bablin during the December meeting. The novels to be discussed and read during the spring of the new year will be announced later in the winter, according to Mrs. Delzell.

BRIDES WELCOMED BACK TO KLAMATH

Klamath Falls is welcoming the return of two of her most popular young matrons, Mrs. Pete Moteschenbacher and Mrs. Ted E. Shoop, whose marriages were social events of the past week. Following a brief wedding trip in the valley and north Mr. and Mrs. Moteschenbacher returned.

KLAMATH FALLS GIRLS TO LEAVE FOR OREGON

A group of attractive young girls, daughters of prominent Klamath Falls residents, are leaving the latter part of the month for Eugene, where they will matriculate as students of the University of Oregon.

Miss Bennett was a graduate from Klamath County high school in June, and will probably be one of the youngest students to register. Miss Bennett will not be 16 years of age until late winter. She has made an excellent scholastic record during her past four years in high school.

Miss Marjorie Peyton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Peyton, will leave for the college city within a fortnight to study. Miss Peyton made an excellent record during her high school years, and her many friends are interested in her future work at the University of Oregon.

Miss Hillis McCall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCall, will leave the latter part of the month for Ashland, where she will enter the Southern Oregon Normal school for the winter.

THE BETTER WAY

Let us ignore the darts, the stings, our nervous neighbors at us throw: the small, the mean, the petty things; the lies they herald to and fro. Let us ignore the faction, strife, of race, of place, of class and creed; such aspid things that poison life, and anger, hate and madness breed. Whatever be one's facial hue; whatever be one's faith or light, let's give to each and all their due who search for truth and do the right. Let's make of earth a better sphere; a place where kindness is shown; till peace reigns sure, and want and fear within its confines are unknown. This can't be done with petty strife, nor yet where tongues of falsehood run; this can't be done where greed is rife; where rancor lives it can't be done. The law of love's the only force to make us better day by day; kept to the path of no remorse, we help man on this upward way.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

For County Judge

G. W. OFFIELD

I shall endeavor to carry out and complete the road program as laid out by the present County Court and to construct such other roads as the county may require as fast as they can be economically financed.

I will conduct the public business of the County as economically as it can be done without sacrificing efficiency, having in mind that the tax payers' burdens are heavy enough at best, but also that a County that is growing as fast as Klamath must spend some money for development purposes.

The County Judge to be elected next November will have the handling of several million dollars of public money during the next six years. He will also preside over the Probate and Juvenile Courts.

It seems to me that the only questions to be considered in the coming election are who is the better fitted to levy and expend your tax money, manage your business affairs, take care of your delinquent children, and the estates of your dead. No petty or personal prejudices should be allowed to obscure the issue.

On the above grounds I invite your support in the coming election.

Yours truly,
G. W. OFFIELD.

As election time draws near I feel that it is due the public that I announce my reasons for asking their support for the office of County Judge and my position on questions and policies that will be likely to come up for decision during the next six years.

I am a native of Oregon and have resided in Klamath County for the last forty years.

I am well acquainted with all parts of the County and know their various needs.

I have held various public offices during the last twenty-five years and invite any and all voters to inspect my official record and am willing to be judged by it.

—For 10 years Justice of Peace for Tule Lake Precinct.

—For 17 years either Mayor, Councilman or Recorder for town of Merrill.

—For 7 years President of Klamath Irrigation District and Klamath Water-Users Association.

—For 4 years Director on the County School Unit Road.

If elected I will use my best endeavor to give Klamath County a clean, economical and efficient business administration. I will have no enemies to punish and no one to reward at the expense of the public.
