

Finals in Golf For Women to Be Concluded Today

DEL MONTE, Sept. 11.—(United Press)—The finals tomorrow morning for the annual Del Monte women's golf championship will be a southern California affair, results of today's play determined.

Miss Kathleen Wright, Pasadena, whose debut on the links was made eleven years ago when she wore her hair in braids, will defend her title against Mrs. Henry Grossman, Hillcrest Country club, Los Angeles.

Miss Wright, displaying the same brilliant form which won the championship last year, today defeated Mrs. Gregg Lifer, southern California.

Miss Wright's play in the qualifying round was disappointing. Her gallery foresaw defeat in the succeeding rounds, but today she resumed her normal form and played invincibly. The result, incidentally, was a reversal of events in the southern California championships, when Mrs. Lifer, defeated today, plowed from behind to best Miss Wright in a spectacular finish.

Mrs. Grossman of the Hillcrest club won her way into the finals by defeating Mrs. H. D. Hammond, Los Angeles, former western women's champion, 2 and 1.

Mrs. Hammond for the past two years has been considered one of Los Angeles' best tournament players. Today she gave added proof of ability. The match was featured by brilliancy on both sides.

In the second flight today, Mrs. F. F. Harvin, Los Angeles Country club, defeated Mrs. A. F. Lee, San Francisco, one up and Mrs. A. C. Callan, Portland, displayed excellent form to win from Mrs. Ted Shelton, Los Angeles, 5 and 4.

Secrecy Covers Moves of Hall-Mills Investigators as State Prepares to Clear Up 4-Year Murder Mystery

Amid activity of the most secret and intense sort, the revived Hall-Mills murder mystery is undergoing investigation. The major figures in the case, according to its latest known developments, are grouped here. Governor Moore of New Jersey feels that nothing short of the most exhaustive investigation can clear the state of the stigma of the unsolved mystery; his appointment of State Senator Alexander Simpson as special prosecutor is but one step in his fight to clear up the case.

Mrs. Hall, released on bail after her recent arrest, is confident that her attorneys, with whom she is seen here, can exonerate her of any alleged participation in the double murder of her husband and Mrs. Eleanor Mills, four years ago. Mrs. Jane Gibson, "the pig woman," is considered the state's most valuable witness. "Willie" Stevens, eccentric brother of Mrs. Hall, is the object of much determined quizzing. Robert H. McCarter is chief of Mrs. Hall's attorneys.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., Sept. 11.—(United Press)—Derussy's lane, avenue of clandestine romance, today furnished another startling sequel to its amorous past when warrants were sworn out for Ralph V. Gorsline and Miss Catherine Rastall, as material witnesses in the Hall-Mills murder investigation. It was Derussy's lane, bordering the scrubby Phillips farm near New Brunswick that Gorsline, respected vestrman in the church of St. John the Divine, and Miss Catherine Rastall, choir singer, motored several times late at night in the summer of 1922.

It was there on the night of September 14 that year that Gorsline and Miss Rastall heard screams and shots. Two days later the bullet riddled bodies of the Reverend Edward Wheeler Hall, pastor of St. Johns, and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills, also a member of the choir, were found beneath a crabapple tree on the Phillips farm. For four years Gorsline, who is married, and Miss Rastall, kept secret their visit to a spot within 200 feet of where the murder was committed. But this week, under steady questioning, both admitted their presence in the lane.

MARGARET DAGGETT HAD FELINE PARTY AND YOU KNOW REST

"It was a nice little party but we had an awful time when the cats started to fight," was the description given by little Miss Margaret Daggett, of the birthday party which she gave at her home yesterday in honor of her pet cat Timothy.

Four cats, brought to the party by four of Margaret's friends, were present to honor Timothy's birthday. Everything was lovely until it came time for refreshments, consisting of milk and meat, and then the felines, carefully groomed and gaily bedecked with ribbons, forgot their party manners, Timothy's birthday feast drew to a close soon after the repast was served.

JAP DYNAMITER IS IN BAD WITH LAW

SEATTLE, Sept. 11.—(United Press)—Possible deportation is faced by E. Ada, Japanese charged with attempting to blow up another Japanese, K Kanaya, a neighbor. Ada is accused of putting an infernal machine under the hood of Kanaya's automobile. When the machine failed to start he investigated and found the explosive, he said. Ada's citizenship status will be investigated.

An unfortunate man, who bore the name of a proud family, and who had fallen into low waters through no fault of his own, managed to obtain access to a certain millionaire.

He commenced to tell his sorry tale—in fact, so graphically did he depict his wretched poverty and weary woes that the millionaire found himself affected as he had never been before. He was by birth a near relation of the unfortunate's, and it was only natural he should feel for the poor man.

With tears in his eyes, he rang for the butler and, in a quivering voice, remarked:

"John, be good enough to put this poor man out. He's breaking my heart!"

THREE LOCAL BOYS LEAVE FOR EUGENE

Returning yesterday from a six-day fishing and hunting trip to Carberry Creek near the state line, Johnny Cusick, Larry Sha and Fred West, who have been employed here during the past summer, planned to leave today for Eugene, where they will resume studies at the University of Oregon.

The boys had only a part of Friday in which to do their fall hunting, and fared home deerless, but report that signs in that part of the country indicate plenty of deer. Fishing in Carberry Creek is excellent, they stated.
